Erosion Body to Pump More Sand; Hopeful of Windshift

The Virginia Beach Erosion Commission is going to step up its sand replenishment program for the beach and hope for favorable winds the rest of the summer. It was decided at a special meeting held Wednesday morning with representatives of the Hotel, Motel Association.

It was learned that unfavorable winds of recent weeks have caused a loss of sand on the beach greater than the present equipment can restore and that an additional booster pumping station is needed to help relieve the condition between 20th and 30th streets.

Joseph McDonald, engineer to the commission, explained that the condition is worst between 20th and 30th streets at the present time. McDonald also said that the program being pursued by the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission has been recommended by the Beach Erosion Board, a segment of the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

E. H. Church, commission chairman, explained that the commission will pump as much sand as possible on the beach immediately and that with favorable winds we should have a satisfactory beach for the summer tourist season. He said it is hoped the commission will be able to install a booster pumping station that would help the condition north of the Virginia Beach fishing pier.

McDonald told the group that the rate of sand loss each year is increasing and that it will be necessary to increase the amount replaced from now on to keep up with the problem.

Bruce A. Parlette, operator of the Tides Motor Hotel, suggested that more funds being appropriated to the erosion commission from the city's special tax fund to do whatever is necessary to insure an adequate bathing beach.

Church told the group that the floating dredge owned by the commission was now pumping from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. and the hours will be stepped up to place as much material on the beach as the present equipment can supply.

Award Winners, Judges in Sun-News Subscription Campaign

The happy smile on the young lady (second from left) is understandable. She is Mrs. Phyllis McCoy, winner of the new 1960 Comet automobile as first grand award winner in the Sun-News subscription campaign that concluded last Saturday afternoon. Others from left are A. M. Alexander, campaign manager, Mrs. McCoy, C. Linwood Clements, Mayor Frank A. Dusch and George T. Mullen, official judges. Next is Mrs. Leneva Kay who won the $500 cash award for second place; Mrs. Catherine C. Copeland, winner of the $250 third place award; and Laurin H. Potter, representing his wife, who captured the fourth place award of $150. (Simmons Photo.)

1500 MEMBERS ARRIVING FRIDAY

Approximately 1,500 members of Virginia Lions Club will gather here June 2, 3 and 4 for their 37th annual convention.

The three-day session will be highlighted by election of six new district governors and addresses by S. A. Dodge, a past president of the International Assn. of Lions Clubs, and Aubrey D. Green, and Alabama state senator, who is currently seeking election as third vice president of the association.

Green's fate will be decided at the association's international convention in Chicago in July.

The convention here will open Thursday afternoon with a meeting of the state's six district governors. They are Bryan Stotler of Winchester, Thomas E. Sweet of Richmond, Dr. Floyd L. Funk of Broadway, Bennie G. Radcliffe of Norfolk, Nelson E. Firebaugh of Roanoke and Dr. Harry E. Loving of Bristol.

Also Thursday afternoon, the Lions will select the recipient of its annual musical scholarship given in honor of James A. Bland, author of "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." These scholarships are presented each year to a white and Negro student who has survived a series of club, zone and region contests.

A golf tournament and schools for incoming club presidents and secretaries will also be held Thursday afternoon.

All convention sessions will be held in this resort's aluminum-domed Convention Center.

Thursday night, the first formal convention session for all delegates and guests will be held. Lewis E. Smith, city treasurer of Virginia Beach and president of the resort club, will preside. Radcliffe, chairman of the District Governor's Council, will introduce the distinguished guests. Green will be the keynote speaker for that session.

Friday's sessions, which begin with a 7:30 a.m. breakfast and conclude with a District Governor's banquet that night, features a number of state-wide committee reports and the address by Dodge.

Both evening sessions will be concluded with dances at the Cavalier Beach and Cabana Club.

Saturday morning will be devoted to final committee reports and the election of state and district officers.

Harry B. Wade of Vinton, veteran state secretary, and W. Lawson Driskill of Lynchburg, the state treasurer, are not expected to face any opposition in their bid for reelection. Competition for the office of district governor in several of the state's six districts are expected to lend color and interest to the convention.

A special program has been arranged for the women attending with their husbands. They will see a water show and fashion revue on Friday. A special luncheon in their honor will also be held Friday. Saturday they will attend a coffee hour.

Raymond A. Cassett, a retired gas distributor, is the general chairman of the convention. Women's activities are headed by Mrs. William M. Snider.

Junior Women Install New Club Officers

Mrs. William A. Gietz was installed as President of the Junior Woman's Club of Princess Anne County for 1960-61 at the annual luncheon, which was held Wednesday at the Cape Colony Club. Other officers installed were: Mrs. William Myers, first Vice President; Mrs. S. H. Leonard Jr., second Vice President; Mrs. Joseph F. Curran, third Vice President; Mrs. John Taliaferro, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Fred L. Yates, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Alfred W. Craft, Jr., treasurer.

Mrs. Paul Paul B. Maestas, former president, was the installing officer.

Mrs. William C. Kutz, immediate past president presented the gavel. Mrs. Donald Hood gave the invocation and Mrs. William Myers reported on the history of the club.

A millenary show sponsored by Berson's followed the luncheon and Mrs. Donald Polle was the commentator.

New members introduced to the club by Mrs. Otis Wakefield were: Mrs. P. E. Barcalow, Jr. Mrs. A. R. Buchert, Mrs. Mason Gammage, Mrs. Vernon Honeycutt, Mrs. A. B. Midgett, Mrs. B. Thompson and Mrs. Robert Woodhouse, III.

Rotary Auction Sale Gathering Special Items

The Virginia Beach Rotary Club is off to a fast start on the procurement campaign for articles to sell at the third Annual Rotary Auction to be held at the Convention Center on Tuesday, July 12 at 8 p.m.

Jim Johnson and "Dis" Horton co-chairmen of the "procurement" Committee announced Tuesday that their committee had already received donations of a number of real sales items for the coming event.

A special "honor-roll" is to be published each week listing names of donors and articles contributed by them for this project.

All citizens of the community are invited to participate in this affair by contributing to the list of articles to be sold and to attend the sale to take advantage of the exceptional bargains to be realized from the auction.

Proceeds from the auction go to the Rotary general fund to be dispersed to such worthwhile projects as the Student Loan Fund, Crippled Children's Aid, Library Fund, support of a "Little League Team," the Art Association, and a host of others.

Children's Home To Hold Special Rites June 12

RICHMOND — The Virginia Methodist Children's Home here will hold official dedication ceremonies June 12 for 18 new buildings costing more than $2,000,000.

Dr. Paul Neff Garber, Bishop of the Richmond area of the Methodist Church, and W. Roland Walker, of Kenbridge, president of the Home's Board of Trustees, will preside. Special guests expected to attend will include district superintendents and district lay leaders from each of the 15 districts in the conference.

The program is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. E.S.T. Buildings and grounds will be open for inspection tours starting at 9:30 a.m. The new construction consists of 14 cottage units, an activities building, administration building, infirmary, and a dining hall.

Princess Anne Graduation Is Scheduled for Night of June 9

Graduation exercises for the Princess Anne High School Class of 1960 will be held at 8 p.m., June 9, in the school stadium.

Baccalaureate services will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday in the school auditorium.

Speakers at the graduation exercises will include Thomas Ackles, president of the senior class, and Dr. Paul Walter, assistant professor of education, University of Virginia.

Edwin Charles and Mrs. Frances Hudgins will present awards and scholarships, respectively. Miss Louise Luxford, director of instructional personnel, will present the honor graduate diplomas. Other diplomas will be awarded by J. Warren Littleton, school principal.

Speakers at the baccalaureate services will include Ackles and the Rev. Raymond Bodie of St. John's Methodist Church, Norfolk.

Graduation services will be held in the school gymnasium if it rains.

Also graduating, in addition to those pictured, are: Anne Aydlott, Joan Biers, Lucy Bohn, Joseph Buckart, Orval Caddy, Tobie Collins, William Candler, Henry Crichton, Don Davenport, Mary Davenport, Michael Billingham, Lee Roy Dixon, Linda Dorsett, Gola Flowers, Carey Grimstead.

Mrs. McCoy Wins Auto in Sun-News Subscription Drive

Mrs. Phyllis McCoy on last Saturday afternoon in front of the Sun-News office was handed the keys to a new 1960 Comet automobile as the grand prize award winner in the Virginia Beach Sun-News subscription campaign.

Mrs. McCoy, wife of William L. McCoy, captured the top prize in the six-week campaign with a total of 22,317,500 votes. It topped the list of contestants in the automobile and cash offer campaign.

Second prize in the campaign went to Mrs. Leneva Kay, who garnered 14,600,000 votes and received a check for $500. In addition Mrs. Kay won an extra $50 for her work in the fourth period of the campaign on new and renewal subscriptions.

Third place in the campaign and a check for $250 went to Mrs. Catherine C. Copeland of Chesapeake Beach. Mrs. Copeland had a final total of 5,133,500 votes.

Mrs. Laurin H. Potter was the fourth place finisher in the campaign and received a check for $150.

"It was work, work, work throughout the six weeks, but I enjoyed every minute of it," Mrs. McCoy, the top winner, said as she excitedly accepted the new Comet automobile. All contestants were pleased with the campaign and all expressed their enjoyment in participating in it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Alexander, in closing their third successful subscription campaign for the Virginia Beach Sun-News, asked the Sun-News to express their appreciation to all contestants for their hard work.

The Sun-News management termed the campaign a complete success and that the circulation of the Sun-News now gives a much wider coverage of the entire area. While the circulation department does not have a final, complete figure more than 1,200 new subscribers are now receiving the Sun-News each week.

In addition to the four top winners five contestants received checks for 20% commission on all subscriptions they sold. These were Mrs. Dot Scoppa, Jerry Eugene McGraw, Mrs. Billie Enax, Mrs. Gladys Simmons and Mrs. Willie Mae Kent.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED

The winners of this week's tournament of the Virginia Beach Duplicate Bridge Club which plays each Tuesday evening at 7:45 p.m. at the Dunes Motor Hotel were: North-south, first place — Mrs. E. A. Eggersted, Mr. H. E. Conklin. Second place, Mrs. M. F. Camp, Mr. William Bruce. Third place — Mr. & Mrs. F. M. Furness.

East-West, first place — Mrs. G. R. Alcorn, Mrs. L. H. Bowen. Second place — Mrs. M. F. Camp, Mr. Kirk Walsh. Third place — Mrs. M. F. Dempewolf, Mrs. M. F. Camp. All bridge players are invited.

More Leases Being Sought For Waterfront Rights Here

If a civic association seeks to lease surf property in North Virginia Beach it will mark the fourth (at last count) application for such a lease of waterfront at Virginia Beach.

The latest move would be from the North Virginia Beach Civic League, according to C. A. Mowry, its president. The league has the matter under consideration, he said.

The North Virginia Beach Civic League has already lodged a protest with Milton Hickman, commissioner of fisheries, to the leasing of the North Virginia Beach waterfront to individuals.

The board of directors of the association will meet the week of June 6 and may make a formal application for lease of the surf at that time.

The association wants to lease 40 blocks of surf in Princess Anne County stretching north from the Virginia Beach city limit at 49th street to the Ft. Story boundary at 89th St.

Four individuals have applied to lease all the surf between the southern boundary of the City of Virginia Beach at 2nd St. north to the Ft. Story boundary at 89th street.

In addition, a Virginia Beach real estate man has under consideration a plan to lease bathing beach privileges in Croatan Beach south of Virginia Beach.

In mid-April, Norfolk attorney Lance L. Underwood made application to the oyster inspector and subsequently to the State Commission of Fisheries for the right to lease 42 acres of bathing ground between Rudee Inlet and 42nd St.

The application specifically excludes any area already under lease.

A 12-year-old state law makes it possible to lease bathing privileges. The purpose of the law is to exclude certain shorefront waters from oyster ground use. Rental is $5 an acre a year.

The law permits the holder of the leased bathing grounds to put it to "public or commercial use only" under terms of Section 28-187 of the Virginia Code.

D. Conrad Little is seeking to lease the surf between 42nd and 74th streets, mostly in North Virginia Beach. J. L. Carter has applied to lease the surf from 74th street north to 89th street, which is the boundary of Ft. Story.

William E. Witt has applied for frontage from 85th to 89th streets, overlapping an area sought by Carter.

Both the Virginia Beach City Council and the Virginia Beach Hotel, Motel and Cottage Assn. have recorded their opposition to Underwood's application.

It is expected that a public hearing will be held on the Underwood application June 28 in the office of the commissioner of fisheries in Newport News.

Beach Garden Club Holds Meeting

The annual meeting of the Virginia Beach Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Farwell Taylor Jr. in Linkhorn Shores, London Bridge.

Mrs. Peter Oley Miller gave a report on the recent meeting of the Garden Club of Virginia in Richmond.

Mrs. Emmet Kyle gave a report on her rose test garden and brought specimens. Mrs. Miller was installed as the new president.

Mrs. Moses B. Flanagan and Miss Bertie McClanahan spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. McCombs in Silver Spring, Md. recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lee and daughter Carol, went to Woodlawn, N.C. for Mrs. Lee's niece, Miss Patricia Lassiter's graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill Dunagan and daughters Janet and Lynn, spent the weekend with Mrs. Dunagan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moore at Reidville, N.C.

Our next monthly meeting will be June 23, 1960. Every member is urged to attend.

Rev. & Mrs. Roger Snyder and daughters, Jeanette and Denise, will be leaving June 3. Mr. Snyder was pastor for Beech Grove Bethel Church. They are going to Richmond, Va. where he will continue his education.

St. John Baptist Church News — Dr. John Brown, Executive Secretary of the Norfolk Baptist Association, will preach at both worship services on June 5, 1960. Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Todd and children have gone to Winston-Salem, N.C. to visit Mrs. Todd's parents.

COURTHOUSE VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Courthouse Volunteer Fire Dept. held its regular monthly meeting May 26, 1960. Curtis Payne presided over the business meeting. A training program is to be set up to give the new and old members some training on fire fighting. Chief Russell Lee, assistant chief Lankford, Malone and Capt. Benjamin Conley are to set up the training program. Our secretary, Tom Conrad was not with us at our meeting. Mr. Conrad was out of town on business. It came as a shock to members, that he was killed in an airplane crash. After taking off from the airport at Logan, W. Va. in a rain storm, their Piper plane went into a spin and crashed, killing Mr. Conrad and two of his passengers. It is hard to tell you how we feel Mrs. Conrad, but each member is in sympathy with you and we will miss him too.

Mayor Dusch Opens American League Season

The American Little League got the 1960 season underway Saturday with a double game at Virginia Beach High School Stadium. Opening ceremonies started at 5 p.m. with Fred Isaacs speaking to the boys on sportsmanship after which he led them in the Little League pledge.

Mayor Frank Dusch threw out the first ball of the season and initiated the battle between the Sports and Tigers. The ball was caught by Arch McDowell.

The first run of the season was made by Mike Hallock of the Sports and the Tiger's Jerry Lindsey brought in the first home run.

The first game ended in a 5-3 victory for the Tigers. Harold Hill and Lee Meeks manage the Sports and J. V. Powell and Dr. Fitzhugh Mayo the Tigers.

The Cubs defeated the Rotarians 8-2 in the 7:30 game. Dean Entsminger of the Rotarians brought in the first double play of the season.

Bill Renn manages the Cubs and George Kressler and Irby Price the Rotarians.

Pitchers for the evening were Tommy Blount, Sports; Billy Newton, Tigers; Will Pugh, and Cuth Dobbs, Rotarians. Catchers were Buddy Conrad, Sports, Jimmy Parnell, Tigers, Chick Jordan, Cubs and Tom Sanders, Rotarians.

Jack Morton was announcer for the games and G. Wallace Soffield scorekeeper.

"We want to thank Chief Bubba Bayne and his firemen for their help in installing the public address system, re-sanding the field and putting up the fence," League President Dallas Entsminger said. The next game will be held Friday with the Sports against the Cubs at 5:30 p.m. and the Tigers pitted against the Rotarians at 7:30 p.m.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Much Ado About Nothing

The incident in the laboratory of the Princess Anne High School that has received so much newspaper publicity in recent days is much ado about nothing, in our opinion.

We, of course, have reference to the incident of the exhibit of a typical whisky still in the Industrial Arts Department of the high school. We believe the incident did not warrant the publicity and prominence it received.

Our belief is based primarily on the fact that the exhibit was done for educational purposes and for that reason only. We do feel that the matter was poorly handled throughout.

From a news standpoint we do feel that dismissal of a high school instructor is worthy of publicity, but in this case the dismissal was secondary and the construction of the exhibit and the subject was pushed to the forefront.

Our conclusion that the exhibit, itself, is much ado about nothing stems from the fact that many persons attending colleges in the past and in other levels of education have experienced the same type of exhibit as a part of their education. The subject of the exhibit must not be objectionable in many laboratories of higher learning.

We believe, since such an exhibit is almost commonplace during the course of an education that this exhibit at Princess Anne High School, in itself, did not deserve the prominence it received.

It's our opinion, but we believe all the publicity was much ado about nothing.

Welcome — Virginia State Lions

Today, Friday and Saturday Virginia Beach again plays host to another large convention—the 37th annual convention of Virginia Lions Clubs. The Sun-News takes this means of welcoming all the visiting Lions and their families.

According to advance publicity the convention should bring approximately 1,500 Lions Club members into Virginia Beach and at least another 1,000 persons among the families of these Lions.

Virginia Beach has thrown out the welcome mat to the Virginia Lions. It should be the hope of every citizen of this city that each and every member of this fine civic organization and service club enjoys his stay here to the fullest. There is hardly a better group to spread the word of goodwill than members of Lions Clubs.

We welcome the Lions Clubs of Virginia to our great convention city and wish for their three day meeting every possible success.

Mother Nature Could Help

At least for the present Mother Nature could be kind to Virginia Beach if she would just send some southeast, southwest or westerly winds this way. This would be one of the best and quickest ways to cure the problem of not enough sand beach.

It was unfortunate that the loss of sand and the beach was evident over the past Memorial Day weekend, but it can be hoped that the condition is not a permanent one.

The whole problem is not as acute as the publicity emanating from here a few days ago would indicate. It is true that over the weekend the winds and weather took away the beach in some areas and played havoc with those intent on getting on the sand.

We believe that over the years the sand replenishment program of the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission has proven its worth in many ways. This body is as concerned as anyone when Mother Nature and the elements combine to destroy the work it has worked so hard to accomplish. However, the only thing to do is buckle down to the task, which the commission is doing, and put more sand on the beach.

No matter what program is pursued in this matter we believe that at a given time Mother Nature and the elements will always take sand away and by the same token this combination will also restore the sand to the beach.

By the time this piece is written the winds may have turned favorable and the sand has begun to return. We believe this is the quickest way to cure our ills.

AREA DEATHS

MRS. DOROTHY WATSON GREENE

Mrs. Dorothy Watson Greene, 55, wife of Capt. Charles Frank Greene, USN (Ret.), of 205 Sterling Court, Birdneck Point, died at 8:40 p.m. Wednesday at a Portsmouth hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Greene was a native of New Orleans, La., the daughter of the late Frank and Mrs. Nellie Tullis Watson. She had been a resident of Virginia Beach for the past 20 years, and was a member of the Galilee Episcopal Church. Mrs. Greene was a past president of the Princess Anne Garden Club and had been a member of the Junior League of New Orleans. She attended the University of Washington, Seattle, where she was president of Theta Sorority.

Surviving besides her husband are one daughter, Mrs. James G. Satterfield of Panama; one sister, Mrs. Frances de Valin of New Orleans; two brothers, Eli T. Watson of New York City and Hickory, N.C.; and Leslie Watson of New Orleans and two granddaughters, Catherine Satterfield and James Satterfield.

The body was removed to the Maestas Funeral Home.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. at Galilee Episcopal Church by the Rev. Edmund Berkeley, rector. Pallbearers were Commodore Webster M. Thompson, Capt. Edward C. Raguet, Col. Howard E. Eager, Cmdr. Hugh W. Lindsay, Col. Lester T. Fayie, and Adm. Ralph O. Davis.

Burial was in Arlington National Cemetery at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

J. STANLEY SMITH, SR.

J. Stanley Smith, Sr., 80, of Virginia Beach and West Palm Beach, Fla., died Tuesday night at his home in West Palm Beach after a long illness.

Mr. Smith was a native of Pitt County, N.C. and came to Virginia Beach in 1910 when he was owner and operator of the Albemarle and the Allegheny General Hospital, Charleston, W. Va. During her career she was also in charge of the infirmary at Goucher College, Baltimore, Md. She was a member of Galilee Episcopal Church.

Surviving are one nephew, Morris Hall of Clarksville, W. Va., and one niece, Mrs. Warren Burchinal of Washington, Pa.

The body was removed to the Maestas Funeral Home.

Funeral services were conducted at the grave in Riverside Memorial Park, Saturday at 10 a.m. by the Rev. Edmund Berkeley, rector of Galilee Church.

MRA Mailing Booklets to Virginia Homes

Every home in Virginia is scheduled to receive a copy of a booklet being distributed by Moral Re-orientation within the next few days. According to a spokesman for the organization.

The booklet is titled "Ideology and Co-Existence" and deals with the world struggle of ideology now going on between the peoples of the world.

According to MRA the booklet is something new in history. It clarifies world issues and gives the answer for you, your family and your nation.

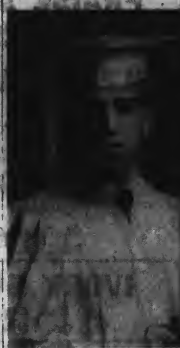

MRA says that the booklet lays bare the communist plan for world takeover and shows how every man can be prepared.

The MRA group also states that 80,000,000 copies of this booklet have gone out to all homes of Britain, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Scandinavia, Switzerland, Canada, Australia, the State of Michigan, Washington, D.C., and also southern California.

MRA quotes Congressman Leonard G. Wolf (D-Iowa) in an address to the House of Representatives as quoting Rear Adm. Adolphus Stalon as saying "Ideology and Co-Existence has the best answer to Communism we know."

Weekly round-up of games played at Little League Field, USNAB, May 23-30, 1960:

Monday—May 23, 1960.

Steady pitching by Jesse Cannon who allowed four hits and struck out eight featured the win of the Roosevelt Garden Merchants over Emrhare Ford by the score of 18-5. Keno Simpson was the hitting star for the Merchants with a triple and two singles, while Sandy Sandifer and Billy Reynolds both connected for a double and a single in the winning game. Kent Bolt got the only extra base hit for the losers, a double.

Cannon and Sutton; Litz (1), Guzzo (1), Mitchell (1) and Guzzo, Mitchell.

Tuesday—May 24, 1960.

Pitching and hitting sparked by Jeff Ankley of the Flamingo Restaurant set down the Little Gators on 3 hits in a 19-1 win. Ankley struck out 15 during the six inning contest. Flamingo teammates Jesse Davis and Bob Brunelli supplied the batting power in the contest, the former with two triples and two singles and the latter with a home run. Merrell Rawls of the Little Gator hit two doubles for the losers.

Flamingoes 210 22 (12)—19 1
Little Gators 000 01 0—1 3 5
Ankley and Bennett; Rawls (5), Fastreski (1) and Leeman.

Wednesday—May 25, 1960.

Founding out a 19-hit attack, M. d. o. x Distributors downed Emrhare Ford by an 11-8 score. Alfred Rowe led the batters with three doubles in as many trips to the plate. Philip Pfelehard, the winning pitcher, struck out 10 batters and was only in trouble in the last inning when he lost control, but James Cherwa put out the fire and nailed down the victory. Ernest Inge contributed 2 hits to a losing cause.

National Little League News

Mrs. David Hendrix.

The National Little League is full swing. Swinging right along with it is the Mothers Auxiliary. The Mothers have been very busy baking goodies to be sold at the games. At this time we wish to thank Mrs. John Fitzgerald, the Pipers' team Mother and Mrs. Henry Capps, the Thunderbirds' team Mother for their help in selling the cakes and cookies. They had their team mothers bake, at the past games. Response to this activity has been very good.

We wish to thank the Wilkins Coffee Co. for the use of the coffee urn at our games. That good hot coffee sure has been appreciated on those cool evenings. A tip of the hat to Mrs. Owen Moore for putting us in touch with this company. Her assistance in getting this up was invaluable.

Mrs. Pitt Milner, our President, urges all the Mothers of our boys to attend our meetings and help support our boys. The meetings are held every 3rd Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the City Council Chambers.

The following mothers were elected to the following offices:

President, Mrs. Pitt Milner; Vice President, Mrs. Linwood Harter; Secretary, Mrs. Thaddeus Parham; Treasurer, Mrs. Thaddeus Amburn.

As in all our children's activities the parents must be behind them. As mothers we can help by helping the Mothers Auxiliary.

We may not know the difference between a ball or a strike but we can back and all things to help finance their playings. We have many activities planned for the season to keep our boys and as a parent you owe it to your boy to do your share. Let's all turn out and not let it be said we failed our boys. Watch this column for further news of our very busy Mothers Auxiliary.

Windy weather produces special hazards for motorists, says the Allstate Safety Crusade. Pedestrians who get something in their eye or chase wind-blown hats may momentarily ignore traffic and create accident situations.

Reflected glare induces drowsiness, studies indicate. One hour's driving in the sun without sunglasses can make drivers sleepier than three hours driving in less light.

'Sleeping Beauty' Presented at Happy Hours School

Parents and friends were delighted Wednesday morning as they watched the pupils of Happy Hours School portray the story of "Sleeping Beauty." The scenes took place in the garden outside the palace. As Cathy Whitehurst narrated, the characters came forth to make the story come alive. Frank Atkinson and Jo Ann Crockett took the part of King and Queen, while Janet Deary portrayed the part of Sleeping Beauty with Larin Hay as her Prince Charming. Singing and dancing added charm to the program.

Friday, June 4th will be the final day of school. Nursery will remain open throughout the summer from 8:30 a.m. till 5 p.m. for the use of working and playing mothers. Kindergarten will reopen September 8, 1960. Registrations are now being accepted.

Pipers Take First Game of Season

Monday's Game
Little Giants 1 Pipers 21
The first game of the National Little League season was played on Monday night between the Pipers and the Little Giants. Despite the threatening weather the entire game was played. Johnny Ort pitched the entire game for the Little Giants with Bachelor catching.

The winning pitcher, Jeff Shelton, pitched the entire game for the Pipers with Hill catching. Wayne Simmons started off the season for the Pipers by hitting a home run and with one man in base. Also Terry Whedon did a fine job with the bat for the Pipers as he hit singles, doubles and triples driving in a total of five runs.

Wednesday's Game
J. C. Hawks 0 Thunderbirds 15
Dale Brady pitched a shut-out game for the Thunderbirds with Johnny Miller catching. Carl Bagby, Johnny Miller, Dale Brady and Norman Grosskreutz turned in fine hitting performances with singles and doubles for the Thunderbirds. Max Niley, starting pitcher for the Hawks, was relieved by Jim Ward with Lane Agee catching. Max Niley laid down a nice bunt in the last inning to score the only hit in the ball game for the Hawks.

Boots Farley Wins Two D.A.R. Awards

During assembly at W. T. Cooke School on May 19th, Boots Farley received two awards from the Daughters of the American Revolution. His essay on "Historic Trailways" for the 5th-6th grades won second place in the State of Virginia competition. His prize was a book from the Virginia Daughters. The Princess Anne County Chapter, D.A.R., presented him with a medal for excellence in history. Boots is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Farley, 515 16th St., Virginia Beach.

Four Certificates of Award for outstanding work in American History were given. Those receiving certificates were Ragan B. Pulley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Pulley, 148 Pinewood Rd.; Roy E. Ramey, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ramey, 631 Virginia Ave.; Bruce Lowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Lowman, 201 4th St. and Layne Wheeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Wheeland, 814 Maryland Ave. On May 12, two certificates of award for outstanding work in American History were given at Linkhorn Park School. These were in connection with the 7th-8th grade "Historic Trailways" contest. Jean Parker, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. S. Parker, Birdneck Point, and Donna Grabin, 108 Princess Road, received the awards. Mrs. Fred M. Robinson, Historian of Princess Anne County Chapter D.A.R., presented the award.

Bob, Chauncey Appearing at Seaside Park

Bob and Chauncey, one of television's longest-lived local attractions and one of Tidewater's most popular, are a regular feature of the entertainment schedule at Seaside Park, Virginia Beach's surfside amusement spot.

The Bob in the team is Bob McAllister, personable young crew-cut producer at WTAR-TV, and Chauncey is a fresh but agreeable young woodhead who does everything Bob tells him—mainly because he's his dummy partner in their ventriloquial act.

Bob and Chauncey have been a standard feature of the WTAR-TV lineup, and their show a weekly headline event for thousands of young Tidewater viewers, for years. They also make many public appearances at special events throughout the Hampton Roads area.

The team started their summer schedule of weekly appearances at Seaside Park on Sunday, May 29, and will be seen each Sunday at 2:30 p.m. on the Outdoor Stage, where the entertainment is always free.

News for Veterans

In handling the pension claims for the older veterans I have observed that one of their most common ailments is degenerative or osteoarthritis. This crippling condition occurs almost exclusively in middle-aged and elderly people. Just as the teeth wear down in many people, so are their joints, particularly the weight bearing joints, prone to show wearing out effects.

Doctors say that the exact cause of osteoarthritis is unknown, and that some escape it entirely except for occasional mild discomforts. Since it is more prevalent in some families than in others, heredity is thought to be a factor. Overweight is known to be a frequent cause due to excess wear on the knees, ankles, hips and spine. Laborers and mechanics, because of constant strenuous use of their joints are candidates for osteoarthritis joint changes as they advance to middle age and beyond. Old people who lead hard and exposed lives appear to be more prone to the disease than those whose circumstances are more fortunate.

The first symptoms, usually in middle age or older, are slight joint stiffness which gradually becomes more uncomfortable, especially during exercise. The disease progresses very slowly, and as time goes on there may be constant pain in the affected joints, such as the fingers, knees, hips and back. There is no known cure for osteoarthritis because the destruction of cartilage and the bony changes are permanent. However, in many cases the discomfort can be relieved by physiotherapy and by aspirin, the old inexpensive standby.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

SECOND USAR UNIT COMPLETES TRAINING

This week marks the end of training for the second U.S. Army Reserve Unit to train at Fort Story this season, as the 511th Transportation Platoon (BARC) from Benton Harbor, Mich., prepares to return home.

Comprising the unit, which consists of six officers and 25 enlisted men, is Capt. Kenneth T. Marshall. While here, the 511th BARC Platoon trained with the 14th Battalion's 554th T. Platoon (BARC). The Reserve unit studied such subjects as BARC maintenance, operation and safety procedures.

Both units that have trained here so far have been BARC platoons. Coming for their two week period starting Sunday will be the 270th Transportation Company from Savannah, Ga., and the 408th Transportation Company from Mobile, Ala.

Reserve and ROTC training here is under the direction of the USAR ROTC Control Headquarters. The staff of the headquarters includes Lt. Col. Lennart Y. Ohlsson, USAR ROTC Project Officer; Capt. Raymond P. Lowe, Operations Officer (S-3); Capt. Lyman J. Okey, Supply Officer (S-4); M/Sgt. William J. Rice, Sergeant Major; SFC Warren R. Burman, Station Breakdown NCO; Sgt. Donald E. Holmgren, Operations NCO; Sp-4 Sterling H. Holmes, supply clerk; Sp-4 George Opalek, driver; PFC Robert B. Jones, clerk typist; PFC Joseph P. McDonald, supply clerk; and Pvt. Johnny C. Willis, clerk.

LITTLE LEAGUE SEASON OPENS AT STORY

"Play Ball" was the order of the day on Monday Afternoon, Memorial Day, at the Post Parade Ground Baseball Field, as the Fort Story Little League opened its 1960 season with a game between the Yankees and the Tigers.

Game time was immediately following an opening ceremony, held on the diamond.

Capt. Thomas G. Bankin, Little League Commissioner, began the ceremonies immediately following the retreat call. He introduced Maj. Warren J. Higgins, head of the youth council, the post organization while the Little League; Col. William P. Pope, the Post Commander; Mr. Fred Isaacs, well known sports figure from Virginia Beach; the umpires of the league; and managers and coaches of the four teams in the league.

This year, as during the 1959 season, the Fort Story Little League will be composed of the Dodgers, managed by SFC Robert J. Bishop; the Yankees headed by Maj. Robert Gottschall; the Braves, under OWO Fred Gaffney; and the Tigers, managed by 1st Lt. Robert Lloyd.

Each team will play a schedule of 15 games. The regular schedule of games will extend through July 12, and will be followed by a round robin playoff to decide the league champion.

In general, play of the post league will conform to the official Little League rules and regulations, with exception made on age limitations to permit greater participation by the boys on post.

The schedule does not indicate any off post games for any of the league teams.

Uniforms for the four teams will be supplied through donations by the troop personnel of the post. The Post Youth Council is supporting the league in its requirements for financial assistance this year. Uniforms were issued last week, and will remain their personal property and responsibility until the close of the season in late July, at which time they will be turned in.

The present schedule for the league indicates that games will be played on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, with Wednesdays and Saturdays open for makeup games, as required.

NEW BANKING FACILITY OPENS AT FORT STORY

The National Bank of Commerce of Norfolk opened its 47th branch bank May 24 at Fort Story, with ceremonies attended by military and civilian dignitaries.

Mr. John S. Alfriend, chairman of the board of directors of the NBC, and Maj. Gen. Norman H. Vissering, Commanding General of the U.S. Army Transportation Training Command at Fort Eustis, joined in cutting the ribbon which opened the military banking facility.

Col. William P. Pope, Commanding Officer of Fort Story, welcomed the modest crowd of military and civilian personnel attending the opening and was introduced by Maj. John Norton, the Post Controller.

Following remarks by Mr. Alfriend and Maj. Gen. Vissering, the ribbon cutting took place, and the ceremonial scissors were then presented by Mr. Alfriend to Mrs. Pope, wife of the Fort Story Commander.

First customers of the new banking facility were Colonel and Mrs. Pope, who were followed by representatives of the many accounts on the post and military personnel desiring to take advantage of the new banking service.

Souvenir autographs were given out by the National Bank of Commerce as mementoes of the occasion.

The Fort Story branch of the National Bank of Commerce will be open daily Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., and is managed by Mr. Wesley G. Thomasson.

Clavon McGrath Becomes Bride of Carl A. Swertfeger

Galilee Episcopal Church was the setting Monday at 8 p.m. for the marriage of Miss Clavon Gatewood McGrath and Carl Arndt Swertfeger.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edmund Berkeley, rector of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Gatewood McGrath of Virginia Beach and Everett Upshur McGrath of Norfolk.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arthur Swertfeger of Virginia Beach.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white tulle with a full skirt and a long train. The full puffed skirt was formed a chapel sweep train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was arranged from a pearl and sequin crown. She carried her mother's prayer book arranged with white orchids.

Mrs. Charles Andrew McDuffie of Norfolk was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Nani Coleman Swertfeger and Nani Frances Swertfeger. The attendants were Barbara length dresses of pink nylon sheer over tulle styled with a square neckline and brief sleeves, a bolero effect bodice with pleated cummerbund of taffeta. The hats were pink half hats of small flowers with hand rolled edged petals of imported tulle and a sheer circular veil.

Herbert William Swertfeger was best man. The groomsmen were Clavon Russell Gatewood Jr. and James Bailey Swertfeger.

They will reside at 1440 D. Irwin Ave., Norfolk.

Mrs. Eva Klisabeth—who has been visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Hodges at their home on 15th St.—has returned to her home in Erie, Pa.

Summer Permanent

With the lazier, warmer weather rapidly approaching, certainly you'll be looking for many easy relaxing moments. Why not prepare for it by cutting your hair care time to a minimum. A good permanent will render your hair manageable and keep it well-groomed. Regardless of the texture or condition of your tresses, a casual wave can be arranged for your season in the sun.

Mrs. Creekmore

Now is the time to make your days more leisurely and your evenings as comfortable as possible. This calls for a good permanent. We suggest an early appointment. Creekmore Beauty Salon, 2611 Atlantic Avenue, Virginia Beach. Phone GARDEN 8-3091.

The MIXING BOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables . . . for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Commencement Day calls for a party to celebrate a job well done.

Whether it be grammar school, high school or college commencement, it will be memory treasured always. A party buffet style is always fun — guests love to help themselves and it's simple to prepare and easy to serve.

Why not plan to serve sandwiches — dips and chips and punch.

Pink Lady Punch
(About 7 cups)

1 quart strawberries, capped, sliced and crushed slightly
2 6-oz. cans frozen concentrate for lemonade
1 quart water
1 medium sized lemon, thinly sliced.

Combine strawberries, concentrate and water; mix well, chill. Top with lemon slices.

Prepare according to number to be served. Over a block of ice, in the punch bowl, pour fruit mixture.

Party Sandwich Mixture
(Makes about 24)

3 tablespoons butter or margarine, softened
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 cup fresh sweet cucumber pickles, finely chopped
16 slices white bread
8 slices cooked ham (about 1 lb.)
Combine butter or margarine, mayonnaise and mustard; mix well. Add pickles and mix well. Remove crusts from bread. Arrange ham on half of bread. Spread pickle mixture on remaining bread slices. Top ham with pickle spread slices. Cut sandwiches in thirds lengthwise.

Another delightful treat is chicken salad in party, patio shells. Chop chicken very, very fine. Combine with celery seasoning and mayonnaise, and fill shells just before party time.

You might like to serve tiny turnovers with tiny frankies. Make up your favorite roll recipe. Let rise to double bulk. Roll out thin. Cut with small biscuit cutter. Tuck frankies in, fold over and let rise. Bake in 400° oven. These are usually very popular.

Now for a good dip.
Cheese Olive Dip

3 6-oz. pkgs. cream cheese
1 cup minced stuffed olives
1 tablespoon minced chives
1 teaspoon salt

Milk — to make desired consistency. Have cream cheese at room temperature. Combine with milk to make dipping consistency, then add seasonings and olives. Garnish with sliced stuffed olives.

Maybe you'd like to try the Tea Punch Recipe. It's easy and very good.

3 1/2 cups sugar
3 cups water
Combine and cook after thoroughly dissolved about 3 minutes.

5 cups brewed tea (not too strong)
1 cup lemon juice
1 cup orange juice
4 cups cranberry juice
2 quarts gingerale

Add fruit and tea to sugar and water mixture. Chill when ready to serve. Place block of ice in punch bowl and pour over fruit mixture, adding gingerale last.

Congratulations to all the graduates and the best to you all as you travel life's highway.

News for VETERANS

The latest report from the Roanoke Regional Office of the Veterans Administration shows that about 11.8 per cent of the pension election forms originally sent out have been returned, and that one fifth of those returned were incomplete or incorrectly filled out.

Election cards were sent out to veterans and widows already on the pension rolls for the purpose of providing opportunity to choose the pension under the new law which goes into effect July 1, 1960.

This new law sets up a sliding scale of pensions more nearly based on the income and dependency status of the recipient.

The number of persons in Virginia already receiving pensions under the old law, who have not thus far decided to change over, corresponds closely to the national average. Generally, the percent of elections received throughout the United States is lowest in the northeastern states, and highest in the southeastern area. In general, the trend of veterans and widows in Virginia is to keep the VA pension they are already receiving.

Your Social Security

By EARL W. TRINKLE
Field Representative

This year of 1960 marks the Silver Anniversary of social security. On August 14, the Social Security Act will be exactly 25 years old.

In the relatively short span of 25 years, social security has become firmly established in our American way of life. Nine out of ten workers and their families can look to the social security program for basic protection against loss of income caused by old-age, death, or disability.

Because social security plays such an important role in your life, you should make a special effort to find out just what protection is afforded you and your family under the program. Your social security district office will be glad to answer your questions. Your district office has available a variety of free descriptive pamphlets and a special postcard form you can mail to obtain a statement of earnings as shown on your individual social security account.

Don't put off learning more about social security until the next social security anniversary rolls around. DO IT NOW!

The amount of money payable on your social security account depends on your average monthly earnings as shown in your social security record.

You have a responsibility in seeing that your record is correct. Failure to show the correct social security number resulted in Uncle Sam rehandling over 300,000 social security records in 1959. If the correct number is not shown or if the correct name is not shown, there is always the danger that the earnings will not be posted to the proper record. This would result in a lower average monthly earnings on your record and a lower benefit payable to you and your family. It could even mean the loss of all benefits. You must have been in work covered by the social security law for a certain length of time, to qualify for monthly payments for yourself or for your family. Incorrect reporting can result in a real loss in benefit amounts, for monthly payments to individuals vary from $53 to $119 while payments to a family can run as high as $254.

Businessmen and farmers have an additional responsibility. In addition to filing proper returns for their employees, they must report their earnings and pay their social security self-employment tax each year as part of their individual income tax return. If their net earnings are $400 or more.

Farmers may still obtain social security coverage, even if there is little or no net farm income, by using one of the alternate methods of figuring net earnings. If the gross farm income was not more than $1,800 for the year, they may report two-thirds of the gross, or if the gross farm income was over $1,800 but the actual net farm income was below $1200, they report $1,200.

You are paying for your social security protection. Be sure you receive the credit you pay for by showing your name and social security account number clearly and correctly on proper returns.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS FOR AGRICULTURISTS
The loud noise you hear is opportunity knocking, says George Litton, head of the VPI animal husbandry department — opportunity for bright young men in agriculture.

Too many folks think of a Snuffy Smith type character when they think of agriculture, says Litton. But the truth of the matter is that 40 per cent of the population is employed in industries related to agriculture — that's 25 million people.

Production on a farm is only one facet of a business that has grown through the years to include those who service the needs of farmers, those who do research to solve his problems, and those who manufacture goods from farm products. So Litton doesn't think the student who goes into engineering, who is too smart for agriculture, is doing that "student justice." For brains are needed as much in agriculture as anywhere else, and there is room at the top as in any other business.

In his own field Litton sees a growing opportunity. He says that during the depression only 35 per cent of Virginia's farm income was from livestock and livestock products. But now 60 per cent of farm income is from this source, and apparently this figure will continue to rise.

FEED DAIRY COWS FOR TOP PRODUCTION
High milk production, high levels of grain feeding — and high return over feed cost — have a close relationship in Princess Anne County dairy herds.

Records in Virginia and in other states, bring out the following points:
Grain must be fed on the basis of production records for top economy. Appetite is the first factor limiting milk production with good cows.

Cows will eat lots of forage even when fed liberal amounts of grain. Returns above feed costs are higher when larger amounts of grain are fed, even though total feed cost is also higher. It is sometimes hard to convince dairymen that the feed cost of milk production does not increase rapidly with higher milk production levels.

On the average, good dairy cows are underfed. Dairymen are still not thoroughly convinced that high production per cow is profitable.

With records kept on only one-third of Virginia's Grade A herds, and less than 1 per cent of the manufacturing milk producers enrolled in a production testing program, most dairymen do not have enough information to enable them to feed their cows intelligently. "Make Dairying Pay — The Record Way."

TEST SOILS NOW FOR FALL SEEDING

Now is a good time to submit soil samples for summer and fall seeded crops. The soil test is a good indicator of the fertility level of your soil and will show whether or not lime is needed.

Soil boxes and soil record sheets can be obtained from my office. A soil record sheet tells how to take the sample. Be sure to follow these instructions and take a good sample.

A poor sample could cost you money. If a sample not representing the field is taken, then the test will not represent the field conditions. This may cause you to go wrong about using lime. Or you may use the wrong amount and analysis of fertilizer. As a result, you would not get efficient use of your lime and fertilizer dollar. Your crop would not do its best, giving you lower yields. Usually, the lower the yield the higher the cost of production per bushel or ton.

It is just common sense to use a soil test as one tool to assist you to do a more efficient job in your crop and pasture production.

WOOL POOL SOLD
The Fred Whitaker Company, of Philadelphia, Pa., was the successful bidder of the wool to be sold through the Tidewater-Virginia Wool Pool.

The following prices will be paid per grade:
Clear Wool — $57.02
Short Wool — $54.02
Stained — $45.02
Coarse — $52.02
Reject — $50.02
Lamb — $44.02
Light berry — $50.02
Medium berry — $46.02
Heavy berry — $42.02
Tags — $12.00

Three cents per pound will be deducted for handling charges. This 3 cents will pay all handling costs in the pool, including transportation, plus paying for the equipment which has been purchased by the Tidewater-Virginia Pool.

All you have to do to sell your wool through this pool is to bring your wool to a "Jones" Farmers Fertilizer & Seed Corporation, at Princess Anne, Virginia. Put a tag with your name and address on each bag. The Princess Anne Pool will be held on Thursday, June 16, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

These prices are good. If you can't get this much, you had better sell through the pool.

H. W. OZLIN WINNER
Virginia (Ginger) Oliver was this year's Senior Girl winner of the Ozlin award in Princess Anne County. Ginger is 15 years old and has completed five years of 4-H Club work.

Ginger has completed 14 projects since joining 4-H. These include sewing, bread, food preservation, food preparation, washing, ironing, your room, and money management. She has won the county contest in many of these projects.

Last year her outstanding project was sewing. She was county winner in the Money Management project, the sewing project, and the dress revue contest. She competed in the district dress revue contest at Petersburg, and won a white award.

Ginger has held numerous 4-H offices in her club and the county. She is president of her club and past president of the 4-H County Council. She has also held other club offices and served on several county-wide 4-H committees.

She has participated in many 4-H activities in addition to her project work. These include the Share-the-Fun Program, Public Speaking Contest, Camp and various contests.

She was a Junior winner of the Ozlin Award in 1957. Congratulations for your fine 4-H Club work, Ginger.

Next week, Bruce Clarke.

FERTILIZER BEST BUY

Fertilizer is one of the best buys a farmer makes. Proper use of fertilizer is one of the biggest factors in crop and pasture production.

A look at results of research in comparison with our present yields will show that many farmers are not using enough fertilizer.

Nitrogen, phosphate and potash are the three main plant foods. Lack of any one of these nutrients will cause a crop not to produce efficiently. Every farmer should be sure that his crop has enough of each of these nutrients.

Nearly always, high yields are the cheapest yields. Fertilizer is one of the main reasons for high yields, along with other good production practices, and you can't afford not to use plenty of it.

Snows and other unfavorable weather conditions kept some farmers from using all the fertilizer they intended to this spring — mainly in topdressing grasses and legumes and small grains.

Watch your pastures, and if they are not up to par, some additional fertilizer will help during the growing season. Nitrogen may need to be applied to kick up the late season grazing. Summer supplemental grazing crops such as sudan, sudax, or millet must be used. Every farmer should carefully plan the feed program on his farm. Plenty of high quality feed should be available throughout the year. This can be in the form of pasture, hay, or silage. Adequate feed means good livestock production, whether it is meat or milk. The key is to plan carefully, use plenty of fertilizer, and follow the other good production practices.

WINTER INJURY SHOWING ON ORNAMENTAL PLANTINGS

Winter injury is showing up in notable proportions on ornamental plants.

Many ornamental plants are damaged by cold and winter injury. Azalea was especially hard hit, as were lucidum, arbutifolia, and magnolia.

Nematodes continue to be one of the most serious pests of ornamentals, especially where shrubs and other perennials have been growing in the same area for several years. Sooty mold has been troublesome, particularly on crepe myrtle and gardenia. However, other than being objectionable in appearance, sooty mold does little damage.

A disease known as flower blight of camellia has appeared this year. It affects the flowers only and can develop very rapidly. Removing and destroying the infected flowers is essential in control.

Boxwood suffered severely from winter injury. Many homeowners are complaining about holly. Since holly leaves mature at various times throughout the year there are always some sick looking leaves. It is normal for holly leaves to turn yellow before dropping. The old leaves are then replaced by new ones.

Powdery mildew is already showing up on crepe myrtle. And slime flux continues to affect shade trees. To control slime flux, cut

Vet Service Officer To Visit Beach

T. A. Moore, service officer for veterans and their survivors, working for the State government of Virginia, will assist clients, without charge, on Thursday, June 9, 1960, at the Virginia Beach Convention Center located at Pacific Avenue and 19th St., between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Moore's office in Norfolk is located at 305 McKevitt Building, 203 City Hall Avenue, telephone MAdison 2-9671.

out the wet-bark area including rotten tissue that may be underneath. Disinfect the area and paint with a good asphalt type roofing paint. If bleeding persists, drill a small hole 1 to 1 1/2 inch in diameter just below the area where the slime flux appears. Slant the hole upward within the tree for about two inches. A small pipe with several holes in the side should be inserted in the trunk leaving about two inches protruding so the contaminated sap can escape without running down the trunk.

SEVERAL FACTORS CAN INCREASE DAIRY INCOME

Virginia dairymen might take a tip from their fellow milk producers in Wisconsin, says W. B. Griffith, of the VPI dairy science department.

Increased grain feeding, artificial breeding, and additional green or stored feed when pastures get short help them raise their dairy income.

The more progressive Wisconsin dairymen realize that grain in excess of 12 to 15 pounds does not cause more udder and breeding problems. Those using research results are producing more milk and more net income, says Griffith.

Herds where artificial breeding has been used have increased production per cow more than those using natural breeding.

Producers who provide green feed or stored feed to their cows when pastures become short have increased production per cow by 1,000 pounds or more, according to a survey by Wisconsin farm economist Emil Rauchenstein.

Griffith says, "Virginia dairymen can certainly improve their ability to compete by intelligent feeding of grain based on DHIA recommendations, by using artificial breeding to improve producing ability of their cows, by providing small grain grazing in early spring and late fall, and by giving hay and silage to cows in July and August."

Federal Government Likely To Buy Oceana School Site

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A House Judiciary Subcommittee recently agreed with what Princess Anne County residents have been saying for years — 3 R's are enough for Oceana Elementary School.

The fourth R — the roar of jets — may soon cease to be part of Oceana School's standard curriculum, because the federal government may soon buy the Oceana School property from Princess Anne County.

When the federal government is likely to take final action on the purchase, or how much the purchase price will be, has not been determined, but a House Judiciary Subcommittee has taken favorable action on H. R. 11136 — a private bill introduced in March by First District Representative Thomas N. Downing for the relief of Princess Anne County's School Board.

Representative Downing's bill calls for government purchase of the Oceana School property so Princess Anne County can build a new school elsewhere. Government purchase of the property is being asked because of the noise and danger from jet aircraft using Oceana Naval Air Station. School officials have stated that NAS jets take off and land in a flight pattern that passes a scant 200 feet above the school.

The original version of H. R. 11136 called on the government to pay $345,000 for the Oceana School property. The House Judiciary Subcommittee amended the bill to require a Court of Claims to establish the actual purchase price. The amended bill now establishes the amount of the school's claim, but leaves the amount of the claim to be determined by the courts.

Commenting on the Subcommittee's action, Rep. Downing said, "I'm convinced that the Subcommittee's amendment is a very beneficial development. The bill now stands an excellent chance of passing."

Rep. Downing went on to explain that the amended bill is a "blessing" for Princess Anne County, because a bill that mentions a specific dollar figure is "invariably objected to as a back-door-of-the-treasury device."

"Another blessing for the Oceana School," Rep. Downing continued, "was the Subcommittee hearing that was recently held in Washington. Members of the Subcommittee were very favorably impressed with the presentation, and I know that I personally was proud of the way our case was presented."

Robert L. Simpson, Princess Anne County's Commonwealth Attorney, headed the group that journeyed to Washington to appear before Chairman Thomas Lane (D-Mass.) and his Subcommittee on Claims of the House Judiciary Committee.

Acting as attorney for the School Board, Simpson called five witnesses to testify on behalf of Oceana Elementary School. The five: Frank Cox, School Superintendent; Mrs. Mildred Wilson, Principal of Oceana Elementary School; Mrs. Beatrice Hollowell, a 7th grade teacher at the school; Mrs. Phyllis Dowdy, a 1st grade teacher at the school; and Alex Grice, III, of Alexandria, P. Grice and Sons, Norfolk, an appraising firm that set the value of the school property at $345,000.

Commonwealth Attorney Simpson presented "a virtually faultless case" to the Subcommittee, according to Rep. Downing. "It was a well planned, carefully timed, and balanced presentation. The oral testimony was excellent, and the audiovisual aids helped to underline the real necessity for passage of the legislation. After seeing the School Board's film — and the dismayed looks on the children's faces as the jets went over the school — Subcommittee members certainly knew why School Superintendent Frank Cox has promised to close Oceana Elementary School."

"Of course," Rep. Downing said, "an outstanding presentation doesn't always mean favorable action. And even though I believe all participants can be proud of their roles in the hearing, the Subcommittee still decided the case on its merits. A favorable decision by the Subcommittee means that Oceana School unquestionably has a meritorious case. Now, I believe all of us can be hopeful that the bill will pass both houses of Congress and be signed into law this year."

Friends School Pupils Learn Art of Strawberry Picking

On June 2nd, after the school day was over, thirty-five boys and girls from the Friends School went with four teachers and parents to pick strawberries in a field near Kempville. The boys and girls in the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades had been told the day before that one of the parents of Friends School had offered to make strawberry preserves for sale to make money for Quaker Relief. She had investigated and found a field, and now she needed pickers. The boys and girls were told that they could go after school on the following day and pick berries if they were interested in this project. Thirty-five stayed after school.

Needless to say, in thirty minutes there were thirty quarts of berries! A short while later the picking was brought to a close (before the children were ready) because it was felt that there were as many strawberries as could be prepared for canning.

The following afternoon, after the hardest work had been done, the girls in the Sixth Grade helped to make preserves and to can it. There was enough to fill sixty jars. The boys and girls will be selling it this week for thirty cents per quart. The money will be sent then to the American Friends Service Committee for Quaker Relief work.

Those taking part in this project caught the spirit of working together and of helping others while doing so.

Jaycee Golfers Qualifying Set For Next Week

Qualifying for the 15th International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament for residents of Princess Anne County is scheduled to take place over the Kempville Meadows course on June 17. It has been announced by the Princess Anne Chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

According to the Princess Anne Jaycees the tournament is open to all youngsters residing in Princess Anne County or the newly annexed area of Norfolk City. Any boy who will not reach his 18th birthday by August 15 is eligible.

There will be several age groups and prizes in the form of trophies will be awarded for each group. The winners and runners-up will receive trophies and all participants will receive appropriate certificates.

Entry blanks for the Princess Anne qualifying round are available at the Kempville Meadows Golf Club. Winners of the local qualifying will be eligible to go to Staunton for the State Jaycee meet June 23-25.

The international meet is scheduled for the week of August 13 at the Gates Park Municipal course in Waterloo, Iowa.

Boat Licenses Need July 1st

Area game wardens were busy Monday distributing state boat registration application forms to boat dealers, marinas, and hunting and fishing license agents.

The state boat registration law passed by the 1959 General Assembly requires all boats powered by motors of 10 horsepower and above to be registered and numbered.

Owners must mail the application and a $5 check, or money order to the Boat Section, Virginia Game Commission, Box 1642, Richmond. The registration is for three years and starts on July 1.

The game commission will assign boat numbers upon receipt of the completed form and payment.

One end of the form will be returned to the owner with the number assigned printed on it. This will be the owner's temporary certificate. A permanent certificate of number will be sent within 30 days.

Boat owners must put on the numbers assigned on the boat by painting on or by affixing manufactured numbers.

Jazz Festival Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the second annual Virginia Beach Jazz Festival are now on sale at the Convention Center and at all Hub clothing stores in Norfolk, Portsmouth and Newport News.

The festival will be held July 8 and 9 at the Convention Center. There will be an entirely different lineup of performers each night. Tickets are available for each night or for both nights at a reduced rate. They may be ordered by mail from the Virginia Beach Jazz Festival, 217 60th St. Virginia Beach.

These are the award winners wearing their chapeaus that earned them the awards in the recent Bay Colony Garden Club contest. Seated from left, Mrs. Louis E. Guy, Mrs. Roy E. Folck and Mrs. William C. Gilliam. Standing from left, Mrs. Edward F. Blake, Mrs. H. C. Muller, Mrs. William C. Haycox and Mrs. James Bryant. All are past presidents of the club. (Boice photo.)

Bay Colony Garden Club Now 10 Years Old

The Bay Colony Garden Club celebrated its tenth anniversary last Wednesday, June 1st, at the Princess Anne Country Club with a four tiered cake decorated with candles and tiny pink roses. Magnolias and magnolia leaves were used as centerpieces. Hostesses for the occasion were the officers who had served the past year, Mrs. Roy E. Folck, Mrs. William C. Gilliam, Jr., Mrs. Donald E. Hood and Mrs. William C. Overman.

Mrs. J. W. Field, President of the Council of Garden Clubs of Princess Anne County, installed officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. William C. Gilliam, Jr.; Vice President, Mrs. Charles L. Sale, 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Edward F. Blake, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Fred A. Haycox, Jr.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. James L. Bryant, Treasurer, Mrs. Raymond M. Fretz. Directors will be Mrs. Andrew T. Moore, Mrs. Ray Fullerton and Mrs. Roy E. Folck.

A highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of the Laura Pittard Edwards Award which is given each year to the Club's most valuable member. By unanimous vote Mrs. Ray Fullerton received the award. The member who assisted the most points won for arrangements over the past year was Mrs. Edward F. Blake, who presented a silver butter dish. Mrs. E. H. Renn won the corresponding award in the field of horticulture. Club members wore hats decorated with fresh flowers and each of the past presidents cleverly depicted on her hat the outstanding event of her year as president. Mrs. James Bryant and Mrs. H. C. Muller were judged to have the most beautiful hats. Mrs. William C. Haycox and Mrs. Roy E. Folck the most amusing hats, and Mrs. Edward F. Blake and Mrs. Louis E. Guy the most original hats.

Little Theatre Will Present 'Fallen Angel' Next Week

The Virginia Beach Little Theatre will mark the close of the 1960 season with a presentation of Noel Coward's "The Fallen Angel." On Tuesday, June 14th and 15th, Jean Duffy portrays the part of Saunders, the brutish maid, in this light, laugh-provoking comedy while Angie Alexander plays Maurice Dukes, an impertinently humorous Frenchman. Mr. Alexander, one of the local Little Theatre stars, is well known for his flair for Comedy which was most recently displayed in the Little Theatre's presentation of the "Tender Trap."

In "The Fallen Angel", the story revolves around two women, the mad as fair each of them had years ago with their singular lover, Maurice, and the present precarious situation when they learn of their ardent lover's intention to return. The situation is further complicated by the fact that since their past escapade in Italy, they have each acquired husbands, neither of whom have ever heard a whisper concerning Maurice Dukes. How can they keep their husbands from meeting their lover? Do they really want to see Maurice again? Will they fall under the spell of his Gallic charm once more? You can only find out by either reading the book or coming to see the play and its easier, less expensive and a lot more entertaining to see the show.

The cast for "The Fallen Angel", is directed by Ruth Maury. The roles and the players are: Julia Starroll—Pat Jennings, Fred Starroll—George Webb, Jane Banbury—Tony Hoppe, Will Banbury—Ed Donovan, Saunders—Jean Duffy, Maurice Dukes—Angie Alexander.

Both showings of the play will take place in the Virginia Beach

Babe Ruth League Season Begins

The Virginia Beach Babe Ruth activity will get underway Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. on the High School field with an exhibition game between Topsy Drive 1959 champions from Arlington, Virginia Beach, will be represented in this game by boys picked from the four local teams. The regular league schedule will start Monday evening at 7:30 p. m. with a game between the Everett-Jordan Yanks and Coates Motor Co. Vantics. Other games for the week will be announced on Monday. Regular playing nights will be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, each team playing two nights.

New uniforms have been purchased for more than half of the players this year. Playing equipment has been supplemented and new major league batting helmets will replace the old leather headgear.

Three of last years sponsors are again supporting the league with one new sponsor. We welcome Coates Motor Co., as the new supporter along with Tanker Stations, the VFW Post and Everett Jordan Motors. These organizations are the foundation of Virginia Beach Babe Ruth ball and the league workers wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation.

DUSCH, McCOMBS UP FOR ELECTION

Qualified voters of Virginia Beach will be busy next Tuesday as they go to the polls to vote for city council and two bond issue referendums. The election is for voters in the two voting precincts of the city.

In the councilman election Mayor Frank A. Dusch and Vice Mayor John W. McCombs are up for re-election to a third term on the council.

Two separate bond issues will be before the voters. One is a $250,000 issue that involves several capital improvements. Specifically this issue is for the purpose of providing funds to construct and install drainage in the 48th street area; to grade, fill, pave, drain, improve and widen 17th street from Pacific avenue to Arctic avenue; to grade, fill, pave, drain and improve Pacific avenue from 17th street to Rutledge Boulevard; and to renovate and rebuild Willoughby T. Cooke school.

The second bond issue in the amount of $440,000 is for revenue producing bonds which includes extension of water and sewerage systems in the city, the construction of sewerage disposal mains in

Shadow Lawn Heights and on Atlantic Avenue between 13th and 20th streets and fifth street to second street; to construct a new pumping station in Pine Acres; to install a 16 inch water main through the city; a water distribution line in Linkhorn Park; to erect a 250,000 gallon water tank; and to provide for payment of the bonds.

The polls are scheduled to be open Tuesday from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m. Precinct one voters will cast their ballots at the fire station at 20th and Arctic avenue and Precinct two will vote in the building located at 304 Thirty-first street.

Mayor Dusch and McCombs were both elected in 1956 to the City Council for the first time. They successfully sought re-election in 1958 defeating two opponents in each election. This is the first time that neither man has faced opposition.

In the bond issue referendums included in the $250,000 issue is an amount not to exceed $300,000 to be used for the renovation and complete remodeling of the Willoughby T. Cooke school. Plans for this undertaking were revealed several weeks ago and its approval is expected in Tuesday's vote.

Four North Virginia Beach Traffic Lights Approved

A series of four traffic lights will be erected as soon as possible in North Virginia Beach between 48th Street and the Fort Story gate at 86th street, according to information received Wednesday from the Virginia State Department of Highways.

Information contained in a letter from J. P. Mills, Jr., traffic and planning engineer for the department, the exact locations of the lights has not been determined but they will be spaced fairly uniform between Virginia Beach and Fort Story and at locations where the greatest volume of traffic can enter from the side streets.

In the plans the lights will allow continuous movement on Route 90 unless interrupted by a vehicle entering from the side street. The plan also calls for pedestrian push buttons at each location. Mills' letter stated that the department realizes Virginia Beach is reaching the peak of its tourist season now and that instructions are being issued to erect the lights just as soon as material can be obtained and the schedule arranged.

Mills said that it is hoped that the lights may be installed prior to the July 4th week-end here but that this seemed unlikely. However, he stated that every effort will be made to have them in operation by that time.

GRADUATION DINNER

The senior class of Virginia Beach High School will have a Graduation Dinner Thursday night, June 9, at the Paramount Restaurant at 5:30 p. m. All seniors and the class sponsors will attend the dinner which will precede the final graduation exercises in the Convention Center at 8 p. m.

BAYLAKE PINES GARDEN CLUB FINAL MEETING OF SEASON

Baylake Pines Garden Club held their final meeting of the season Wednesday, June 1, at noon in the garden of Mrs. Julian Reynolds, 205 Ben Gunn Road. A picnic lunch was served and awards for arrangements were won by Mrs. Roy Henderson, Mrs. S. W. Holland and Mrs. A. C. Marquess. Horticulture awards went to Mrs. M. A. King, Mrs. Walter Arnold and Mrs. D. C. Heath.

Mrs. Heath gave a talk on "birds" and stressed that cool fresh water should be put out for them in the hot summer months and that it is not necessary to feed them at this time as there is an abundance of insects. The club will suspend their meetings for the summer months meeting again in September.

Miniature Golf Eliminations To Be Held Here

BAYSIDE — The Put-N-Green at 2230 Shore Drive here, has been selected as the exclusive course in this area for eliminations during the coming season to select a regional champion to compete in the "World Series" of Miniature Golf at Asbury Park, N. J. September 10 and 11, 1960.

Winner of the qualifying play here will receive a free, DeLuxe, all-expense tour to the Grand Finals of the 3rd Annual International Miniature Golf Tournament on the famous Boardwalk at Asbury Park in September, and take part in the competitions for the World Title. Eliminations for the world championship event are being held at courses throughout the United States and other countries. An imported Fiat "500" automobile and a 40" trophy, symbolic of world's supremacy in Miniature Golf are among awards to the top winners.

Miniature Golf, now enjoying a great resurgence, claims an estimated 15,000,000 devotees, of all ages, who play regularly. Sports authorities attribute the boom in the sport to President Eisenhower's frequent fairway forays, as well as the expanding sports picture nationally. Present World Miniature Golf Champion is 23 year old Raymond Peige, of South River, N. J.

In addition to a "swank" stay at one of Asbury Park's most fashionable hotels, directly on the Atlantic Ocean, the competing champions from all sections will be entertained at a colorful round of events.

The regional tournament play here is ideally suited to industrial, business and school leagues in Miniature Golf, as well as individual play. It was pointed out by Tournament Directors. All those desiring to take part in the play here are urged to contact, without delay Put-N-Green, 2230 Shore Drive, Bayside, Virginia. Phone: NO 4-9830.

THIS FEEL ON THE

This man can see for many, many miles, but he's not up in the clouds. He's just looking at the ground! Certainly at what some people think, that's what the Church does for a man, too. Certainly it gives him a broader vision; it lifts up his eyes to see God and the eternal values of love, truth, justice and service which God inspires. It gives him a vision from which to view his job, his family, his country — his life!

But the Church always keeps that vision set on the ground! It keeps him for what he is — a gardener of the church in the face and soul of the world. It is a devilish power which only God can give. It keeps him separate in this world while it lifts up his eyes to see another beyond the horizon.

And that is what the Church can do for you! It can give you greater vision. But it's not up in the clouds. It keeps your feet on the ground!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a backbone of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Lutheran Center Invites Servicemen
 The Lutheran Service Center again invites the men of the armed forces to use its facilities when visiting Virginia Beach. The center provides a lounge where ping-pong, reading, piano and record playing and games may be enjoyed in an informal and restful atmosphere. Our location on the Beach and Boardwalk makes the bathhouse and showers very attractive features.
 The Center, located at 18th and Atlantic Ave., Virginia Beach, will be open on Friday, May 27, and the following schedule will be in operation during the summer months:
 Fridays 3:30 p. m. - 8 p. m.
 Saturdays 10:00 a. m. - 8 p. m.
 Sundays 12 noon - 8 p. m.
 Also May 30 - July 4 and Labor Day.
 Last year approximately 4,000 service men visited The Center.
 We are proud of this record and hope even more men will use the Service Center as their headquarters while at Virginia Beach this summer. We feel these free services, under the auspices of the Church, meet a real need of the service man and your support of the program is greatly appreciated.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then top you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

Typhoid Clinic To Be Held at Chesapeake Beach

As a Community Service, the Woman's Club of Chesapeake Beach will present a Typhoid Clinic at no charge to the public, on the afternoons of June 13, 20 and 27. Hours will be from two until three, in the Chesapeake Beach Community Center.

The Clinic will be supervised under the Princess Anne Public Health Department with a doctor and nurse present at all times. Both series and booster shots will be offered.

Mrs. Jean Canning, Health Chairman for the Chesapeake Beach Club, will be in charge. The Woman's Club has provided this service to their community and any others interested for approximately 15 years. It is provided on a year to year basis as a result of how many use the clinic. Therefore it is the hope of the Woman's Club that those in the Bayside area will continue to support this necessary health precaution.

Bible School Set for Monday, June 13 at First Presbyterian

Vacation Church School at First Presbyterian Church, Virginia Beach, will be held for eight (8) days beginning Monday, June 13. Hours are from 8:15 — 12:00 Noon. The topic of study for this year is THE CHURCH. Teachers who have been appointed to date are: Kindergarten—Mrs. S. W. Ferguson, Mrs. A. G. House, Mrs. C. L. Ackins, Jr., and Mrs. Roy Nier; Primary—Mrs. R. L. Boyd, Mrs. Roger Gray, Mrs. Thaddeus Parish, Mrs. C. W. Solomon, Mrs. C. A. Glascock, Mrs. H. E. Jones; Junior—Mrs. V. K. Almond, Jr., and Mrs. A. B. Midgett. Mrs. A. W. Craft is in charge of the nursery provided for children of teachers.

All boys and girls from 4 years of age through those who have completed the 6th grade are invited to attend Vacation Church School for a week and half of worship, study and recreation.

GALILEE BIBLE SCHOOL. The Vacation Bible School of Galilee Episcopal Church will be from June 13th, Monday through Thursday, 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., to June 23rd. Registrations will be at the church school on Monday, June 13th.

A life-size cableship deck at Bell Laboratories simulates cable-handling operations which is helping engineers develop a new trans-oceanic cable system.

First Patrons Check

C&P Authorizes $3,700,200 For Improvements

The Board of Directors of The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia at its regular monthly meeting on May 27, authorized an expenditure of $3,700,200 for the improvement and expansion of telephone service in its operating area. Appropriations totaling almost $19 million have already been approved by the Board so far this year. By year's end, the C&P expects to spend a record breaking $47 million for providing various telephone services throughout the state.

Included in this month's appropriation is $46,500 for additional dial equipment in the Virginia Beach central office. Some 400 lines and 1,000 terminals will be added to the present dial equipment to care for future telephone growth in the exchange.

In addition, the C&P Board approved allocations for major projects affecting the various districts as follows: Culpeper, $2,500,000; Lynchburg, $20,000; Norfolk, $83,200; Richmond, $449,900; Roanoke, $20,300; the Virginia area suburban to Washington, $232,000; and $383,000 for long distance equipment at a number of locations in Western Virginia.

Over one million telephones in the State of Virginia are served by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia.

Summer Play Program To Get Underway June 14

The Virginia Beach summer recreation program will get underway on June 14. Two playgrounds will be available to the youngsters, one at W. T. Cooke School and the other at Virginia Beach High School. The playgrounds will be open five days a week from 8-12 in the mornings and 1-4 in the afternoons.

George Tepo, recreation director, and his experienced staff hope to make this years program the most interesting one ever held. Mrs. Ajett, arts and crafts supervisor will have a variety of projects for the youngsters such as: weaving, wood craft, bead craft, plaster craft, airplane models, basket weaving, free hand drawing and painting. Ribbons and trophies will be awarded for outstanding work.

Coach Coulthard and Coach King will supervise the two play areas and provide the children with such activities as: shuffleboard, tennis, table tennis, volley-ball, bowling, softball, and other out-of-door games. There will be periods set aside for quiet games such as: checkers, dominoes, chess reading, bingo and other indoor activities. Trophies will be awarded for the best arts and crafts work, sportsmanship, citizenship and best attendance.

Contest and refreshments will close out each weeks activities. The program is open to all school age children and those who will be entering school in September. "Fun Day", will begin June 14 at the two playgrounds. Everyone is invited to attend.

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET

The Princess Anne Garden Club will meet Monday, June 13, 1960 at 2:30 p. m. at the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club, at Birdneck Point.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Gramps Tells a "Moving" Story

Gramps Adams just got back from his first trip to the city in 40 years.

Thinking there might be a story in an older's impressions of the big city, I stopped by his place. Gramps was pretty enthusiastic about everything — except the escalators they have in the new department store.

"Sure, those moving stairs are easy on the legs going up," Gramps commented. "But just try to get down on the same ones. I'll be jiggered if you can do it, not with the steps comin' up at you a mile a minute!"

From where I sit, sometimes some of us go out of our way to make things a little harder than they really are. Think, for instance, how much easier lying with our neighbors would be if we were more tolerant of things. Like my right to choose an occasional glass of beer — your right to choose coffee, tea or milk. By respecting each other's preferences, we're better neighbors with fewer "up and downs."

Jo Ann Riffle, William W. Taylor Exchange Vows

Sunday, May 23, the Baylake Methodist Church was the setting for the wedding ceremony of Jo Ann Riffle and William W. Taylor. Jo Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Riffle of Terrace Avenue, Chesapeake Beach and William Warren Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Alfred Davidson of Baylake Pines.

The bride, attired in a Ballerina length dress of white chiffon and no over taffeta and wearing a shoulder length veil arranged from a pearl tiara, entered on the arm of her father. She carried a white bible with a white orchid.

The mother of honor, Mrs. Nelson Howlett, sister of the bridegroom, wore an aqua lace over taffeta dress and hat to match. She carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Mr. Davidson was best man for his son.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip after which they will live at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Jo Ann is a 1958 graduate of Princess Anne High School and has been employed at Taylor Parker Company.

The groom is acting corporal in the Marine Corp and is presently stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Berkley, Jr. and their children, who have been living in Bay Colony, have left to make their home in Roanoke.

Miss Martha Pender and Miss Sandra Sadler left Tuesday by plane to spend the summer traveling in Europe.

Mrs. Frank R. Motley will return today to her home in Cavalier Shores after spending several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Camp in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLean have returned to their home in Arlington after visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Taylor.

Mrs. Lella M. Bissell and her mother, Mrs. William Murray left Saturday to attend the June week activities and graduation at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Mrs. Bissell's son Allen M. Bissell was graduated there Wednesday. They were joined there by another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh S. Bissell and young daughter, of Atlanta, Ga., who will return to the beach with Mrs. Bissell to visit for two weeks.

Miss Lorna Lehmberg, of Denver, Colo., will also be Mrs. Bissell's houseguest.

Wallace-Barner Vows Exchanged

NORFOLK — Miss Anne-Sydney Wallace became the bride of 1st Lt. George Batte Barner, Jr., USMC, of Richmond, Friday at 8 p. m. in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Beverly Tucker White, rector of the church, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. Edmund Berkeley, rector of Galilee Episcopal Church at Virginia Beach.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Karl Kenneth Wallace. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Batte Barner of Richmond, former residents of Virginia Beach.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of antique ivory satin had an oval neckline and a chapel train. She wore her hair in a bun with a pearl tiara. She carried a prayer book with a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. K. K. Wallace, Jr., of Durham, N. C., was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. W. A. Walker of Galveston, Tex., sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Mary Baldwin Newman of Farmville, cousin of the bride.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Cmdr. R. L. Corkran of Virginia Beach, Dr. Karl Kenneth Wallace, Jr., of Durham, N. C., James E. B. Wallace of Galveston, Capt. W. A. Walker of Charlottesville, George L. B. Grinnan of Sandston and William T. Reed, III of Richmond. After a reception at the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club, the couple left for the Eastern Shore. They will live in Newport, R. I.

Mathews-Greene Vows Exchanged

RICHMOND — The marriage of Miss Katherine Frances Greene and Kenneth Hampton Mathews was solemnized Saturday at 4 p. m. in the chapel of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Mathews is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Elwood Greene of Richmond, formerly of Norfolk.

Mr. Mathews is the son of Mrs. Clarence S. Edwards of Princess Anne and John Kenneth Mathews of Norfolk.

The Rev. Paul Edward Crandall and the Rev. Perry Mitchell officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of white embroidered tulle. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was arranged from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor and only attendant was Miss Jane Clemens Parker of Norfolk.

Victor Lynn Davis of Princess Anne was best man. Groomsmen were Michael Lewis Melton, Jr. and Earl Long, both of Princess Anne.

Corallie Hanly Becomes Bride of David Murray, Jr.

PRINCESS ANNE — May 30, the marriage of Miss Corallie Hanly and David Murray, Jr., of New York City took place Monday at 4:30 p. m. at Old Donation Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Norman T. Slater. He was assisted by the Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hugh Hanly of Norfolk. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Murray of Farmington, Conn., and Truro, Mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of ivory peau de soie. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with side pleats caught at the waist with a small bow and had a chapel train. Her hairloom Duchess lace veil was worn Madonna style. She carried a cascade bouquet of lilies of the valley, white sweetheart roses and Eucharist lilies.

Miss Mary Margaret Hillman of Concord, N. C., was her cousin's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Ferd O. Lawson, Jr., also of Concord, and Mrs. Robert D. Leeper of Scarsdale, N. Y.

Irvin Gillis Murray of Lynne, Conn., was best man for his brother. The groomsmen were W. Melvin Means of Chicago and Dr. Robert D. Leeper, of Scarsdale, both cousins of the bride. Robb L. Gates of Waynesboro and Thomas J. Hubbard of New York City.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club. Later, the couple left for wedding trip to Bermuda. They will live at 510 E. 85th St., New York City.

Renault Runs Circles Around Other Cars

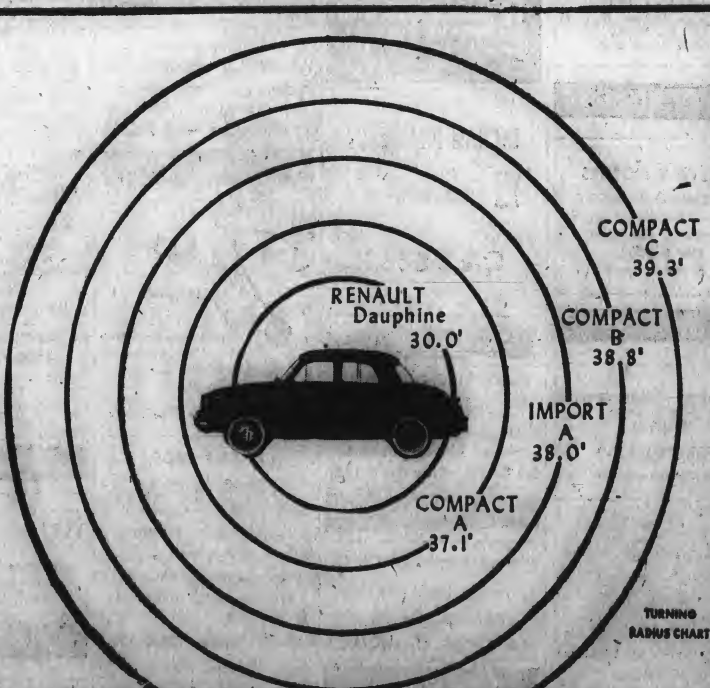

When it comes to maneuverability, Renault runs circles around other cars . . . even those so-called compacts and other leading imports. The chart above gives you a graphic demonstration of comparative standings on this point. What does this prove? It proves that when it comes to maneuverability Renault once more takes honors . . . just as it does when it is compared with other imports and compacts on such fine points as economy of operation, gas-mile mileage, workmanship and design. For years now, the Renault Dauphine has been Tidewater's best selling imported car. The reason for this is the fact that no matter how the Dauphine is compared with other cars, it comes out on top. Hundreds of your neighbors have made this comparison and proved it to themselves. Take the time yourself to make an honest comparison . . . you'll see too.

Free Acts Coming To Seaside Park

The 1960 season of free circus acts at Seaside Park, Virginia Beach's amusement center by the ocean, begins Monday, June 13th, with Bob Johnson and his balancing act as the first attraction.

The free acts go on daily at 2:30 and 9:30 p. m. on the big outdoor stage. The show changes every week, and the complete schedule follows:

June 20—Joe Smiley and Company, magicians; June 27—The Kayo Family, a six-person foot juggling act; July 4—Jim Darling's Chimps; July 11—The Ortons, Indian knife throwing and rifle marksmanship act; July 18—The Flying Valentines; July 25—Mike Monroe, comedy trampolines; Aug. 1—The Marcos, aerial act; Aug. 8—Pat Barrett, aerial act; Aug. 15—The Ortons, aerial balancing; Aug. 22—The Skating Regals; Aug. 29—Billy Barton (Mr. Sensation).

The evening entertainment schedule at Seaside Park now includes free dancing to live music in the spacious ballroom, where Danny Teagarden's Orchestra plays from 8 p. m. to closing every night, and a juke box furnishes music for the dancers from opening until Teagarden takes over. For a short time at the beginning of the season a nominal admission was charged, but this has been dropped in favor of the free policy.

Bob and Chauncy, TV ventriloquist and his dummy, will entertain with a free show on the Outdoor Stage Sunday, June 12, at 2:30 p. m.

Intercity Traveling Loop Ends Season

The top ten pin league in the State of Virginia concluded its 1959-1960 schedule last Sunday after a highly successful season. Zales of Norfolk walked away with the number one spot under their belt, while Pin Path of Norfolk took over second and Coaches Sporting Goods Thunderbirds of Virginia Beach nailed down third place money. That the Norfolk and Virginia Beach teams took over the one-two-three positions attest to the upsurge of interest in the sport around this area. And with ten pin bowling relatively new to Virginia Beach, its hosting the third best team in the State in its initial fling at organized bowling gives indication of greater things to come.

A trait of human nature is the desire to feel you have done your best. And, naturally, the Thunderbirds would have liked to come out on top of the league. However, there were two teams slightly better and to the best went those laurels. Nothing can be said in the way of excuses for the manner in which matches were lost. It was simply a case of the better team coming out victorious. But the Thunderbirds are undivided in their opinion that at all times they did their best to represent the game at its highest level of sportsmanship and reflect favorably upon the city in which they live. Among the members of the team itself there is the feeling that no other team can boast less dissent, less rivalry, or better sportsmanship in its ranks. And this social life enjoyed by the team members and their wives has promoted friendships and provided memories to last through many years to come. In light of these achievements, the team hopes they will be forgiven for the humble feeling of having done their best.

The last social event of this season for the team and their wives came to an end late last Monday and will not be soon forgotten. The wives graciously paid their debt to the victors of the celebrated grudge match to the satisfaction of all concerned, thus proving that good sportsmanship can be extended to include the vanquished. Held at Lorraine Atundsons and presided over by Pete "Pierre" Preston—who for some reason or other aligned himself with the women, the festivities included food and drink to a gourmet's taste. Pete appointed himself as chef and produced some results that should have been captured on film or used as material for a "Keystone" comedy. The T-birds and their wives will be chuckling for years at the sight of Pete at the outdoor grill, resplendent in apron, with a drink in one hand and a long fork in the other, wrestling a dozen steaks, with a hieroglyphical chart of a design known only to him, muttering to himself about the one with the toothpick is to be well done and goes to Midge; that one on the right with the pretzel is medium for Lee; 'oops, I dropped Hanks'; 'oh, well, the patio flavor will be good'; 'lets see, who gets one with corn cob holders'; 'oops, there went another one'; 'I may bottle this patio flavor and sell it with oregano and paprika.' By the time everyone got seated they agreed the spectacle they had just witnessed would make the best movie comedy seem like a drama by comparison. Pete was forgiven, though, because the steaks were excellent (he may have something about this patio flavor) and he had rolled a 571 and was high man on the team against Pin Path the day before.

The team would like to take this opportunity to thank their sponsors, Fred Isaacs of Coaches Sporting Goods and Joe Phelps of the Thunderbird Bowl, for the wonderful support given them during the past season. It may be a little known fact but these two Virginia Beach businessmen have done more to promote the game of ten pins than anyone in this area. By so doing they are not only contributing to the fastest growing sport in the U.S.A. but are helping bring favorable publicity and recognition to the City of Virginia Beach.

The MIXING BOWL..
IT'S Fun TO COOK

The Cards Say... June's Got It!

June has an abundance of everything—roses, brides, fair weather and more milk production per cow than any other month!

June offers bits of excuses for parties, too. For instance, graduations, since most families have someone graduating from something. So, here's a suggestion for refreshments that'll delight graduates of all ages: a spread of pretty cream cheese sandwiches and a tall pitcher of richly delicious milk shake, made with milk and the convenient new milk-shake mix.

Chocolate Milk Shake

2 cups cold milk
2 ice cubes (optional)
2 tablespoons sugar
1 package Chocolate Kool Shake
Four milk into a shaker or quart jar. (If milk is not cold, add ice cubes.) Add sugar, then milk-shake mix. Shake vigorously for 15 to 20 seconds. Serve at once. Makes 2 tall glasses.

June is Dairy Month — Enjoy all of the fine dairy products available to you. We have so much to be grateful for — I'm sure you'll agree after you read some facts about life in early America — sent by the American Dairy Association.

Here are but a few of the tasks shouldered by our pioneer women: chopping wood, building fires, hauling ashes, spinning yarns, weaving cloth, washing all clothes by hand, stuffing mattresses, carrying water, making soap, dipping candles, making butter and cheese, to say nothing of raising large families.

Don't you wonder how they ever managed?

I'll tell you. Simplification was the order of the day. No fancy salads or cakes or pastries. No closets full of the latest clothes. (No closets at all!) No gallivanting around to this meeting or that, to attend the latest movie or play bridge.

Almost all the food for a meal was cooked in a single pot. And often that pot was put on the fire before bedtime, to be ready by morning. Children were given the task of stirring the porridge or stew in big iron kettles.

At serving time everyone ladled the porridge into his own wooden bowl, then ate until satisfied. There wasn't always plenty to eat. The day always started with a bowl of porridge — corn meal pudding. It was called mush, pup, Indian pudding and hasty pudding, and was eaten with milk, or maple syrup, molasses, or butter.

There was usually only one plate to a family, a large wooden one called a trencher. This would be filled with food and passed around so everyone could help himself. For a family to own more than one trencher, or at the most two, was considered from extravagance and resulted in censure by the town elders.

All the family members drank from the same receptacle, a pitcher-like object of wood with a handle and a spout. It, too, was passed from one person to another.

Eating implements were not used for many years, with the exception of spoons. They were the only actual necessity. Usually they consisted of shells attached to wooden handles, though nuts sometimes were used instead. Long gourds were hollowed out and used as ladles and dippers, as well as spoons.

You can see that the actual act of eating was unceremonious and disposed with quickly; indeed, it was quite primitive. But those early settlers had to clear the land, build homes, till the ground, plant, etc. This gave little time for relaxation.

Menues were simple because the foods available in any quantity were sorely limited.

Maple sugar was plentiful, and this was the only kind known for several years. When white sugar finally became available it was used only on special occasions, such as when the minister came to call. Molasses-like syrup, drawn from the maple sugar that had been packed in tubs as soft sugar, was used on the table and in cooking.

The lowly but important corn went into hasty pudding, or mush, and this was served at least twice daily in homes both rich and poor. Besides being served as a porridge, it was later fried on the flat iron griddle, like buckwheat cakes.

Parched corn beaten to a powder was carried in knapsacks on journeys, and it is said that three spoonfuls a day, taken with water or snow, would sustain a man. (Size of spoon not mentioned!)

Corn was taken as taxes and considered legal currency, like gold and silver. The best ears were laid aside for seed and the husks turned back and braided. This was called "tracing" and provided a means by which the corn would be hung in attics, sheds and barns. Shucks were used for stuffing in mattresses and for making braided mats.

Corn bread, or "johnny cake" was originally baked on a board propped in front of the fire. "Johnny" was derived from the word journey, applied because the cakes were often carried on journeys. Our johnny cake of today is the same thing, having acquired merely a change in spelling.

Fish were plentiful in the ocean, and because settlements were located by the sea coast, seafood appeared on the tables regularly. There were more than 200 varieties in New England alone! Crabs and oysters were plentiful and large. Four men could be satisfied with one crab in those days, for they measured twelve inches in diameter. And some oysters, it has been authoritatively stated, reached the unbelievable length of one foot!

Spices came from far-off lands, but they were used by the colonists in 1640, when whaling vessels returned with things not found in America.

By 1664 milk was an important food, selling for a penny a quart. Milk was regarded then as being fully as important as the meat from cows. It was actually plentiful by the beginning of the 18th century and seems to have been commonly used on the table.

Scarcely any industry in the early colonies required as much skill and time as did making butter and cheese. Cottage cheese was made by leaving the curds unpressed, and it was salted and buttered to suit the taste. Dutch cheese was made by crumbling the cottage cheese mixture, salting and buttering it, and then working in chopped sage. This was formed into balls and set away to ripen. Cheeses were often varied by adding spinach water for flavor.

Next to butter, cheese was the most important commodity in the home, and it was used for many generations for barter. Calico, needles, trinkets, spices, shingles, clapboards, wood from the sawmill and meal from the grist mill — all these might be obtained in exchange. It was not uncommon to pay the minister and also the cow-herds or other keepers with butter and cheese.

Nothing's so refreshing on a warm June day than Ice Cream Coolers... sometimes called "Flots" or "Tall Fellows."

There's another reason why it's fitting to serve these savory coolers during June, June... the month of brides and roses... is also known as "June Is Dairy Month." At this time of the year ice cream... as well as cheese, butter, and all the wonderful dairy foods are in good supply. It's easy to take advantage of the good supply of these popular, delicious foods. Ice cream, in particular.

Ice cream is welcome... anywhere... but when served in these long, quenching drinks you've a treat in store. To make these Ice Cream Coolers... scoop or spoon ice cream into tall glasses. Then fill the glasses with raspberry juice, grape juice, lemon or orangeade.

Coolers may be varied to suit all tastes. The flavor of the ice cream may be varied, of course. While vanilla is the popular choice... chocolate, strawberry, or another favorite often proves interesting. Carbonated beverages may be substituted for the fruit juice... root beer, a cola, ginger ale, or another flavor. Chocolate milk is still another possibility that's especially pleasing to the young folks. In fact, the variations are multitudinous.

Serve Ice Cream Coolers for an afternoon or evening refreshment or as a special treat for luncheon. A tray of coolers may be passed with the coolers to make a real party of an afternoon or evening gathering. Should the group be sizeable... you might have a large bowl filled with scoops of ice cream. Or, have a tray of tall glasses already filled with ice cream. Then have a variety of fruit juices and carbonated beverages from which the family and guests may select a favorite.

Ice Cream Coolers are not only refreshing and good... but they're good for you, too. Creamy, smooth ice cream is just one of the many fine dairy foods that're so healthful and plentiful during the month of June.

Ice cream in our modern age is available in so many flavors and in handy-sized cartons that're easy to buy and store. Remember ice cream is a perishable food! The perfection and goodness at the time of packaging should be maintained by home storage at 0°F. with little or no exposure of the ice cream to air. Then use within 30 days.

Many delightful dishes can be prepared using — milk, cheese and butter. Treat your family to some special surprises using dairy products in your menus.

DEMONSTRATION FIELD DAY
Farmers, professional agricultural workers, seed and fertilizer dealers will have an opportunity Tuesday, June 14th to see two very important agronomy demonstrations being conducted in Princess Anne County.

I would like to invite each of you to see these two very important demonstrations. The wheel-track method of planting corn, and the wheat fertilization demonstration.
Field day will start at 1:00 at Alva Malbone's farm near Pungo, Virginia. Those who will see corn that was planted by the wheel-track method. This wheel-track method of planting corn is new, in fact so new that Alva's field is the first and only one in Princess Anne County.

The wheat fertilization demonstration will show you five different ways of fertilizing wheat.
I believe that you will be surprised at the results. So much so that this demonstration may cause you to change your method of fertilization. I'll be there — will you?

PROGRESS
Plans are rolling right along for the establishment of a Sweet Potato Marketing Association in Princess Anne County. On Thursday and Friday, June 9th and 10th, representatives from the Agricultural Marketing Service of the USDA, representatives from the State Department of Agriculture will meet with the Princess Anne County professional workers and growers to outline a tentative plan of operation for the Association.

On Thursday, Mr. Homer Preston, who is chief of the Fruit and Vegetable branch of the Agricultural Marketing Service, will tour the county with Vernon Watts, extension horticulturist at the Virginia Truck Experiment Station, and with the county agent to observe housing, equipment, and to talk with individual growers about sweet potato marketing. On Friday, representatives from the State Department of Agriculture will come in to assist in the actual drafting of the plan of operation. On Friday evening, at 8:00 P. M. this group of professionals will meet with the sweet potato planning committee to draft the proposed operating procedure to be presented later to all of the sweet potato growers in the county.

WOOL PART SET
Have you sold your 1960 wool yet? If not, you will be very much interested in the Princess Anne County Wool Pool, which will be held Thursday, June 16, from 7:00
a. m. to 7:00 p. m.

All farmers desiring to sell their wool through this pool, bring it to Alvah Jones' Farmers Fertilizer and Seed Corporation, at Princess Anne, Virginia. Put a tag, with your name and address, on each bag.

The prices are exceptionally good, with clear wool, bringing $7.02 per pound. Other prices include short wool, $4.02, stain wool, $4.02; heavy berry, $2.02; lambs wool; $4.02, and tags, $2.00.

This wool has been sold to the Fred Whitaker Co., of Philadelphia, Penn. They will have a grader at the regional pool, where we carry wool in Franklin, Virginia, and if you so desire, you may travel there and see your wool weighed and graded.

SECOND LAMB SALE
The second lamb sale of 1960 will be held June 15, at the Smithfield Livestock Yards. This will probably be the big sale of the year, as many people will now have lambs that will weigh 80 pounds or better. We are suggesting of course, that you send only those lambs to the sale, that will weigh at least 80 pounds. Lambs must be this heavy in order to give you a good top grade.

CORN OUTLOOK
In traveling around the county this week, I could not help but notice the excellent crops of corn that we have this spring. The corn looks exceptionally well, considering the very dry start it had at planting time. If weather conditions remain favorable throughout the year, it looks like a good crop of corn is to be had. Some fields that look especially nice are those of Robert White, Alva Malbone, Warner Menden and Alton Wil-lams.

Incidentally, our potato crop looks very favorable at this time, and soybeans are coming up very nicely after the recent rains.

H. W. OZLIN WINNER
Bruce Clarke was this year's Senior Boy winner of the H. W.
Ozlin Award. He has completed six years in 4-H Club work.
Bruce has taken the Electric Project each year in 4-H. He has been the county winner in the project for three years, and has worked on several phases of electricity.

This year he installed his own telephone system connecting the house to the green house and the barn. He also gave a demonstration on installing heating tape at the southeastern district contest.
He has participated in many 4-H
Activities. These include Public Speaking and Share-the-Fun. Last year he was the county and district winner in the 4-H Public Speaking Contest. He also won a blue award in the state contest held at VPI.
Bruce has also attended many extra 4-H activities. These include the State 4-H Electric Congress,

Last year, he served as a junior the weeks camping program.

He has held various offices on the county council and in his club.
In 1959 he served on the county

These are a few of the many things Bruce has done in 4-H. Congratulations on your fine 4-H

COLORADO POTATO BEETLE
Several cases of a very high degree of Colorado potato beetle resistance to DDT, dieldrin and other chlorinated hydrocarbons have been observed. Dithion, Sevin,

Phosdrin and Guthion have complete knock-downs in 2 hours or less in controlled tests against the resistant beetles. These chemicals have all been officially cleared for use on Irish potatoes, and were used at the rates recommended in "Insect Control Recommendations for Vegetable Crops in Eastern Virginia," available in my office.

Resistance to an insecticide does not occur all over a given area simultaneously. Localized "islands" of resistance usually develop in widely separated areas. Certain warning signs appear before the realization dawns that a chemical is no longer effective against a particular insect. One of the best guides according to our observations is a definite slow-down in action. For example, an insecticide may have been putting the potato beetles down in two hours or less for a period of 4-5 years but suddenly take from 24-72 hours. This may be followed by a gradual loss of control over a period of several years or an almost total lack of effectiveness in a comparatively short time.

It should be pointed out that,
for the most part, potato beetles have been well controlled by the chlorinated hydrocarbons. Growers should keep a close check after treating, however, and look out for any "danger" signs.

SEVIN CLEARED ON A VARIETY OF VEGETABLE CROPS

Sevin, a naphthyl methylcarbamate, has cleared up the day of harvest on the following vegetable crops: beans, cucumber, eggplant, pepper, summer squash, and tomato. There are no time restrictions on potato.

Sevin is very effective against the corn earworm, European corn borer, leaf-hopper, Colorado potato beetles, Mexican bean beetles, potato tuberworm and other pests as indicated by the label. Sevin will give adequate control of flea beetles. This chemical will not control most aphids (plant lice), re-spiders, the cabbage looper or serpentine leafminer. Sevin has not been cleared for use on sweet corn at the present time but an early clearance is anticipated.

SOIL TESTING

Farmers are more interested than ever in soil testing. The soil test can be a valuable tool in determining the right amount and analysis of fertilizer and whether or not lime is needed.

What happens to the soil sample is carefully opened and a number recorded on both the sample and soil record sheet. This number follows the sample through the laboratory to be sure that it is not misplaced. As over 7,000 samples are tested in a year a very accurate method must be used.

The samples are dried before grinding and mixing. Then they are taken from the processing room to the testing laboratory. All equipment has been thoroughly cleaned and is in working order. The proper chemical, accurately measured, is added to a carefully measured amount of soil. This liquid is then put in an automatic shaker that insures that all samples have the same amount of mixing.
The liquid is then filtered out and made ready for the test. Such things as automatic pipettes and other accurate measuring instru-

Grain Storage Bin Loans From ASC Are Available

Farmers who intend to harvest grain this year for market should take inventory now of the space available on the farm for storage of this grain, the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) County Committee advises.

The storage of grain on the farm can mean money in farmers' pockets,
Mr. W. F. Hunger, ASC County
Chairman says. It is not too late to construct storage facilities for corn and soybeans.

Mr. Hunger said that there is a program available through ASC whereby farmers may get a loan covering up to 80 percent of the costs of storage bins, including grain conditioning equipment if part of the storage facility. Loans are repayable in four equal annual installments with 4 percent interest on the unpaid balance, the Chairman said.

The price of corn quoted in mid-April this year was 20 cents per bushel above the average price of corn on October 15, 1959. This means that farmers would realize around $200 more profit on 1,000 bushels of corn by selling in April than they would have by selling last October, which is nearly half the cost of a storage bin of that size.

Mr. Hunger urged farmers who are interested in storage bins to call at ASC county office immediately for full information.

Employer Report Forms Available At Labor Bureau

New employer report forms are available at the Washington Area
Office of the Bureau of Labor-Management Reports for use in reporting certain arrangements, payments and agreements as specified by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act.

Issued by Secretary of Labor
James P. Mitchell under provisions of the new Labor law, the report (Form LM-10) must show in detail the date and amount of each of certain specified payments, loans, promises, agreements, or arrangements, including the identity and address and position, if any, in any firm or labor organization of the person to whom it was made.

Abraham S. Friedman, Area Director in Washington, said the report forms must be filed as soon as possible by employers whose fiscal years have ended since September 14, 1959, and who are affected by the provisions of the Act.
Forms may be obtained from the Bureau's office at 532 Labor Loan
Building, Washington 25, D. C. Area Director Friedman said his office was ready to give assistance to anyone who had filed such a report.

BENNETT KEY CLUB LEADER

A 1960 graduate of Princess Anne High School will be one of 16 Key Club international officers and trustees participating in its 17th convention in Boston July 3-6.

Bryan L. Bennett, 17, of 1010 Pleasure House Rd., will attend as a trustee.

The Bayside youth represents the club in the Capital District of Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia and the Indiana District.

Key clubs are sponsored by Kiwanis International.

MAKES SAFE LANDING

Nursing a blown right wheel tire, a young Navy pilot eased his Crusader jet onto a cushion of foam for a safe landing at Oceana Air Station Monday.

Lt. Joseph D. Benton of Fighter Squadron 94 made the emergency landing shortly after taking off from the carrier Independence, 100 miles off the Virginia Capes.

During launching from the big carrier the 10,000-pound F8U blew its right tire. Benton was instructed to fly to Oceana Naval Air Station.

Benton, his wife Diana and their little daughter live at 208 Linkhorn Rd., Virginia Beach.

FINE DOLLAR FIFTY

Clarence John Belch, 28, arrested in a gambling raid Friday, fined $50 and received two weeks suspended jail term Monday in Police Court.

Virginia Beach and State Police raided a third floor apartment at the Oakleigh, 900 block of Atlantic avenue, Friday and arrested Belch at the telephone.

RETURNS HOME FOR SUMMER

Miss Alyce Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Savage, Jr., of Bladensburg, has returned home for the summer after attending the University of Miami in Florida.

She was accompanied home by Mr. Bruce Thomas, a graduate of the University of Miami, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Thomas of North English, Iowa.

Mr. Thomas is spending the summer in Europe and will attend the Olympics in Rome.

PAPER ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT CAVALIER

The Southeastern Paper Trade Association will open its three-day annual convention at The Cavalier Thursday, with golf and other entertainment dominating the program.

It is the 27th successive year the convention has been held at the hotel.

Attending from Norfolk will be J. Brooks Johnson, James F. Wilson, H. S. Givler, J. Warren White, Jr. and Alan J. White.

HEART ATTACK FATAL TO N. C. DENTIST

Dr. M. E. Herman, 54, of Enfield, N. C., was pronounced dead on arrival at 10:55 a. m. Tuesday at the Virginia Beach Hospital.

The North Carolina dentist apparently suffered a heart attack on the beach at 62nd street. He was taken to the hospital by the Virginia Beach rescue squad.

Dr. Herman and his wife were guests at a Virginia Beach cottage.

DECLINE TO TESTIFY

A 21-year-old woman charged with shoplifting declined to testify in Police Court Monday while her co-defendant, a man was present.

Detective J. J. Waterfield said Donna Marie Griffith, 21, of Bladensburg, Md., was "afraid of Marvin L. Best, 32, of Washington, D. C. Both were convicted of shoplifting in separate hearings.

The pair captured last Wednesday after they reportedly shoplifted more than $500 worth of merchandise from Virginia Beach stores.

While the woman talked with a clerk, the man would make off with watches, radios and other loot, police said.

Cavalier Change Noted in Deeds At Princess Anne

The scheduled change of ownership of the Cavalier properties here took place this week. The management remains the same as before.

Skinner Banks, who continues as president of the major corporation said the transfer has been made and deeds recorded in the Princess Anne Circuit Court of Deeds.

The amount involved was $2,250,000.

The Cavalier Jefferson Corp., of which Banks, F. E. Watkins of South Hill and Albert Suttle of Petersburg were the principals, formerly held title to the property.

Emerging corporations are the Cavalier Hotel Corp., of which Banks is president and Gene Dixon, Dillwyn, Va. mining operator is vice president, and the Southwest Development Co.

Appearing Here

Warren Hull, Virginia Beach resident, who is best known as "Mr. Strike It Rich" from national television fame, is scheduled to conduct the WNOR radio show from the Cavalier Beach and Cabana Club starting next Monday.

Hull will appear with the Tommy Gwaltney Trio daily from 10:00 to 11:00 a. m. and free tickets will be available at the door. The show will be broadcast each week day morning through the summer and is designed for local residents as well as visitors to the city.

YOUR CONGRESSMAN REPORTS

By Thomas M. Downing

We are now beginning the final, decisive days of the 86th Congress. And there is a significant amount of major legislation to be acted on before the adjournment — which is less than a month away.

Although there has been some talk of a return session in August most of us would prefer a heavy work schedule in the remaining few days and a simple adjournment.

The Cavalier Hotel Corp., of which Banks, F. E. Watkins of South Hill and Albert Suttle of Petersburg were the principals, formerly held title to the property.

Emerging corporations are the Cavalier Hotel Corp., of which Banks is president and Gene Dixon, Dillwyn, Va. mining operator is vice president, and the Southwest Development Co.

I personally do not believe that any useful purpose would be served by an extra session during a period that is normally reserved for re-election campaigning. Certainly, any legislation considered during a campaign period would be tinged with politics.

Actually, if we work hard during the remaining days of the 86th Congress, I believe we can act on all the basic legislation necessary for the effective operation of our government.

For all practical purposes, then, Saturday, July 9, is the deadline for the 86th Congress, because that day is the last day for the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles. (The Republican National Convention begins on July 25 in Chicago.) After the national conventions, both parties will begin campaigning.

As a historical note, you may be interested to know that Congress hasn't adjourned as early as July 9 for eight years. In 1932, adjournment took place on July 7, because — then too — Congress was trying to make a national convention.

In any event, we now have the task of considering a dozen major pieces of legislation in both Houses of Congress, and the approaching deadline makes it imperative that we accomplish this just as fast as the legislative process will allow.

The problem of an adequate national defense is of prime importance, and I expect Congress is going to appropriate additional funds for the Air Force to expand its missile and airborne alert programs. Also, I believe Congress will vote for an additional aircraft carrier and several more Polaris atomic submarines, because many members of Congress believe that our naval power needs strengthening.

In addition, I have every reason to expect that Congress will vote additional money for Army medical training, and I believe the Transportation Training Command at Fort Eustis is slated to receive a considerable sum for new headquarters buildings and a 10-building ventilation system.

Medical care legislation continues to be a major item for Congressional discussion, and the House Ways and Means Committee recently approved a limited subsidized medical care plan for the aged. The plan is called a "limited" plan because it provides subsidized care only for aged people who are unable to pay for their own care.

Many members of Congress believe that this is preferable to a compulsory medical care plan supported by taxes under the Social Security system. Such a compulsory plan, if passed, would almost certainly be stopped by a Presidential veto, whereas the House Committee's limited plan might be enacted this year if it passes both Houses of Congress.

While on the general subject of security, many of you have written to complain that 50 is too high an

Jaycee Golfers Play in County Meet Friday

Qualifying for the 15th International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament for residents of Princess Anne County is scheduled to take place over the Kempsville Meadows course on June 17. It has been announced by the Princess Anne Chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Entry blanks for the Princess Anne qualifying round are available at the Kempsville Meadows Golf Club. Winners of the local qualifying will be eligible to go to Staunton for the State Jaycee meet June 23-25.

The international meet is scheduled for the week of August 13 at the Gates Park Municipal course in Waterloo, Iowa.

DUSCH, McCOMBS RETURN TO COUNCIL

Voters here Tuesday, though small in numbers, overwhelmingly approved two bond issues and re-elected Mayor Frank Dusch and Vice-Mayor John W. McCombs to the city council to a new four-year term.

The two separate bond issues carried by almost three and one-half to one and Dusch and McCombs captured in excess of 500 votes.

Both councilmen were unopposed for re-election and one observer

noted that it was the first time in some 54 years that a council election produced no opposition.

Voting in the two bond issues was practically by the same margin. A vote of 345 for and 108 against was registered for the $200,000 general improvement issue.

The $440,000 bond issue which includes much sewage improvements was voted 345 for 98 against.

In the council election Mayor Dusch received 513 votes and McCombs 331 votes.

The $200,000 general improvement bond issue included five items:

48th street area storm drainage, $15,000.

Widening 17th street, Pacific to Arctic avenue, $10,000.

Billy McClanan III, Captures First Place in Jaycee Golf

Billy McClanan, III, showed the way to other golfers Tuesday as he carried off top honors in the 36 hole qualifying test for the State Jaycee Tournament at Staunton later this month. Young McClanan, a member of the Princess Anne Country Club, posted rounds of 75 and 76 for a 151 total over the 36 hole route.

The local medalist raced into a commanding lead on Monday with an opening round of 75, six over par for the Cavalier course where the qualifying tests was played. McClanan ran into trouble on the front nine of Tuesday's round, making the turn in 41, but he brought his fine game under control to come in with a one-over-par 35 for his winning 151 total.

Young Billy Kellam gave McClanan a run for the top spot Tuesday. After an opening 80 on Monday and the runner-up position. After 17 holes on Tuesday

Revenue Bonds

The $440,000 revenue producing bonds covered five items as follows:

Sewage in Southwest Shadow-lawn area, $67,000.

Sewage, Atlantic avenue, 20th street to 13th street, $77,000.

Sewage, 5th street to 2nd street and 48th street to 49th street, $40,000.

New sewage pumping station in Pine Acres, $25,000.

Water facilities including 16-inch water supply main through city, 6-inch distribution lines in Linkhorn Park, $30,000-gallon elevated tank, $25,000.

Both councilmen were unopposed for re-election and one observer

LT. COL. FUREY TO LEAVE

LT. Col. Lawrence M. Furey, USAR Test Project Officer at Fort Story, is scheduled to leave on June 15th for assignment in Ankara, Turkey.

Colonel Furey was commissioned in the reserves in 1938 and entered the Active Army in 1942. He served during World War II in the campaigns in New Guinea, Leyte and Luzon during 1944 and 1945. The Colonel was post commander at Demolition, Luzon, which was one of the first areas to experiment with the port dispersion method which is used by the Transportation Corps today. This method stresses dispersion of port facilities over a wide area to provide smaller targets for enemy bombers. During the Korean Conflict Col. Furey served with the 14th Terminal Battalion from 1950 to 1951, when it first used the unutilized loads theory of movement which is used today.

The colonel has received patents on several inventions. Colonel Furey has been at Fort Story for two years, and has served both as Assistant Chief of Training and as USAR Test Project Officer during that time. He lives on the post with his wife and two daughters.

WARREN HULL SHOW

The Warren Hull show from WNOR Radio station in Norfolk, was taped at the Fort Story Service Club last night.

The show, heard each weekday morning at 10:30 a. m., usually plays between various civic and military groups in the Tidewater Area. Featured on the show were the Rhythm Ramblers, a trio of guitarists from the 870th Transportation Company. The group included Roy Gussinger, the vocalist who also plays the Rhythm guitar; Edward Warren, electric lead guitar; and Bob Hall, electric rhythm guitar.

The regular cast of the show included Warren Hull, the star, and Bob Kalamere, the announcer. The WNOR trio consists of Tommy Gwaltney, Frank Lybalt and Newton Thomas. Cora Hillman was the vocalist.

Besides presenting music, Warren Hull spoke with members of Fort Story on the functions and the equipment of the post.

PORT STORY SCOUTS ELECT OFFICERS

This week the Fort Story Boy Scout Troop, 408, held a general election of officers. In the Flying Eagle Patrol, Fred Gaffney was elected Patrol Leader and Howard Marsh, Jr., Assistant Patrol Leader. The Flaming Arrow Patrol chose Morgan as Patrol Leader and Carl Chisom as Assistant Patrol Leader. Also elected was Dan Tooley, Troop Scribe and Gerald Patterson, Quartermaster. Eighteen boys of the troop recently qualified for the Tenderfoot badges. Troop meetings are held every Wednesday night at 7:30 in building 540 on Fort Story. Scoutmaster of the group is SFC Carroll Setzer.

Other news, M-Sgt. Harry Peterson, Institutions Representative for the Story Troop, attended the 50th Annual Meeting of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, held in Washington, D. C. Included at the gathering was a business meeting, luncheon and conferences on various scouting subjects.

ARMY TRANSPORTATION CHIEF VISITS TESTS AT STORY

Major Gen. Frank Seash, the Chief of Transportation, along with other Army and civilian officials was at Fort Story yesterday to observe a demonstration of new desert tires which permit better movement by vehicles operating in sand.

Vehicles and operators from the 48th Truck Group of Fort Eustis, were utilized in the tests of sand tire flotation. Col. M. J. Reichel, Commanding Officer of the 48th, introduced Capt. Allen Downey, Commanding Officer of the 596th Truck Company (Medium Truck), who was the narrator for the tests.

The first test took place on the beach off 11st Street on the post. Trucks with conventional tires at full and reduced pressure, with and without loads, rolled by the reviewing stand. Following them were similar loads using the desert tires. The comparison showed the desert tires operated much better. The demonstration then moved to the sand dunes off 26th Street, where the tests were repeated. Again similar results were shown as the sand trucks with desert tires passed those with the conventional tires.

Following a tour of the U. S. Navy's Harbor Entrance Control facilities at Fort Story, the general received an orientation of the Wave Attenuation test given by Maj. A. J. Childs, of the British Army.

JayCee Hawks 18, Pipers 0. Max Wiley pitched another shut-out game for the JC Hawks. Nice going, Max. Lane Agee also did a nice job catching for them.

The Pipers used four pitchers for this game and walked in several runs for the Hawks. Little Giants 5, Thunderbirds 4. The Little Giants won the first game of the season last Monday, with Johnny Ott pitching. Batchelor did a good job of catching as well as relief pitching for them. The Hawks started pitcher for the Thunderbirds, was relieved by Carl Bagby. Mike Bates did another good job of catching, and Mike Tripoli scored two of the four runs for the Thunderbirds.

Thursday's Game

Thunderbirds 19, J. C. Hawks 1. Carl Bagby pitched another nice game for the Thunderbirds, assisted by Johnny Miller catching. Hitting doubles for this team were Carl Bagby, Mike Bates and Dale Brady. Also Norman Grossgreut and Johnny Miller got some nice singles. Jim Ward performed mound chores for the Hawks with Lane Agee catching. Lane Agee got a nice hit and scored the only run for the Hawks.

Pipers 5, Little Giants 5. Jimmy Batchelor pitched a nice game for the Little Giants with Lennie Troutman catching. Also Willie Rice did a wonderful job as relief pitcher in the last inning. Hitting doubles for the Giants were Jimmy Batchelor, Johnny Ott and Willie Rice.

Terry Wherdos pitched a fine game for the Pipers with Kenneth Hill catching. Kenneth Stephen hit a nice double and two singles and Kenneth Hill got a nice two-bagger for his team.

Since this was a tie game and called due to the time limit, this game will be played to break the tie at a later date.

News for Veterans

For many years Virginia had a prohibition against remarriage following divorce, the so-called waiting period in most recent years being four months. It appears to have been the feeling of our legislature in the past that many couples would be reconciled if the law set up a mandatory cooling off period during which neither party to the divorce could remarry, except to each other, for four or six months after the final decree.

Finding evidence of few reconciliations during the prohibitory period, and finding also that remarriage during the waiting period has created real hardship upon veterans, their wives and widows and others, the 1960 Virginia General Assembly repealed the existing prohibition against remarriage during the four month period and undertook to validate marriages performed in violation of the prohibition.

On and after June 27, 1960, marriages celebrated in violation of such prohibition period shall not be deemed invalid, provided that the parties to the marriage have continued to reside together as man and wife until July 1, 1960, or until prior death of one of the parties. However, courts may still decree that neither party shall remarry, pending perfection of an appeal from a final divorce decree.

Because of this amendment to the Code of Virginia, veterans and widows and widows will soon be eligible for Veterans Administration and other benefits previously denied them solely because of remarriage before expiration of the waiting period.

The new pension law does not wipe out the present pension program. It offers a choice of remaining under the present system or coming under the new law which goes into effect July 1, 1960. And, contrary to popular belief, there is no change in the basic requirements. Under either law a veteran must have had a minimum of 90 days active wartime service or if less than 90 days, he must have been discharged for a disability incurred in line of duty; he must be found permanently incapable of following substantially gainful employment because of physical or mental disability; and his income may not exceed certain limits gauged on his dependency situation.

There are some veterans who may be eligible for a pension who do not seem entirely clear about the difference between pension and compensation. Compensation is a payment because of a disability connected to a veteran's military service. Pension is paid to a veteran on account of disability not connected with war service, which causes the veteran to be unemployed. Income has little or no bearing on compensation, but income is an important factor in eligibility for pensions.

The term "Maximum Hospital Benefits," or "MHB," as used by Veterans Administration hospitals, is apparently confusing to many veterans and their families. It is a common interpretation of the term that a person receiving such a discharge from a hospital has been cured of the illness for which he was admitted. This is not always true.

A Maximum Hospital Benefit discharge from a VA hospital simply means that the doctors feel that the veteran has improved to the point that he no longer requires a hospital bed, although he may still need nursing care or medical treatment on an out-patient basis by his private doctor.

The families of veterans sometimes feel that it is unfair to discharge a veteran who still needs nursing care. It should be remembered that our VA hospitals are for the purpose of treating patients who need active medical treatment in a hospital and that nursing care can be provided in a nursing home or in the veteran's own home. In order to free their beds for other veterans in need of active hospital treatment, the VA must discharge patients who are ready to be taken care of as out-patients. Such veterans, although not always cured, have received Maximum Hospital Benefits.

Beef Cattle Group To Convent in Charlottesville

CHARLOTTESVILLE — Beef Cattle Improvement Associations of Maryland and Virginia are joining with the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and the University of Virginia in sponsoring the fifth annual Performance Registry International Convention here June 16 and 17.

Cattlemen from many parts of the country are expected to Newcomb Hall on the University campus to hear addresses by leading researchers, and to conduct the business of the group. Registration begins June 15 at the Thomas Jefferson Inn, Charlottesville. The program starts the morning of June 16 in the main ball room of Newcomb Hall with a welcome by Dr. Edgar P. Shannon, Jr., president of the University, and the Honorable Parke C. Brinkley, State Commissioner of Agriculture.

Carlton Corbin, president of PRI, from Ada, Oklahoma, will discuss the objectives of the organization. Charles E. Bell, Jr., of the Animal Industry Branch, Federal Extension Service, Washington, will preside at a roundup of state BCIA's. Charles E. Coddling, Jr., cattleman from Oklahoma and Dr. R. C. Carter, of VPI, will discuss research findings. A tour of beef cattle farms in the Charlottesville area will be held in the afternoon. Professor G. W. Litton, head of the VPI animal husbandry department, will speak to the group at a Thursday evening banquet.

The group will hear reports on Friday morning on the present state of meats research and how this information can be used in a selection program, a discussion of ethics in performance testing, and a report on cooperation among state BCIA programs. Business sessions will end the convention shortly after lunch.

Over 150,000 motel rooms will be built within the next ten years.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

The Voters' Stamp of Approval

The voters of Virginia Beach, the small number who went to the polls Tuesday, gave their stamp of approval to two bond issues which will mean a great deal to the progress of Virginia Beach.

It would be understandable that there would be a small vote in the case of the re-election of Mayor Frank A. Dusch and Vice-Mayor John W. McCombs, both of whom were unopposed for new four year terms on the city council, but in the matter of the two bond issues that is a different story.

Those who did vote gave a wide margin of approval to the bond issues but it would seem that when the city embarks on such improvements and seeks to sell bonds in the amount of almost $1,000,000 that more voters would express themselves at the polls than was the case on Tuesday.

However, despite the apathy of many voters passage of the two bond issues means that many improvements, some long needed, can be made and Virginia Beach will continue to grow and prosper. It is still another step in the forward march of this city.

We congratulate Mayor Dusch and Councilman McCombs on being re-elected to the city council. Both have served the city well and their efforts in the past were clearly recognized when they were unopposed in this election.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

Handle Power Mowers With Care!

The Tulsa World
This is the season—between tornado funnels and deluges, that is—when lawn mowing interrupts the weekend tranquility of every home owner and becomes a dreaded chore. Every householder in every city, everywhere, has a lawn to mow and a machine to mow it. More and more of these machines are the power type—and herein lies the moral of this little tale: safety in lawn mowing.

If the experience of the past is a valid measuring stick, the casualty list of mowing victims this summer will counter-balance the roll call of wounded in a small war. Something like 70,000 home-owners will be injured in the next three months.

Left strewn upon many a lawn will be more than 50,000 toes and 18,000 fingers—most of them lying there because of stupid carelessness.

Too many of our backyard greenhumpers approach the power mower as they would a hoe or rake; they seem not to recognize the potential deadliness of these machines as maimers and killers. Of all the mowing "accidents" compiled last summer, fewer than 10 per cent of them could be attributed to mechanical mishaps; far indeed were the victims who could truthfully say they were "accidentally" injured.

Most mishaps were human in origin—leaving mowers unattended for others to blunder into, for instance; trying to mow at vertical angles, leaving others exposed to flying objects or misplaced toes and fingers; failure to police-up prior to mowing, and any other number of ridiculous but no less lethal blunders.

Virtually the same "rules of the road" apply for lawn mowing as for auto driving: pay attention to the job at hand and maintain alertness!

Ask the next 3-fingered character you meet how he got that way. Chances are he owns a power mower and learned how to operate it safely the hard way.

through V. H. Monette, who also arranged for the DiMaggio visit. Saturday will be devoted to demonstrations, competitions, and a pageant, depicting the start and growth of the Boy Scouts of America since the start in 1910. Members of the Little Creek Players will present the pageant.

Bands participating include Atlantic Fleet band, Philibant band, 50th Army band and the Naval Base Drum and Bugle Corp. Explorers will start their Field Day on Saturday. Many events have been planned.

Admiral W. K. Romoser is chairman of the Golden Anniversary Jubilee committee. Alex H. Bell is general chairman of the Camporee. Field Day Committee, Col. Banning heads the Camporee Committee and James W. Buffington of the Explorer Field Day committee. Col. Banning heads all units to register for the Camporee. A registration fee of $1 per Scout is required. Scoutmasters should register their units prior to noon, July 2, with Tidewater Council, Boy Scouts of America, 100 West Tazewell Street, Norfolk, Virginia.

Jubilee campers, all of them 12 years old or older, will share daily camp chores, cook their own meals, take part in displays, campfires, demonstrations, skill contests and intercamp contests during the three day event.

age minimum for people who are 100 per cent disabled and who have the required number of quarters. This important subject is presently receiving very serious consideration, and I am reasonably sure that the age minimum is going to be lowered in these particular and limited cases.

Another current legislative proposal of great importance to first district residents is a federal pay raise. Certainly, many of you have told me of your interest in this measure.

The 9 per cent raise bill will, I believe, come before the House under a "closed rule," which means that the bill cannot be amended. Therefore, the 9 per cent increase cannot be reduced, and President Eisenhower has already stated that he will veto any pay raise that exceeds 7 per cent. Regardless of whether the bill passes both Houses of Congress or not, a 9 per cent pay raise will very probably never become law.

However, the Senate has introduced a separate bill which provides for a 7 per cent pay raise for civilian Government employees. There is a possibility that this measure could pass both Houses of Congress this year.

Understandably, many of you have been writing to me about a proposal to continue excise taxes and a proposal to increase postal rates. As I have previously reported, Congress is unlikely to approve the Administration's request for increased postal rates.

But, the House of Representatives recently voted overwhelmingly to continue for another year the excise taxes on passenger travel by local telephone services and to continue the corporate surtax for another year.

Of course, all of these items were imposed as emergency wartime measures, and many people wanted them discontinued this year—particularly the excise taxes—but this was impossible. Again, this bill came to the floor under the closed rule, and while none of us like excise taxes—national income must equal national outgo. If it appears that we have a budget surplus at the end of 1961, I believe we should seriously consider eliminating excise taxes at that time.

These are only a few of the measures that must be completed in the few remaining days of the 86th Congress. However, this is

Your Social Security

By EARL W. THINKLE
Field Representative

If you are paying social security tax, you are paying for valuable insurance protection for yourself and your family. Are you getting what you pay for?

"Do you know, for instance, that a person reaching retirement age now must have credit for at least 40 years of work under social security to receive retirement payments. Younger workers will need up to 10 years of social security credit. The amount of benefits payable in the future to you and your dependents, or to your survivors, will be determined by the record of your earnings that is kept by the Social Security Administration. It is your responsibility to see that this record is complete.

You can do this by being sure that your employer copies your social security number correctly. If you are self-employed and file your own report, be sure your report is correct. If you are currently on the report form for you, if you change your name by marriage or otherwise, report this change to your social security office.

These simple precautions will prevent most errors but there is only one way you can be sure that the record is complete. This one sure way is to ask the Social Security Administration for a statement of your earnings record.

Your social security office will furnish you with a simple pre-addressed postcard form for this purpose. This form can be secured by telephone, by mail, or by a personal visit to the office. Do this at least once every three years, because it is difficult, and in many cases, impossible to correct reporting errors that were made more than three years ago.

You will probably find that your record is complete and accurate. If it is not, call the error to the attention of your social security office promptly. In this way, you can be sure you are getting what you paid for under the social security law.

An election year, and members of Congress are anxious to adjourn before the national conventions, so you can expect that all of us will be working long and hard to complete action on as many measures as possible in the shortest possible time.

100th Birthday Of Pony Express To Be Honored

Dozens of major celebrations will be held in the West next month to honor the 100th anniversary of the Pony Express.

The Post Office Department has been advised of plans by many groups for pageants, parades and commemorative events to be held in July in conjunction with its Pony Express stamp and stamped envelope to be issued July 19.

The stamp honoring the Pony Express Centennial this year will go on sale July 19, at Sacramento, California, and the envelope—one of the few commemorative stamped envelopes ever issued by the Post Office Department—will go on sale the same day at St. Joseph, Missouri.

Also on July 19, the Department has been advised by the National Pony Express Centennial Association that the Association will attempt a "full-scale" reenactment of the Pony Express of 100 years ago.

Plans are to start simultaneously from St. Joseph and Sacramento on July 19 to cover the approximate 1,900 mile route completed by horse relay, without any stops except to change horses and riders. Approximately 1,000 riders and 1,000 horses are expected to participate together in the double cross-country day and night runs.

Babe Ruth League News

The 1960 Babe Ruth baseball season got underway with an exhibition game between the Virginia Beach All Stars and Topsiders of Arlington. The game, a free scoring affair, afforded the Beach boys some sorely needed practice with the final score in favor of the visitors 12 to 9.

The all stars, headed by John Hauser, Everett Jordan, Yanks coach, played good ball considering lack of opportunity to practice before the game. Coach Hauser played every man on the team and many of the younger boys from Little League showed real promise. All indications point toward an interesting season with all four teams on an equal basis so far as talent is concerned.

This fact was evidenced Monday night when the Everett Jordan Yanks and Coates Motor Co. Valiants opened the season with a hard fought game. Coach Hauser's Yanks fought off a determined 7th inning lead by Coach Bob Fanneley's Valiants to win by the score of 7 to 6.

Again it was a combination of young boys and several veterans which made up a very thrilling ball game. Joe Potter 13-year-old Valiants pitcher held the Yanks to 3 hits while Mike Currie with help from Harry Durbin allowed only 4 hits. Other standouts among the young boys were Ricky Fuller, Valiant Catcher and Bill McKelvin, catcher for the Yanks. Jim Cannon with 2 hits, Bill Mercer and Charlie Ansell with one each supplied the power for the Yanks. Bill Crosby and Ricky Fuller were the big guns for the Valiants.

The game was well attended by parents and friends of the teams, which is very gratifying to all participants. League officials are very hopeful that attendance will continue to improve. Every inter-district person is invited to come out and watch some very excellent baseball at the High School athletic field.

Local Man Is Named By Oil Heat Dealers

Thomas S. Ellis, Jr., of Virginia Beach has been appointed to the newly-created position of Executive Vice-President of the Tidewater Oil Heat Association.

Ellis was selected by the association's board of directors to succeed the late C. A. Mowry who had filled the position of Executive Secretary on a part-time basis.

Upon the appointment of the new executive, the association moved its offices to 5000 Colley Avenue.

Mr. Ellis, a veteran in the petroleum marketing field, will be the first full-time employee of the fuel oil dealers' group. His duties will consist of membership and market development for the association.

Announcement of Mr. Ellis' appointment was made by Vincent J. Thomas, newly-elected president of TOHA.

Specialist and later marketing executive with Union Oil Company since his resignation to form the Ellis Oil Company in Princess Anne County in 1956. He was the California firm's district manager in El Salvador in 1949 and in 1950 headed the company's Latin American operations from the home office in California.

Don't Spray Flies On Shrubbery

Don't rush out and spray the flies that you see stuck to your shrubbery, the Virginia Department of Agriculture said.

What you see are probably the adults of the seed corn maggot, and they can do no harm to your greenery. They are usually dead when you first notice them anyway, having been killed by a fungus disease which is a natural enemy of the fly.

They are a greyish-brown color and look like the common house fly, only a little smaller.

The seed corn maggot is the real villain that causes the trouble—not the adult fly that you see on your shrubbery. The female adult will lay her eggs in the soil of a newly planted corn field. The eggs then hatch into maggots and burrow into the soil where they get into the corn seed. They can greatly hinder the germination of the seed and in some cases, stop it completely.

Some years the seed corn maggot destroys so much corn on some Virginia farms that whole fields have to be re-planted. Many farmers are now using treated seed to control the pest.

By DAN HALLIGAN

(Ed. note: Dan Halligan will be glad to answer questions submitted by teen-agers and children. Send them to him at Box 130, Williston, N. D. For personal replies, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.)

Dear Teen-Agers (and Parents): Right now many cities and towns are beautifying themselves with fire departments, school groups, Boy Scouts and civic and service organizations cleaning up vacant lots, pulling old election posters from utility poles and vacant buildings, checking for fire hazards and in general, trying to make their communities as attractive and safe as possible. These clean-up campaigns are always very commendable but what about the trash and garbage all communities ignore from year to year? The belief is that if you close your eyes you won't see it, and if you can't see it then it just isn't there. I'm referring to the smut and filth being shown in your local theaters and sold at your local newsstands and markets.

Your parents, if you haven't taken the time lately to check the magazines and pocketbooks being sold in your neighborhood, check at the store sometime soon. Just because publishing firms use quality paper and put a 50-cent price tag on some magazines doesn't necessarily make them "quality" magazines. All you've got to do is open up those magazines and more often than not you'll see young models, sometimes naked from the waist up and usually in color. The cheaper magazines, and by "cheaper" I mean less expensive usually don't feature bare-bosomed models but think they keep with in the realm of decency by using wisps of cloth or the position of the model's arm.

These magazines aren't sold "under the counter" but are in plain sight on the racks for all young eyes to feast on.

Your "true confession" magazines, especially those teen "true confessions," represent the bottom of the literary barrel. Mothers, read one of these magazines sometime and see what you think.

The magazines I'm referring to aren't in small numbers either. Your dealer's racks are glutted with them and don't let him tell you he has to take such magazines in order to get "quality" magazines from his distributor—he does not.

Just for further education, select 20 pocketbooks at random. Note the half-naked blonde, her bathing suit or gown cut to her waist, usually with a gun in her hand, featured on many of the 20 covers. Of course, with pocketbooks, the cover doesn't necessarily tell the story but a good-looking half-naked girl will draw attention even if she is just a picture on the outside of a pocketbook. Regardless of the cover, the pure smut pocketbook leaves nothing to the imagination in its story. The filthy words are right there in black and white.

Publishers haven't overlooked the younger element either. Note the

Harrell's Pharmacy Closes Mayflower Apartments Store

Harrell's Pharmacy in the Mayflower Apartment building at 34th street and Atlantic avenue is closing this week but the two other Harrell stores in Virginia Beach will continue in operation, it was announced by Wiley C. Harrell, owner of the drug store chain.

"We plan to open a new Harrell's store in the Lynnhaven Shopping Center on Shore Drive very shortly," Harrell said. "We would like to take this opportunity to thank our many friends and customers whom we had the pleasure of serving from our Mayflower store for the past ten years," he added.

The prescription department of the Mayflower store was moved to Harrell's 31st street store several weeks ago, it was pointed out. The second Harrell's store in Virginia Beach and the original one is located at 19th street and Atlantic avenue.

Opening date for the new store in the Lynnhaven Shopping Center has not been set but it is expected to open within the next few weeks.

American Little League News

by LIL ENTSMINGER

Clearing skies brought out the fans to watch the American Little League get in two regular games plus one make-up game this past week.

On Tuesday, June 7th, the Rotarians and the Sports met head-on in a bang-up game with the Rotarians slugging out an 18 to 6 victory. Lee Entsminger was the winning pitcher for the Rotarians and Joe Duffy, of the Sports, was charged with the loss. The Sports used three pitchers, including Brock Childress and Herb Potter but could not find the handle on the ball, committing five errors and allowing ten hits to put the Rotarians out front.

In the second game between the Cubs and the Tigers, the Cubs managed to squeeze five hits off Bill Mayo for two runs while the Tigers could only tap John Potter for four hits and one run. This was a tense, well played game showing evidence of some fine coaching for both teams.

On June 10th, the Cubs and the Tigers collided again, but the story was somewhat different as the Cubs pounded the Tigers to the tune of 14 to 1. Will Pugh getting credit for the win while Billy Newton was charged with the loss.

In the 7:30 spot, an exciting and tense game took place between the Sports and the Rotarians with the game going down to the wire. The Sports were leading 10 to 8 at the bottom of the fifth inning. Bob Godman walked and Mike Waller's hit was mishandled, putting two men on. Lee Entsminger, pinch-hitting for Rotarian Pitcher, Cus Dobbs, got a clean double, going to third on an error and driving in the tying runs. With one out, Dean Entsminger lined out a single, bringing in the Rotarians' winning run to end the ball game. Bob Godman knocked a homer in the 4th inning to fire up his teammates.

On June 11th, the Sports and the Cubs squared off to play a fine and close game with the Cubs edging the "Lucky" Sports 8 to 7. Mike Hallock drove one over the fence to bring in his teammates, Mark Lovington, providing the highlight of this game. Greg Cayce pitched a nice game but was charged with the loss while Arch McDowell got credit for the win for the Cubs.

In the second of Saturday night's games, the Tigers blasted the Rotarians to the tune of 11 to 1. Mike Keville placed one out of the park for the Tigers in the second inning with no one on and Steve Mandy, Rotarians, duplicated this slugging by putting one over the center field fence with the bases empty. Chip McQuilkin, Tiger pitcher, faced 21 batters, striking out ten and allowing only three hits to keep the Rotarians bottled up. Bob Godman was the losing pitcher for the Rotarians. This was Bob's last game with the local League as he with his parents, Comdr. and Mrs. Godman and family, are moving to California. A Little League Certificate was presented to Bob by League President, Dallas Entsminger, prior to the games start. Good luck in your future baseball effort, Bob!

June 19th to 19th has been declared National Little League Week by President Eisenhower. To help pay for the new uniforms and other equipment, everyone is urged to support Little Leaguers in uniform and the purchase of Little League deals for your windows, cars, doors, or whatever you. Please Buy and support your teams.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

Summer Play Program Set to Open Friday

Oceana — Opening day for the summer playgrounds of Princess Anne County is June 20th. Morning and afternoon sessions will be held daily, Monday through Friday, from 8 a. m. to 12 p. m. and 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. Thirteen playgrounds will be in operation, located at the following elementary schools: Aragona Village, Bayside, Courthouse, Creeks, Oceana, Shelton Park, Thalis, Woodstock, Princess Anne Training School, Seaside, Kempsville Junior High and Blackwater Fire Department. In preparation for opening day, all playground workers will attend a Playground Institute to be held at Oceana Elementary School, June 16 and 17. Here the workers will be introduced to the administrative procedures and to the activities of a well rounded summer program. These activities include sports, games, nature study, story telling, picnics, arts and crafts, tournaments and contests, singing, dramatics, dancing and special events.

The key-note for the Playground Institute will be B. H. Owens, Assistant Superintendent for the Princess Anne County Schools.

Atlantic Speedway Sets Special Events Saturday Night

This Saturday night has been quoted the biggest event yet. There will be a B C class Karts and a big field of Micro Midgits. Pewee Mason has built a new car with a water cooled boat motor. It's expected to turn the 1/10 mile asphalt track 8 seconds. The standard time record is 9 point 2 seconds at the Atlantic Speedway 17th Street Ext. Plenty of free parking. Admission adults $1.00 children 50c. For a three hour show over 200 laps of racing. Time trials start at 7:30, racing at 8:30.

Mrs. Grace B. Perkinson will teach typing and is offering short hand this year. During the past year Mrs. Perkinson has taught at Country Day School.

Ronald Davis, who received an Honors Degree M. A. from the University of Wales in Cardiff, Wales, has devoted his life to the teaching of Latin. He taught in the secondary schools in England, and was for ten years at the Nichols School for Boys of Buffalo, New York. For the past year he has taught at the Virginia Beach High School.

The purpose of the course is to increase reading speed and comprehension.

Scouts are welcome at Country Day Summer School and summer visitors are invited to take advantage of these classes. Another unique feature of the school is that most of the students bring their own suits, and go for a swim after class.

Registration for summer school will be on June 30th. For further information telephone GA 8-2714.

Summer Tutoring Classes Set at Country Day School

During the months of July and August, the Country Day School, 3003 Atlantic Avenue, Virginia Beach, will again operate its informal summer tutoring school. The school is planned according to a system of supply and demand, accommodating teachers who want to teach, and students who want to study or do constructive summer work.

Summer school hours are from 8 a. m. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, except development reading, which will be five days a week from 9 to 11. Subjects offered in addition to developmental reading include: English grammar, literature, history, French, typing, shorthand, mathematics, Latin and creative writing (or composition).

Mrs. Charles M. Lovitt, Headmistress of Country Day School, will teach French. Mrs. Lovitt graduated from Randolph-Macon Woman's College, and studied at the University of Nancy and at the Sorbonne.

Mrs. C. R. Masterson will teach English. She is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, and has been teaching for many years. She is also a member of the National Education Association.

Mrs. Grace B. Perkinson will teach typing and is offering short hand this year. During the past year Mrs. Perkinson has taught at Country Day School.

Barber Shop Group To Sing Here Saturday Night

NORFOLK, June 13—The Merimac Chapter chorus of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America placed third in the Southern section of the mid-Atlantic District chorus contest held Sunday at Solomons Heights, Virginia.

The thirty voice group from Norfolk is now entitled to compete in the District Championship to be held at Atlantic City in September. The winner there will represent the District at the International Contest at Boston next June.

Eleven choruses from Virginia and Maryland competed. Judging was done by Society members from other Districts.

The chorus and four quartets will perform at the Convention Dine at Virginia Beach next Saturday evening. Tickets for this concert are on sale by members and by the Virginia Beach Police.

Beach K of C Elects Officers

The Virginia Beach K of C Council No. 4632 held an election recently for the officers that will lead the council on to new horizons during the coming year.

Heading the Council will be Grand Knight, Edward Farley, of the National Cash Register Co., Norfolk Div. The Deputy Grand Knight is Tony Thomas, Chancellor — Lou Milano and Warden — Joe Benkert, which 4 make up the "Chair Officers" that must guide the council in all its activities.

Others elected were Recording Secretary—Bob McKenna, Treasurer—Joseph Garra, Advocate — Joseph Gawrys, Inside Guard — Pete Dondero, Outside Guard—Fred Meyers and two Trustees—Robert C. Moore and Edwin Kane. Charter Chaplain, Rev. N. J. Habets, Pastor of Star of the Sea Parish, will continue on as the Worthy Chaplain.

Beginning this month, in honor of Flag Day on June 14th, the day in 1777, when our country's flag was adopted; the Council is going to start out on a Flag Day Drive to bolster the building fund, by selling the new 50 star flags. They cannot be displayed until after the 4th of July, but if you need a flag, contact Brother Vic Southerness at GA 8-4077, Chairman of the flag drive.

The average annual disposable income of an American family is $5,300.

CHEVROLET
OUT WHERE THE COUNTRY CAN TEAR A TRUCK TO PIECES—
Chevy middleweights get 1/3 more work done in a day!
Where they used to deliver 2,300 gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in other trucks, Petrolane Gas Service of Long Beach, California, can now deliver 3,500 gallons a day! That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride pacing every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jolting on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sideway on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 300 Chevrolets hauling for them.
If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.

Dad's Delight—Steak

Out of the kitchen and into the dining room comes the best gift Dad could wish for on Father's Day. It's done to perfection, juicy Porterhouse steak, right out of the broiler and placed before the guest of honor, Dad.There's never a dull appetite around the house when steak is scheduled for the menu.June 19th is Father's Day — Steak. I am sure is high on the list of Dad's favorites, so honor him on his day with his choice, perhaps sirloin, club or porter-house.Club steaks are a convenient meat cut for a Father's Day treat since each is usually considered an individual serving. Porterhouse and T-bone steaks are suitable for serving 2 to 3 persons, and a sirloin steak is adequate for 4 to 6 persons depending on the thickness.

Broiling Produces Juiciness

The words "steaks" and "broil-ing" are almost synonymous. Poterhouse, club, T-bone, tenderloin and other tender steaks cut from 1 to 1 1/2 inch thick may be pan-broiled.
But the steaks cut from 1 to 2 inches thick are usually broiled.In either case the procedure employed is a dry heat method of meat cooking.Whether you like steaks rare, medium or well-done, the doneness depends on the length of cooking time.
To broil a steak cut 1 to 2 inches thick, simply set your range regulator to broil and place the steak on the broiler rack so the top of a 1-inch steak is 2 inches from the heat and a 2-inch steak is 3 inches from the heat. When one side is browned, season with salt and pepper, turn and finish cooking on the second side.Steaks cut 1 inch thick require 15 to 20 minutes for rare steak and 20 to 25 minutes for medium-done steak. Steaks cut 2 inches thick will need 30 to 35 minutes for rare steak and 35 to 45 minutes for medium-done steak.If Dad prefers a Road-plan to have that — whether it's beef — lamb — pork or veal, either one will delight the entire family.
If there should be some leftover a meat summer salad would taste mighty good. Let's call it Surprise Salad. Even Dad will say
"yes" to this luncheon salad.

Surprise Salad
2 cups julienned-style cooked meat
1 cup cooked peas, drained.
1 cup coarsely grated carrots.
1 cup diced celery.
1 cup French dressing.
4 lettuce cups Mayonnaise.
Marinate vegetables in dressing
meat.

work at the church, Miss Hill will serve as secretary to the pastor,
H. Wadell Waters. The present church secretary, Mrs. Mabel Skipper, will then devote most of her time to the promotion and records of the financial program of the church and inaugurate an ambitious program of every member enlistment.

for 15 minutes. Drain. Add 1 cup meat. Serve mixture in lettuce cups. Top with remaining strips of meat. Serve with mayonnaise.
Yield: 4 servings.

Hair is of primary importance because people seem to notice it first. It will either add to your appearance or detract from it. Your hair can be arranged to make you seem taller, shorter or even slimmer. You can see that a becoming hair style is essential. It can and will have the lustre it deserves with the proper care. Don't be afraid to wear out your present hairbrush.

Chances are that the faster you wear out a hairbrush the more attractive your hair will be. However, if your hair lacks the lustre it should have, its time for hair conditioning and scalp treatment.

sufficient unto the day

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor in the world for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Are you a worry expert?
Some people gather up all the worries of the past and combine them with the anxieties of the future. These they add to the burdens of the present - a huge bundle indeed.
What a difference it would make in their peace and happiness if they could take each day as it comes.
Jesus said, "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." He not only taught but He lived this lesson. Toil and misunderstanding filled the days of His ministry. Yet He met each one with calm assurance. Forgetting the past, He faced each tomorrow with inward peace.
This peace He willed to His followers through all the ages. Come to church and learn how to make this heritage your own.

LAKEVIEW SHORES

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Lakeview Shores Woman's Club met May 28th at 8:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. M. F. Jordan, on Shamrock Avenue.

Mrs. W. A. Atwater, fire inspector, spoke on boating and water safety.

Plans were made for the "Back to School Fashion Show" which will be held in the fall. Mrs. J. T. Barnes is chairman. The show will be staged by the J. C. Penney Company.

Plans were tentatively made for the club's annual picnic. Mrs. Robert Tyer was appointed chairman of this event.

The club will honor their husbands at a "Fathers' Night" banquet which will be held June 17th. Mrs. Thomas Kilmurray is chairman of arrangements.

The club voted to make another "Doll House" this coming year. Work will begin on this project in September.

RAYSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

The Bayside Baptist Church will hold their annual Vacation Bible School June 13-19 each morning from 9 until 12:00 noon for children between the ages of 3 through 15.

Saturday, June 18 the Annual Sunday School Picnic will be held at the "Y" Beach. All of the Vacation Bible School boys and girls will be there as part of their Bible School. Their parents are invited too. Members of the Sunday School or Church will also attend. Swimming, horseshoe pitching, ball playing, races, etc. will be enjoyed by all. The meal will be served at 5:00 P. M. and each family will bring their own food.

According to the pastor, Rev. J. Y. DeFoe the picnic will be held Rain or Shine. If it rains, it will be held at the church. Mr. Lonnie Bowden is general chairman of the picnic.

Sunday, June 19, The Bible School Commencement will be held at 8:00 p. m. at the church.

Tuesday, June 21, at 1:30 p. m. the Elizabeth Hale Circle will meet at the church. The Nanie Bland David Circle will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

Wednesday, June 22 at 7:00 p. m. the Sunday School Workers Conference will be held at the church. The conference is composed of general officers, teachers and class presidents.

SUNRISE GARDEN CLUB MEETS

The Sunrise Garden Club met June 7 at 1:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. H. R. Whitehead, 6449 Sunrise Drive.

Lunch was served and scheduled for the fall meetings were set up.

Mrs. Whitehead was the recipient of two blue ribbons for horticulture and arrangements for the year.

The club adjourned to meet again in the fall.

OCEAN PARK CIVIC LEAGUE MEETS

The delivery of street signs for the Ocean Park area was the leading topic of discussion at the monthly meeting of the Ocean Park Civic League held June 2, 1960 at 8:00 p. m. at the Civic Center on Stratford Road.

B. C. Baker, president, presided at the meeting.

The 30 street signs which were delivered Saturday morning, will be erected and painted in the near future.

This was one of the various projects of the Civic League this year. The League was assisted by the Ocean Park Woman's Club and members of the Home Demonstration Club.

The committee for the street signs were: Michael Henry, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Medlock, copresident; B. C. Barker and Mrs. Robert Holloman.

Mrs. Raymond Medlock was appointed to investigate the possibility of opening certain streets in the Ocean Park area and the drainage in certain areas of the community.

It was announced that in the last fifteen years there has been at least 75 feet of erosion on the beach in the area and in event of another hurricane of any force the beach frontal real estate would be in jeopardy. Along some areas of the beach 100 feet of erosion would remove present sand hills which act as a barrier from the elements. The removal of these hills would contribute to the changing of the fresh water lakes in the area to salt water lakes.

The assembly was advised by a communication to the Board of Supervisors, that over $1,000,000 of real property is being jeopardized by the fact the original survey of the Ocean Park area has never been filed in the Court House. Every lot and street in Ocean Park is set at an angle and the key check points and angles are not now on file in the Court House. If anything was to happen to the original surveyor, who is aged, this data may not be available and further surveys would be extremely difficult, nor could verification be made of those individual surveys which have been carried out with the original surveyors aid. Assurance was given the league by the Board of Supervisors that an investigation would be conducted and the matter looked into.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Michael Henry and Mrs. Fred King, Jr.

RAYSIDE AREA TEENS DANCE AT OCEAN PARK

Teenagers of Bayside and surrounding communities are invited by the Teen Age Club of Ocean Park to dance with them on the first and third Friday of each month from 7:30 until 10:30 p. m. at the Ocean Park Volunteer Fire Department.

The next dance will be Friday night, June 17.

Membership applications may be obtained at the door on the evenings of the dances for those who wish to join the club.

A donation of 50c for membership and 35c weekly admission is asked.

Music for the dances is on records.

OCEAN PARK TEEN CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The following officers were elected at the Ocean Park Teen Club dance which was held Friday night, June 3.

President, Ronnie Sepe; vice president, Roger Copeland; secretary, Cookie Rae; treasurer, Lanita Brickhouse.

The dance was held at the Ocean Park Volunteer Fire Department.

CHURCH HONORS GRADUATES

Miss Joyce Pavey and Master Linwood Strickland, Princess Anne High School graduates of the Ocean Park area were honored at a "Cook Out" June 10 at 6:00 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Holloman, DuPont Circle, Ocean Park.

The Cook out was given by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Ocean Park Community Church for the Young Peoples Department of the church.

Mrs. Robert G. Holloman was the chairman.

By F. R. "DICK" COCKELL, JR.

LISTEN TO YOUR COUNTY AGENT
8:30 THURSDAYS, 12:10 SATURDAYS, STATION WTAR

The will of the wealthy but eccentric man was being read and the relatives all listened expectantly. Finally the lawyer said: "And to my nephew, Charlie Jones, whom I promised to remember — 'Hi, there, Charlie!'"

PRINCCESS ANNE WOOL

You have heard me discuss many times the necessity of producers doing a better job of marketing lamb and wool, in order to receive the highest price for the income from the sheep on your farm.

Today is the day for the special wool pool for Princess Anne sheep producers. If you have not delivered your wool to Alvah Jones' farm, Fertilizer and Seed Company, then please do so by 7:30 to night.

Many people have asked how the wool pool operates, and this is basically it:

A Southeastern Virginia Wool Marketing Organization has been set up to market your wool for you. The marketing organization gets an estimate of the number of pounds of wool to be sold from each county participating in the organization. Princess Anne County is only one of many. This estimated total poundage is put out for bids by grades to all major wool mills and is accepted.

After the high bid has been accepted, individual county pools go into operation, to gather the wool together on a county basis. For instance, our county pool is today, and we will deliver Princess Anne wool in one lump to the Southeastern pool tomorrow.

When the Princess Anne wool arrives at the Southeastern pool, each producer's wool is weighed by the organization, and graded by the buyer. You are paid full price for your wool by mail a few days later. You will also receive a statement of pounds by grade.

So it is very simple for you to take advantage of organized marketing in a big way. All you have to do is to bring your wool to Alvah Jones' this afternoon. Put your name and address on each bag.

If you can't come, you are invited to go to Franklin to inspect the procedure of the wool pool, and to watch your own wool weighed and graded. I am sure that you will agree with me, that this is a good marketing organization, working in your behalf.

Again, we say, you have received the price list of wool by grades, and if you can't beat that, then we would certainly suggest the wool pool.

PRINCCESS ANNE COUNTY'S SOIL SURVEY

How would you like to know the kind of soil that you have in your lawn, or on your farm, and its best possible use?

We have available, for you, a soil survey of Princess Anne County. This bulletin describes each soil that we have in the County, regardless of where you live, and gives descriptions of these soils, so that you will certainly know what you have and how you can best use this soil for the best results.

If you would like to have a copy of this soil survey, just send a postcard to me, requesting the Princess Anne County Soil Survey, and we will return it to you.

JUNE DAIRY MONTH

There are a lot of folks for June being Dairy Month. Most folks are aware that June is Dairy Month, but few know why.

One of the reasons is grass. This is the season when grass, the natural food for cows, is at its best. It stimulates production of rich, creamy milk and lots of it. But, also, this is the season that schools let out, and families take off on vacation. Consumption of milk takes a nose-dive, temporarily. These are two of the reasons that June has been selected as Dairy Month. Dairy Month, though, should be considered as more than just an attempt to boost consumption at a time of high production. It is a time when the public should realize the contribution of the dairy industry in providing a superior product at reasonable prices.

Modern technology has enabled dairy farms and plants to sell their products to the consumer, so that today, he can buy twice as much milk from the income of one hour's work than he could in 1920. Milk is one of the cheapest sources of food nutrients.

During June, consumers should remember the contribution of the dairy industry to the public welfare, and the cow has played a role in the history of man. The dairy cow is the foster mother of the human race.

D.H.I.A. MEANS IMPROVEMENT

How many folks do you know that put off joining a Dairy Herd Improvement Association year after year, while they wait for their herd to get good enough?

Some men have the mistaken idea that the D.H.I.A. Program is designed just to give public recognition to high producing herds. Nothing could be further from the truth. The key word in D.H.I.A. is "improvement." Every herd, large or small, good or poor, can be improved by the proper use of production records.

Proper use of Dairy record keeping results in more income from every dollar spent for feed and more net income. Culling the unprofitable cows and feeding the rest, according to research recommendations, really pays off.

You can start your herd down the road of herd improvement by enrolling in the D.H.I.A. or Owner-Sampler program now in operation in Princess Anne County. It is possible to make dairymen pay, the record way.

Stop by the office the next time that you are in Princess Anne, and let's talk about the program that suits you best, and how you can enroll.

COOL HOGS, COOL CASH

Cool hogs mean cool cash in the pockets of the grower. Hogs make the most efficient gains when the temperature is near 60 degrees. At 90 degrees, they are placed under stress, and will only maintain body weight. Feed intake will be reduced, and feed conversion and carcass quality will cut severely.

When the temperature rises above 100 degrees, hogs may lose as much as two pounds each day. Death losses will occur more often when temperature conditions are extreme.

Hogs cool themselves by wallowing in contact with cool surfaces and through their lungs. Apply water to the floor, or directly on the hog's body is an effective means of cooling. A continuous fine mist hog spray has been used successfully by many hog feeders.

For maximum cooling, the floor should be kept wet. A sprinkling system can be made automatic by an addition of a thermostat to turn it on when temperatures reach a certain level, and with a circle timer, to set the length of cycle. This is an inexpensive installation, and will give effective results.

In feeding trials, it has been found that hogs will gain from 3:10 to 4:10 of a pound more per day where they have some cooling device, such as sprinklers or even a wallow.

Parasites take their heaviest toll during summer months. Growers should worm hogs regularly to cut down on loss from parasites. Sanitation is of extreme importance in the summer. Growers feeding hogs on pasture should practice a rotation system in order to keep the animals as free as possible from parasites.

FUTURE BRIGHT FOR AGRICULTURE STUDENTS

An estimated 15,000 jobs are awaiting June Agricultural graduates, offering a variety of challenging careers in modern farming, science, research, sales, services, education, journalism, and marketing.

State 4-H officials at VPI say some of these jobs will be filled by former 4-H members who work with club projects helped them decide on an agricultural career.

The million farm youths now enrolled in the 4-H agricultural program already are benefitting from special training in crops, soil conservation, entomology, livestock production, forestry, tractor operation, and so on.

Last year, six outstanding young men, who successfully completed agricultural projects were awarded with $400 scholarships to start them on a college education. The scholarships, provided International Harvester, will be offered again to the 1960 national champion.

Other incentive awards are expensive paid trips to the national 4-H Congress in Chicago early next December, and medals of honor. Winners of the trips will be announced during the State 4-H Club Short Course at VPI, June 27th, through July 3rd, along with other winners in 4-H Club work.

Club members enrolled in the agricultural program are between 16 and 21 years old. To be eligible for a state or national award, the 4-H'er must have successfully completed at least three years of club work and be over 14 years old.

FAILURE TO CONTROL ALFALFA WEEVIL TRACED TO COVERAGE

Failure in some areas to control the alfalfa weevil with malathion and methoxychlor sprays has been traced to inadequate coverage.

In most cases of failure, growers have used low gallonage weed type spray nozzles, delivering only 10 to 15 gallons of spray per acre. It is necessary to apply at least 30 gallons of spray, containing the proper amount of the insecticide per acre, to get absolute satisfactory control.

When alfalfa growers have double trouble with the weevil, and with the pea aphid, we suggest a malathion spray. If, on the other hand, there is trouble with another insect combination, such as the weevil and the spittlebug, methoxychlor is a better choice.

California, Florida and Michigan have over 20,000 of the 60,000 models in the U. S. say Quality Courts President Tommy Tucker.

Hull Show in Debut at Local Beachfront Club

Beginning Monday, June 20th WNOR's popular "Warren Hull Show" moved to the Cavalier Beach and Cabana Club for 8 weeks of its broadcasting. It is scheduled from 10:30 to 11:30 each day Monday thru Friday at the Cavalier Beach Club. The public is invited and tickets are available at the door of the entrance and at leading hotels and motels in Virginia Beach at no charge.

Warren Hull, for nine years emcee of "Strike It Rich" on the CBS network, joined WNOR in January as Vice-President and originated his own show in February broadcasting from the Monticello Hotel. There it drew capacity crowds.

According to WNOR, it was felt that moving the show to The Cavalier Beach Club, would give tourists and residents of the Virginia Beach - Princess Anne area a chance to see a name personality of TV and radio produce a show with a format similar to Don McNeill's Breakfast Club on ABC network. Warren Hull has been guest emcee of this show in Chicago for the past week.

Of network calibre, "The Warren Hull Show" is a fun show featuring The Tommy Gwaltney Trio, entertainment by Warren Hull which includes singing and ad libbing with the audience, interviews with outstanding visitors to the Tidewater area, local citizens who merit special recognition and general audience participation. There are prizes and coffee. The show is scheduled at the Cavalier Beach Club through August 28th.

Kellam Becomes Judge Saturday

Virginia Chief Justice John W. Eggleston is scheduled to administer the oath of office to Richard B. Kellam in ceremonies Saturday morning in Princess Anne Court as Kellam is sworn in as the associate judge of the 28th Judicial Circuit.

The ceremony is scheduled for 10 a.m. at the Princess Anne Court House. The new judge is an attorney and brother of the late Judge Floyd E. Kellam.

Kellam, 50, heads the law firm of Kellam and Kellam in Norfolk. He was named to the associate judgeship by the General Assembly March 10. Legislation authorizing the appointment of a second judge was approved earlier that month.

The 28th Judicial Circuit will split July 1, with Judge Henry W. MacKenzie Jr. presiding senior circuit judge, becoming resident judge in the new 38th Judicial Circuit in Portsmouth.

Princess Anne and Isle of Wight Counties will compose a single circuit under Judge Robert S. Wahab Jr. present associate judge who will be elevated to senior judge.

Hearing on Beach Leasing Scheduled for Tuesday; Engineer Cites City Obligation

The petition of Lance Underwood to lease two miles of surf in Virginia Beach is scheduled for hearing in Newport News next Tuesday in the offices of Milton T. Hickman, state Commissioner of Fisheries chairman, and a letter from an officer of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers has stated that such leasing of the surf here might place the city in "an embarrassing situation."

Colonel J. D. Snow, Army district engineer, in a letter, pointed out that such leasing "would automatically preclude any further federal participation in the cost of beach restoration and protection."

Underwood is seeking 42 acres of bathing ground between Rudee Inlet and 42nd street, including any bathing ground already under lease.

Copies of Snow's letter went to Atty. Gen. Albert S. Harrison Jr., to the Department of Conservation and Economic Development director, and to Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach authorities.

"The federal government participated in the cost of the restoration of the entire beach within the city limits of Virginia Beach," Snow's letter said.

"That financial participation was contingent upon the city's assuring the federal government of continued public ownership of the shore and its administration for public use only. Such assurance was furnished by formal ordinance adopted by City Council."

"A cooperative study with the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission is currently under way with a view to securing federal aid for periodic placement of sand on the beach."

"The granting of bathing beach assignments with exclusive private rights, within the City of Virginia Beach, would serve to void the assurances furnished by the city and place the city authorities in the embarrassing situation of having defaulted in its obligation to the federal government."

"It also would automatically preclude any further federal participation in the cost of beach restoration and protection."

Snow said Monday the federal government has contributed $235,000 to help Virginia Beach with its erosion problem.

Both Council and Princess Anne Board of Supervisors have opposed leasing of any part of the beach to private individuals or organizations.

They will leave the area on board the attack transport U. S. S. Rockbridge, Friday, for the return trip to New York.

During their stay in Norfolk, the future commissioned officers will learn about the roles and missions of the Navy and Marine Corps, anti-submarine warfare and amphibious operations and attend an assault landing demonstration by Naval Academy midshipmen and Marines at Camp Pendleton, on Thursday, June 23.

They will leave the area on board the attack transport U. S. S. Rockbridge, Friday, for the return trip to New York.

Sale Is Shifted In VEPCO Move

Charles L. Sale, Virginia Beach manager for Virginia Electric & Power Co. since 1953, has been appointed Albemarle district manager in Williamston, N.C.

He succeeds James S. Hamilton, a Norfolk native, who formerly was Vepco manager in Portsmouth.

Hamilton is being shifted to Fredericksburg where he will take over the district post there.

A native of Essex County, Sale joined the company in 1923 after majoring in engineering at YPI.

Assignments with the company include district engineer and superintendent of distribution in Williamsburg, distribution engineer in Newport News and manager in South Boston.

His successor has not been announced.

Hamilton, Albemarle district manager since 1953, joined Vepco in 1932 after receiving a BS degree in agricultural engineering at YPI. Earlier positions, in addition to the Portsmouth management, included several years as director of agricultural sales in Richmond.

Jaycees Report $1,838 Donated

Final results of the Virginia Beach Jaycee Hospital Fund Drive were announced this week. Net proceeds were $1,838.63, according to George Darden, project chairman.

Earlier estimates had been in the neighborhood of $1,500.00. However, Treasurer George Vakos indicated that the organization had both overestimated expenses and underestimated the gross proceeds.

The drive, which culminated with the presentation of a 1960 Pontiac Catalina convertible on May 21, Armed Forces Day, was run for approximately six weeks during April and May by the local Jaycees. Other club organizations and clubs assisted in the campaign.

W. L. Rheinbeck of UP 74, N.A.S. Oceana, received the automobile. Vakos indicated that the money will be placed in a separate fund pending its release to the appropriate body.

CITY BUDGET IS PASSED ON FIRST READING BY COUNCIL

The proposed city budget of $1,953,618.49 was passed on first reading by the City Council on Monday and would go into effect starting July 1.

The new budget is $206,414.98 more than the current budget and much of the increase comes from increased expenditures for school operations and water and sewer spending.

Early this month Virginia Beach voters approved two new bond issues. One represents $520,000 in general improvement bonds and the other $440,000 in water and sewer utilities bonds.

When the bonds were being discussed, it was stated that real estate taxes would increase from $2.73 to $3 per $100 of valuation. The charge for water within the city would increase about 20 per cent, and the charge for water in Princess Anne County served by Virginia Beach would jump about 50 per cent, it was stated.

Sidney Kellam Being Honored At Washington Luncheon Today

Sidney S. Kellam of Virginia Beach is being honored in Washington today at a special luncheon in recognition of his designation as National Democratic Committee-man from Virginia.

The gathering will serve to introduce Kellam to such national party leaders as House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson. The State Democratic Convention May 21 pledged Virginia's delegates to Johnson's support at the Presidential nominating convention.

Invited guests for the luncheon at the Capitol at 12:30 p. m., Thursday, June 23rd, include the Virginia Democratic delegation to the Congress.

Rep. Downing, who is serving as nominal host, said that the luncheon was planned to pay tribute to Kellam, who is the only National Committeeman ever to serve from the First District, and to introduce him informally to party leaders in both House and Senate.

Other guests at the stag luncheon will include top officials of the Democratic State Central Committee and G. Fred Switzer of Harrisonburg, whose place as National Committeeman Kellam will take after the 1960 National Convention.

Bloodmobile Visiting Aragona Village Monday

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile is scheduled to visit the Aragona Village area next Monday, June 27. It has been announced by Red Cross officials.

The Bloodmobile will be stationed in the Aragona Shopping Center in front of the Foot Locker store from 10 a.m. until 6 p. m. on Monday. The visit is being sponsored by the Aragona Parent-Teachers Association, the Aragona Merchants Association and the Aragona Garden Club.

One hundred pints of blood is the goal set for the Monday visit of the Bloodmobile to Aragona. This amount is needed to fill the requirements of the Tidewater Regional Blood Center, it was pointed out.

A Princess Anne County physician will be on hand during the visit Monday on a volunteer basis. Anyone in good health between the ages of 18 and 50 may donate blood, at the discretion of the attending physician.

President

Mrs. Mary Edwards is the new president of the Norfolk-Virginia Beach Soroptimist Club and will be installed at the annual dinner-meeting of the club to be held at the Princess Anne Country Club on Tuesday, June 28.

Virginia Beach Site of Jaycee Tennis Tourney

Virginia Beach will be the site of the 1960 Jaycee State Junior Tennis Tournament to be held on the Cavalier and Princess Anne County Club courts Monday through Wednesday of next week, June 27-29.

Local eliminations have been held by Jaycee chapter throughout the state during the past month. Each chapter may send four contestants to the State Championships.

George Darden, Jaycee Chairman of State Junior Tennis said Tuesday that entries may run as high as 60 this year due to the increasing popularity of the tournament. Forty-three boys played last year in Roanoke.

The tournament is co-sponsored by Pepsi Cola and is U.S. Lawn Tennis Association approved. It is operated in accord with regulations as set out by the USLTA. Winner and runner-up in each of two divisions of the local contests are eligible for the contest.

Boys not 18 by January 1, 1960, qualify for the Junior Division. Those not 15 by January 1, 1960, are eligible for the Boys Division.

Winner and runner-up in each of the two divisions on the State level will be given an all-expense-paid trip to the Jaycee International Championships to be held this year in Midland, Texas, August 1-6.

David Lowe and Richard Tarrall will be representing Virginia Beach in the Junior Division. In the boys division Bill Brathwaite and Tommy Rueger will be carrying the Virginia Beach banner. These boys were, respectively, winners and runnerup in their division of the local tournament held June 18-19.

Other area standouts who are slated for competition are Steve Kahn and Dubby Wynne of Norfolk and last year's State Junior runnerup, Johnny Baker of Suffolk.

Although entries are not yet closed, at press time Chairman Darden indicated that, in addition to the foregoing cities, notice has been received that players from Newport News, Petersburg, Richmond, Charlottesville and Lynchburg also will compete.

Tournament professionals will be Warren Johnston and Abbe Abbott of the Princess Anne and Cavalier. In addition, Bill Bost, tennis coach at Annapolis will be on hand. Other local tennis luminaries are expected to be in attendance.

Little Creek Naval Amphibious Training Base has made its all-weather courts available for "stand-by" in the event of rain.

An awards banquet will be held Wednesday night, June 29 at the Princess Anne Country Club.

Winners In Jaycee Golf Tournament

Last Tuesday evening Ken Coffee, a first year Babe Ruth pitcher and a pitcher on the Tanker Station team narrowly missed the select circle of no-hit pitchers by a margin of one hit. Ken held the VFW Dodgers under control until the last inning when pinch hitter Gary Klahn hit a sharp single between 1st and 2nd base to spoil an otherwise perfect game for young Coffee. Larry Malihes, another 13 year old for the Dodgers was very effective in the relief role allowing only two hits and no runs to the fired up Spots. While Butler, Spot 2nd baseman spearheaded the offense for his team, getting 3 hits for four times at bat. Final score was 8 to 0.

Wednesday night's game between the Everett Jordan Yanks and VFW Dodgers resulted in a no hit run performance by Gary Klahn. Young Klahn throttled the Yanks for a full seven innings, while his team-mates managed to get 4 runs to the contest 4 to 0. The Tanker Spots and Coates Motor Valiants played Thursday night and again brilliant pitching by Ted Hanson featured the nights play. Ted had a no-hitter going into the 6th inning when David Goheen singled for the first Valiant hit. Final score Spots 16, Valiants 3.

On Monday night the Spots continued their winning ways by edging the Yanks 5 to 4 in a hard-fought game. Joe Potter and Bill Braithwaite held the Spots to six hits while Tommy Tarkenton relieved by Ken Coffee in the 6th inning gave up three hits.

During the past week's games the hitting of Larry Malihes, Jim Cason, Gary Klahn, Whitey Butler, Bill Crosby, Steve Strickler, proved to be the highlights in offensive for their respective teams. All teams are shaping up to a point where the first place team at the season's end will have made a strong effort to attain their position. The Coaches are drilling the boys in the type of baseball which is very interesting for the average fan to watch. This is evidenced by the facts that each night during the past week has produced quite a crowd of spectators.

Temperature of Water To Be Recorded Daily

The Coast and Geodetic Survey has completed arrangements for obtaining daily water temperatures at four nearby beach areas and for making these available to the press and radio stations.

Beginning immediately and continuing until September 2, noon water temperature readings from Monday through Friday at Atlantic City, N. J., Ocean City, Md., Virginia Beach, Va., and Annapolis, Md. will be posted at about 3:00 p. m. of the same day in the lobby of the Department of Commerce Building. These can also be obtained by calling the office of Captain K. G. Crosby, Chief, Tides and Currents Division, at STerling 34200, Ext. 700 or 701.

This service may be extended to include other beach resort areas in the future. It is requested that credit be given to the Coast and Geodetic Survey when the information is issued to the public.

Charm Chats

Hats and Hair

Women don't always "keep it under their hats" when it comes to hair styles. In fact there seems to be a friendly agreement between these feminine "decorations" to play each other up. When the hair styles soar upward the hats follow the lead as with pompous styles and Merry Widow hats. When the "dos" go down and hug the head, so do the hats. One is reminded of the fashions of the roaring 20s. Hairdos and hats go hand in hand along the winding paths of fashions.

Regardless of the current fashions, your hair must have a good permanent for foundation. Don't delay a lovely, new wave. Creekmere Beauty Salon, 2611 Atlantic Avenue, Virginia Beach. Phone GA 8-3991.

Recent Bride

Mrs. James Geter Vermillion

Miss Betty Ann Harrell Marries James G. Vermillion

Miss Betty Ann Harrell became the bride of James Geter Vermillion Saturday at 5 p. m. in the First Baptist Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Waddell Waters. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Cleveland Harrell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Geter Vermillion of Norfolk.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white peau de soie. The oval neckline was edged with Florentine lace. The lace-trimmed puffed skirt adorned a chapel train. Her finger-ring veil of silk illusion was arranged from a cascade bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and stock.

Miss Judy Belle Hawley of Monterey, California, was the maid of honor. Mrs. Wiley Cleveland Harrell, Jr., was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Susan Mayfield Gossell of Arlington, Linda Malory Richardson of Norfolk, Frances Birsch McLean and Mrs. Donald Batchelor.

Michael Mundy Vermillion of Norfolk was best man for his brother. The groomsmen were Clarence Jordan Ball of Richmond, William M. King of Charlottesville, Clarence Lee Wilkinson, Jr., of Norfolk, Charles Bauer Mitchell, III, of Norfolk and Wiley Cleveland Harrell, II.

The ceremony took place Sunday June 12, in the David Adams Memorial Chapel on the Norfolk Naval Base. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory satin gown and an elbow length veil attached to a crown of seed pearls and carried white roses.

Miss Nita Capps was the bride's only attendant. She wore an aqua gown and carried a pink nosegay. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory satin gown and an elbow length veil attached to a crown of seed pearls and carried white roses.

Mr. Whitehurst attended his son as best man. Edward Williams of Back Bay, cousin of the bridegroom, was among the groomsmen.

KEEP ROSES LOVELY

It's easy with ORTHO Rose Dust. Just squeeze the refillable plastic squeeze duster. There simply isn't an easier way to control so many bugs and diseases that attack roses and other flowers.

APHIS suck life from new shoots and flower buds, attract ants, can even cause fungus growth. Lindane in ORTHO Rose Dust gives excellent APHIS control.

BLACK SPOT, a fungus, can cause leaf drop if allowed to spread. Captan, ferbam and sulfur control black spot.

POWDERY MILDEW turns leaves, buds and stems a sickly, powdery gray. Experts recommend sulfur for this plant disease.

Also controls Thrips, certain Caterpillars, Lacebugs, Rose Weevil, Red Spider Mite, Leaf Spot and Rust. Give your Roses this quick First-aid treatment TODAY.

Army Sounds Warning On Beach Leasing

Next Tuesday a hearing is scheduled on the first application for leasing of the beach or surf in Virginia Beach when the State Commission of Fisheries chairman hears the application of Lance Underwood, the first to apply.

The city fathers have voiced their objections to such leasing and many individuals have expressed a similar view. However, we have not heard too many reasons for the objections, although we feel that the application should be denied.

But, this week a letter from Colonel J. D. Snow, Army district engineer, was released which gave several reasons why such leasing should be carefully studied and Colonel Snow indicates that such leasing should be denied lest it place the city in "an embarrassing situation."

According to Colonel Snow any such leasing "would automatically preclude any further federal participation in the cost of beach restoration and protection." We believe this statement is ample reason, in itself, to deny the lease to Mr. Underwood.

Colonel Snow further stated in his letter "that financial participation (in the beach restoration program by the federal government) was contingent upon the city's assuring the federal government of continued public ownership of the shore and its administration for public use only. Such assurance was furnished by formal ordinance adopted by City Council.

"The granting of bathing beach assignments with exclusive private rights, within the City of Virginia Beach, would serve to void the assurances furnished by the city and place the city authorities in the embarrassing situation of having defaulted in its obligation to the federal government," Col. Snow continued.

The letter from the district Army engineer points out several reasons for denying the lease application of Mr. Underwood. The first is that such leasing would preclude any further financial aid from the federal government in the beach restoration and protection program. That is a very strong argument against the application.

City Council is also correct in its objection to such leasing since the city is morally obligated to keep the beach a public affair.

All of these factors indicate to us that the state commission of fisheries should deny this and any other such applications for leasing of the beach here and in North Virginia Beach.

Watch That Withholding Exemption!

The practice of claiming fewer withholding tax exemptions than one is entitled to is widespread, and has the encouragement of the Internal Revenue Service; it helps insure that the taxpayer will not get caught financially short when the time of final accounting comes around on March 15.

This is an old gimmick; some even use it to build up a Federal tax refund for themselves that will help satisfy the State revenue collectors. However, the opposite procedure doesn't work—the IRS has warned employers they can't let an employee claim more withholding exemptions from week to week than he is actually entitled to.

This prohibition holds true even if the employee is sure that the decreased weekly figure would add up to more than the total tax due for the year. Even if there is a virtual certainty that certain tax-deductible items will cut down on his amount due at the end of the year, he can't make allowance through reducing his weekly withholding total. The employer is the one who must be on guard—if he's caught collaborating on such a plan for his hired help's convenience, he is liable for a fine in the amount of the required tax not withheld.

On the face of it, if you can claim too few exemptions, for your financial benefit at the end of the tax year, you should be able to do the opposite, for the same purpose—personal convenience. It doesn't work that way though; Uncle Sam doesn't mind you putting too much money in his coffers, even if he does have to pay it back; but letting you contribute too little by the week, though he'll get his anyhow, bothers him. Certainly he can't blame the public for being confused under such circumstances.

UNDER "21"

By DAN HALLIGAN

(Ed. note: Dan Halligan will be glad to answer questions submitted by teenagers and children. Send them to him at Box 120, Williston, N. D. For personal replies, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.)

Dear Dan: Our parents will be observing their 20th wedding anniversary July 17 and we three children want to give them a surprise party. What do you think our chances are of really surprising Mom and Dad? Mom's sister lives in our town and because she's a great planner, we've been thinking of bringing her in on our plans but don't know if we should or not? How do you think we ought to try and work the celebration? We're two girls and a boy, 18, 16 and 13—Three Kids.

Dear Kids: I don't know if trying to surprise your parents would work as well as you think. It's a cliché your mother will remember her wedding date and if she has to, will remind your Dad. If you really want to do things up right, you might be more successful having your parents in on the plans from the beginning. Probably the best thing to do is talk to your parents and if their decision is that your parents would be happier being a part of the celebration plans, tell them you three are going to be in charge of the party and open house.

If you could arrange to have a long-stay driver or brother of your mother or father show up at the party, that would be a surprise enough and would certainly please them.

Dear Dan: How come girls are so particular and odd? I've dated this one girl three times and as yet she won't let me kiss her goodnight. She tells me she doesn't kiss just any boy on the first few dates. I might have believed that but two of my best friends have dated her and I know for a fact she kissed both of them goodnight on their first dates. How come?—Like to Know.

Dear Like to Know: If the girl has dated you three times and as yet hasn't let you kiss her goodnight, chances are she didn't let your buddies either. Maybe you don't know it but a lot of beautiful boys, boys who brag about their success with girls, are wet fishes and aren't anywhere near as great as they let on. I may be wrong about your two friends and the girl but I don't think so.

Dear Dan: I'm a world traveler. My wife and I have been holding off letting our son get his driver's license but since he had his 17th birthday earlier this month, we can't help but let him have a little unfair. Jack has always been a sensible kid and has never given us cause to worry but it's natural for any parent to be apprehensive when a teenager wants to start driving a car. We're just about made up our minds to let him get his license but would like to know what you think.

Are we being unnecessarily foolish about the way we feel? Are all parents the same way? We've talked to a couple of our neighbors whose kids started driving at 16, and they said we were a little odder than most in our thinking.—Two Worried Parents

Dear Parents: As long as Jack has shown common sense up to the present time, he'll probably continue to do so when he starts driving a car, so that's a point in his favor and yours. Tell him to at ways remember he's not only driv-

They Crack 'Em Up For Fun at Ocean View Park

There's one place in Norfolk where thousands of motor car collisions occur every night, yet there is never an injury nor a traffic ticket handed out. The place is Ocean View Amusement Park, specifically the Dodgem Cars course.

One of the two or three most popular rides at the Park, the Dodgem cars get a big play every day and night from the kids, service men and the young in heart generally. With all the cars in operation, and a dozen trying to negotiate one of the turns at a time, it looks like Times Square in the 5 o'clock rush.

The chief lure of the Dodgem Cars, of course, is the prospect of indulging the urge to crash your car into another without having to pay damages or the likelihood of anybody getting hurt. There's absolutely no chance of injury, no matter how many collisions you have.

Bob Johnson and his novelty business act came to the open air stage as the week's free circus and rodeo began Monday, with two shows daily, 2:30 and 9 p.m. Bob and Chauncey of WTAR-TV fame are also featured at the Saturday afternoon show.

He was the proprietor of Joseph C. Jett and Co., an export-import and domestic brokerage business specializing in agricultural and industrial chemicals and fertilizer and Virginia Beach.

Survivors are his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Hugh L. Holland of Suffolk and Mrs. Ward Cole of Virginia Beach; a brother, Thomas Hampton Jett of Reedville; a niece, Charlotte Sue Jett of Virginia Beach; six grandchildren; and two nephews of Reedville.

ROBERT G. BARR

A funeral service was held at 11 a. m. Saturday for Robert G. Barr, 71, Virginia Beach, pharmacist who died in a Norfolk hospital Thursday at 9 a. m. after a short illness.

The Rev. Emmanuel Bach, assistant rector of Galilee Episcopal Church, and the Rev. Reginald W. Eastman, rector of Ware Church, Gloucester and former rector of Galilee, conducted the service in Galilee Church. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Norfolk.

The body was taken to Maestas Funeral Home. The family has said that those wishing to do so may contact the Boys Home at Covington in memory of Mr. Barr. A native of Wheeling, W. Va., he was a son of James Clark and Mrs. Dorothy Bryan Barr. He had lived at Virginia Beach the last 39 years. His residence was 206 40th St.

He owned and operated Barr's Pharmacy at 17th street from 1922 until 1947. Prior to opening his business in Virginia Beach, he had been in charge of the 12th Street Pharmacy in Norfolk.

Since giving up Barr's Pharmacy, he has worked for Harrell's Pharmacy at the beach. He attended public schools and Lindy Institute in Wheeling. He has resided in Fairmont, W. Va., Mounton, Pa., and Danville.

He was an active member and former chairman of the Galilee Episcopal Church and a member of the Virginia Pharmaceutical Association, Virginia Beach Chapter 274, A.P.A.M., and Kheville Temple, Norfolk. He also was a former president of Virginia Beach Rotary Club.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Caroline Tennant Barr of Virginia Beach; one son, Dr. William Clayton Barr of Richmond; one brother, Charles E. Barr of Brooklyn, N.Y., and two granddaughters.

Active pallbearers were Dr. L. O. Clarke, Jr., William P. Kellam, B. F. Kay, E. M. James, Maury Ragan and Henry (Duck) Braithwaite. Honorary pallbearers were: Paul Ackles, Roy Barnes, John H. Bell, Berry D. Willis, C. M. Gray, Eugene Graham, Tom Braithwaite, Catherine Bryant, Hardy Cole, W. J. Cowan, Dr. H. Floyd Dornier, J. Wesley Gardner, Wiley C. Harrell, Peter Holland, Jr., W. T. Jarvis, J. A. J. Kheville, James Kontopanos, C. Wade Korney, P. F. Murray, D. Lee Page, E. Guy Robertson, K. C. Robinson, Robert B. Taylor, C. M. Woodhouse, Dr. R. W. Woodhouse, Jr., J. Douglas Hubbard, George D. Brookes, and J. Burks Withers.

MRS. EMMA HIGHAM
Mrs. Emma Clara Higham of Cavalier Drive Extended, widow of John Stephen Higham, died in a hospital here after a long illness Monday at 6:20 p. m.

A native of Philadelphia, she was the daughter of the late John Stanley Mundy of Virginia Beach, three grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The body was taken to Maestas Funeral Home and was sent from here to Memorial Funeral Home, Plainfield, N. J., for a funeral service today. Burial was to be in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield.

JOSEPH C. JETT
Joseph Clarence Jett, 55, husband of Mrs. Esther Sanford Jett, died at his home, 143 Cedar Point Rd., Cavalier Park, Virginia Beach, Sunday at 10:15 p. m.

He was the proprietor of Joseph C. Jett and Co., an export-import and domestic brokerage business specializing in agricultural and industrial chemicals and fertilizer and Virginia Beach.

He had been engaged in business in Norfolk 41 years and had maintained residence at Norfolk and Virginia Beach.

Born near Reedville, Northumberland County, he was a son of Thomas Howard Jett and Mary Alice Stiff Jett.

He received his education in the public schools of Northumberland County, Randolph-Macon College, from which he graduated with the bachelor of arts, and in post-graduate courses at Johns Hopkins University.

During World War I he served in the United States Navy as a line officer with the rank of lieutenant (jg).

He was president of the Merchants Co., a director of Smith-Douglas Co., Inc., and a member of the Commonwealth Club of Richmond, the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club, the Princess Anne Country Club and the Virginia Club.

The funeral was held in Forest Lawn Cemetery at 3 p. m. Tuesday by the Rev. Taylor Willis.

WALTER FLOYD HUNGER

Walter Floyd Hunger, 64, of RFD 1, Box 283, London Bridge, husband of Mrs. Blanche Compound Hunger, died unexpectedly at 6:15 p. m. Monday in Absecon, N.C., after a sudden illness.

Mr. Hunger was a native of Marshall, Wisconsin, a son of Otto Herman and Albino Claus Hunger. He had been a resident of London Bridge since 1940. He was a member of the Atlantic Lodge No. 2, A.P.A.M., John Walter Chapter No. 88, Grice Commandery K. T. Temple, and the Kheville Shrine.

He was a retired executive of the United States Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Chapter. Mr. Hunger served with the armed forces during World War I.

Surviving besides his wife are three sons, Walter David Hunger of Norfolk, Melvin Hunger of Arlington, and Maurice Jacques Hunger of London Bridge, three sisters, Mrs. H. H. Dornbrook of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Mrs. Al Snyder, also of Milwaukee, and Mrs. Dora N. Charles of Brooklyn, N.Y.; five grandchildren and one niece.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Maestas Funeral Home, Thursday at 2:00 p. m. by the Rev. C. O. Kidd, pastor of the Virginia Beach Methodist Church. Burial will be in Rosewood Memorial Park, Bayside.

MRS. MARY BURR WATSON
Mrs. Mary Burr Watson, 75, widow of Francis Watson, died at the home of her son, Francis Watson, Jr., 300 Seward Street, Laurel Manor at 6:45 p. m. Monday, after a long illness.

Mrs. Watson was a native of Scotland, the daughter of William M. and Margaret Guild Sandison and had been a resident of Virginia Beach since 1924.

Surviving besides her son are four grandchildren. The body was removed to the Maestas Funeral Home and was forwarded to the Dodge/Tomlinson Funeral Home, Glen Cove, L.I., N.Y. Funeral services will be conducted at the First Presbyterian Church at 11:00 a. m. Friday. Burial will be in Old Brookville Cemetery, Glen Cove.

LIONESS INSTALLATION HELD AT THUNDERBOLT
The Installation Luncheon of the Lioness Club of Virginia Beach was held on Monday, June 20, at the Thunderbolt Motel.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. James E. Lall, retiring president, and to Mrs. William M. Snider, ladies' chairman of the recent Lions' Club convention.

A very effective candle ceremony, Mrs. Lonnie W. Meacham, Past President, installed the following officers: Mrs. Leslie B. Gore, President; Mrs. Horace B. Simmons, Vice President; Mrs. Lucy Robertson, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Claude King, 3rd Vice President; Mrs. James O. Williamson, Secretary; Mrs. Nathan P. Williams, Treasurer; and Mrs. James E. Lall, Hall Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Francis Hershey and three children of Richmond are spending the month of June at their cottage on 34th street.

Miss Betty Yarn of Franklinton, N. C., will arrive next week to spend the summer at the Avalon Hotel.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Dear Sir: I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who made the trip of the Top Drive Inn baseball team of Arlington, Va., to Virginia Beach such a most pleasant experience.

We expressly want to thank the Bagleys for their pleasant hosting at their cottage. And the efficient and courteous officials, manager, coaches and players of your Virginia Beach Babe Ruth League. The parents, friends and merchants of Virginia Beach should come out and watch their boys play. Visitors to Virginia Beach should be advised of the fine exhibitions put on by these baseball teams. In short, the coaches, players and parents who put so much of their time in this effort should be encouraged by the largest attendance possible.

It was the Tops Drive Inn's second trip to Virginia Beach combining a weekend of pleasure with an exhibition game. We hope to make it an annual event and are encouraging other teams to do the same. It would be our pleasure to play your team in Arlington in the near future.

Again we want to thank everyone connected with our visit, especially Mr. Charles Ansell, President of the Virginia Beach Baseball League, the coach, John Lindsay, Mr. H. O. Kramer, Robert Panney and Jim Burr—to name a few of the fine men who need your continued support for the survival of fine Babe Ruth ball at Virginia Beach.

Sincerely,
FRED SIEVERS
Manager Tops Drive Inn
Baseball Team, Arlington, Va.

All bridge players are invited. MINIATURE GOLF NOW MAJOR LEAGUE SPORT
ASHBURY PARK, N. J. — There may be those who criticize President Eisenhower's frequent fairways forays — but not officials sponsoring the 3rd Annual International Miniature Golf Tournament, for which qualifying play is now under way at PAUL-N-Green, 2330 Shore Drive, Bayside, and some 50 other courses throughout the United States and Canada.

Tournament officials and Miniature Golf course operators in the United States and other countries declare that Miniature Golf which has been hibernating in many areas since the depression days of a generation ago, is now booming fast—and they attribute it largely to the President's penchant.

On Tuesday night, June 14, the Rotarians and the Tigers met head-on in a 27-hit slugfest with the Tigers pounding the Rotarians 18 to 7. The Rotarians got off first inling with four runs highlighted by a homer by catcher Tom Sanders. However, when the Tigers had their turn at bat, they had 19 batters up to score 14 runs on 9 hits with Mike Keville sending one over the fence.

Billy Repp, a most capable manager for the Cubs, made his first misue in six years and allowed an inept pitcher to play against the Sports in the second game of the night. Although the game was played out under protest with the Cubs leading 13 to 6, it goes into the official record book as a forfeited game — Sports 6, Cubs 0.

On Friday, June 17th, the scores resembled football tallies with the Tigers downing the Sports 25 to 4, and the Cubs clobbering the Rotarians 10 to 5. In the Cub-Rotarian game, they got in their first practice game Saturday under the capable leadership of Bob Etheridge, Player Agent, and Bill Panney. A regulation game will be played between the two teams Wednesday, the 23rd, at 5 o'clock at the Virginia Beach High School field with another game scheduled for Saturday evening. These 8, 9 and 10 year olds play baseball all day. There very lives depended on each play—it is a joy to watch. Come, one come all and give these young ones support.

Softball Teams Get Invitation to State Tournament

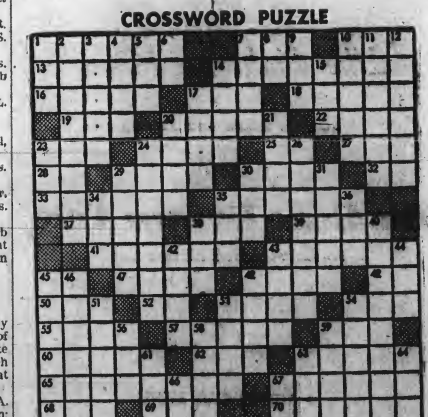

RICHMOND—Interest in tournaments sponsored by the Virginia Amateur Softball Association growing by leaps and bounds. There were more than 300 teams in 31 tournaments last year in Virginia.

Fast pitch and slow pitch tournaments will be held again in July and August for girls and boys. The State champions qualifying for regional and world play-offs.

The biggest thrill of the softball season is participation in a tournament and every player should be given the opportunity to compete. Managers and players who would like to receive tournament literature should write immediately to State Softball Commissioner Hank Wolfe, 118 Seneca Rd., Richmond, 26 Va., or call Atlantic 2-0506 after 4:30 p. m.

In addition, officials of leagues operating in various sections of the State who would like to serve as District Softball Commissioners are urged to get in touch with Hank Wolfe.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Fence-sitting isn't the safest occupation for the small fry, even if it is fun.
But fence-sitting for grown-ups is neither safe nor fun!
A man has to take a stand. He must let the world know his convictions. He must live them!
The principles in which we believe can perish while we dawdle uncommitted, uncertain or unchurched.
Behind the iron curtain men who are determined to overthrow freedom and faith hide neither their communism nor their atheism.
Here in America on a Sunday morning; no man can afford to sit on the fence IF he believes in God, and in the right to worship Him in the Church of his choice.

Future Farmers Honor Roger White

Roger White 19 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard L. White of Princess Anne, Va., was awarded the gold key of the State Farmer Degree by the Virginia Association of the Future Farmers of America last night at Blackburg.
In 1958 while attending Princess
Anne High School Roger married Miss Rosemary Elizabeth Peacock of Ocean. Roger's pride and joy is his little daughter Cynthia Lucille.
Farming on Pungo Ridge, his records show he cleared a profit of $4,082.44 last year. He graduated from Princess Anne High School in June 1959.
His profits came from this production: 6030 bushels corn from 67 acres, 2,244 bushels soybeans from 78 acres, 800 bags white potatoes from 10 acres, 390 bushels wheat from 10 acres, and a third interest in 39 hogs totaling 7,000 pounds of pork.
During his high school years he was chapter vice president and treasurer and made the school's forestry, livestock and crop judging teams. He also won last year's certificate of merit in farm mechanics.

In an exciting extra inning game
Bayside Lions edged Chesapeake Athletic Club by scoring 1 run in the eighth inning to win 7-6. Chesapeake started out with 4 runs in the first inning, but Wayne Bostain's 3 run homer in the 3rd closed the gap, and the Lions 3 runs in the sixth sent the game into overtime. Terry Williams made 2 sensational catches in center field earlier for the losers but in the 8th inning he lost a fly in the lights as the winning run crossed the plate. Ronnie Williams, was a big gun in the winners offense getting 4 for 5. Bostain picked up the win after relieving in the 7th-inning he shut out his opponents for the rest of the game. Robert Stalls, homerun in the 4th was the big blow for the losers.

In an extra inning contest the Little Gators edged the Atlantic Cleaners by a 3-2 score. Van Horn's hit in the seventh inning drove home Bobby Smith, who had walked, with the winning run. Tommy Kierchmier kept the Cleaners six hits scattered, and Merrill Rawls going to the mound for the Gators in the seventh picked up the win.

Bunching 4 hits with a walk and, a hit batsman for 4 big runs in the 5th inning the Roosevelt Garden
Merchants defeated the Millard
Fisher Builders by a score of 7-4 to stay on top of the USNAB National League. The Builders roared back in the 6th inning but had to settle for 3 runs as Woody Woodall bore down when the going got tough. Jess Cannon who pitched the first three innings got credit for the win. Jim Marshall of the losers was the batting star of the game with 3 for 4.

Players must be 16 through 22 years of age to be eligible to attend the camp, and no Junior American Legion players will be permitted to participate in the camp if such participation would interfere with any Legion activities. Such participation will only be permitted with a letter of approval from either his Legion coach or the Commander of the Legion.
Prospect he represents in Legion play.
Players are also expected to furnish their own shoes, uniforms, gloves, etc., with the Pirates furnishing all other equipment. Players will also be responsible for their traveling and living expenses with the understanding that all expenses will be reimbursed to those players signed to contracts with

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance, that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

309 Children Register for Play Program

The summer recreation program sponsored by the City of Virginia Beach, got underway with a tremendous start. The first week's registration shows 134 children registered at W. T. Cooke school and 175 registered at the Virginia Beach High school playground. The total weekly attendance for the morning and afternoon count was 1,211 children who made use of the two playgrounds.

The first week was highlighted as "Get Acquainted Week". The children had an opportunity to meet new friends and their supervisors, as well as, learning and having fun. The children made airplane models and pot holders in arts and crafts classes supervised by Mrs. Orlan Ayett. Recreational activities such as table tennis, shuffleboard, volley ball, basketball, and softball, were under the supervision of Coach Bob Coulhard at W. T. Cooke School, and Coach Claude King at the V. B. H. S. playground.

This week activities in arts and crafts will be nailcraft and wood-burning. Indian costumes will also be made by the children. Recreational activities and quiet games such as checkers, dominos, chess and bingo will round out the weeks program. The climax of the weeks activity will be a beach party to be held on Friday. Hot dogs and other refreshments will be served.

Mr. George Tepo, Recreational Director, would like to see more children register and registration is open to all school age children from age 6 up. The two play areas are open 5 days a week from 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. and 1:00 p. m. to 4:00 p. m.

Land Gift to FOP Lodge

Fred A. Haycox, left, is shown handing a deed to property given by him and his family to the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge No. 7 of Virginia Beach to Police Chief Reeves E. Johnson. The generous gift of land located south of Virginia Beach is to be used for a country club house. Next to Haycox is Police Court Judge E. V. Gresham and at right is E. A. "Sonny" Culverhouse, a member of the lodge and secretary of the State FOP (Simmons Photo).

Diplomacy Is Your Business

The art of diplomacy is said to be as old as government itself. In the United States the Department of State was the first executive department of government to be established, and it has grown from a small agency into an intricate organization employing thousands of dedicated Americans.

The Department of State is the headquarters of a vast reporting system which stretches from Washington, D. C. to the far corners of the earth.

From its posts abroad members of the United States Foreign Service report to the State Department on foreign developments which have a bearing on the welfare and security of the American people.

From its "home office" in Washington, D. C., members of the Departmental Service are engaged in programs in direct support of the Department's responsibilities in the field of foreign affairs.

"Young men and women, if you are interested in using your clerical skills in return for the opportunity to take part in the conduct of foreign relations with other nations, the time to do something about it is now," says Ancel N. Taylor, the State Department's Chief of Employment. "The Department is interested in drawing its employees from every one of the 50 states of the union; from big cities and small towns, from villages and farms."

Persons interested in "home office" employment as stenographers, typists and clerks must be at least 18 years of age, and must qualify by passing a Civil Service examination. Starting salaries range from $3,255 to $3,755 per year.

Young people interested in "Foreign Service" employment as secretaries, stenographers, communications, mail and pouch clerks must be at least 21; American citizens for at least 5 years; single with no dependents; high school graduates in excellent health; and available to go to any one of 286 Embassies, Legations or Consulates located in 93 countries throughout the world. They must be able to pass performance tests, and meet a minimum work experience requirement of 3 years. College training may be substituted for a maximum of 18 months of experience. Starting salaries range from $3,730 to $4,180 plus travel expenses and housing allowances.

Travel, foreign lands, good pay and opportunity for advancement are, of course, important to individuals in considering overseas employment, but the Department is most interested in those candidates who have the concept of service to their country uppermost in mind.

For further details and application forms write to the Employment Division Department of State, Washington, 25, D. C.

Cape Henry Club To Award Teaching Scholarships

The Cape Henry Woman's Club will again award this year two teaching scholarships and one nursing scholarship. Two High School students also have received literary awards.

For the third year Morag Nocher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Nocher is the recipient of a $200.00 teaching scholarship to Longwood College. Miss Nocher was a graduate of Princess Anne High School.

Marianne Walker, a graduate of Virginia Beach High School will also receive for the second year a $200.00 teaching scholarship to Mary Washington College.

Ann Hubiak of Virginia Beach will attend the Medical College of Virginia next fall with a $150.00 nursing scholarship which has been awarded her for the second term by the Cape Henry Woman's Club.

Ruth Johnson, a graduate of Virginia Beach High School and Joseph Burkart of Princess Anne High School are the recipients of Cape Henry Woman's Club 1960 Literary Awards for outstanding creative writing.

Vera M. Craddock, of London Bridge was awarded the clubs campership to Virginia Girls State to be held on the campus of Radford College July 10 - 16. It is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

In addition a campership has been given to a crippled child to attend Camp Easter Seal, a treatment center located at New Castle, Va. This 50 acre tract of land is owned by the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults. This treatment in a camp setting will be provided for the fourth (4th) year this season to the crippled children of Virginia.

Mrs. John Dinsmore and Mrs. Emmanuel C. Bach have returned to their homes after attending an Episcopal Conference at Hood College in Fredrick, Md.

The MIXING BOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables . . . for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

The advent of fresh blueberries offers a vegetable blue heaven of menu treats. The juicy sweet berry brings taste and eye delight to muffins, pancakes, waffles and cereals, to fruit cup and salads, to pies shortcakes and parfaits.

Moreover, nutritiously speaking the blueberry is "all this and heaven, too," because along with its freshly delightful flavor and bonny looks, the berry makes worthwhile contributions in health-giving nutrients and vitamins. It contains vitamin C and A as well as important minerals. All at a calorie count of only 42 to the half cup. Surely it is one of nature's most irresistibly alluring "sugar coated pills" and should scotch the theory that what's good can't be good for you.

Many homemakers take advantage of summer's fresh blueberry bounty to homefreeze the berries so that the family can enjoy the taste of summer all fall and winter. For this pick fully ripe berries that are firm and blue-black in color. If you plan to serve them in fruit compotes, or other fruit desserts, freeze them in sugar syrup. Berries for pies and salads should be frozen unsweetened.

The United Fruit and Vegetable Association gives us some home-freezing tips.

Blueberries may be frozen in dry granulated sugar, in a simple sugar syrup, or unsweetened.

To prepare berries for freezing: Freeze only firm, fully ripe berries. Wash and drain thoroughly. If desired, crush slightly.

DRY SUGAR PACK METHOD: Fill leak-proof freezing containers with blueberries. When desired, add 1/3 of the sugar, using 1 pound of sugar to 4 pounds of berries. Continue, alternately, adding berries and sugar until the container is filled within 1 inch from the top to allow for freezing expansion. Seal, freeze immediately and store at 0 degrees F. or below. This method is preferable for freezing blueberries used in pies.

SYRUP METHOD: Pack berries into containers and cover with cold 40 to 50 per cent syrup (3 to 5 cups sugar to 4 cups water heated to boiling point and chilled), leaving a head space of 1-inch from the top. Seal, freeze immediately and store at 0 degrees F. or below. This method is preferable for freezing blueberries used as a dessert.

Place a small piece of crumpled parchment or other water resistant paper on top and press down into syrup before closing container to keep the fruit under the syrup.

UNSWEETENED METHOD: Pack prepared unsweetened berries into containers leaving a head space of 1-inch from the top to allow for freezing expansion. Seal.

freeze immediately and store at 0 degrees F. or below.

Fresh Blueberry and Orange

Parfait:
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
2 cups fresh orange juice
2 cups fresh lemon juice
2 cups fresh blueberries
2 tablespoons sugar

Combine first 3 ingredients in a saucepan. Beat in eggs. Gradually blend in fresh orange juice. Cook until medium thickness over low heat, stirring constantly. Cool. Stir in grated lemon rind. In the meantime, sprinkle berries with sugar and let stand at least 30 minutes. Spoon alternating layers of custard and blueberries in parfait glasses, beginning with a layer of custard and ending with blueberries. Yield: 6 servings.

Here are recipes that I'm sure will tempt the most jaded appetite.

Fresh Fruit Salad Lemon Sauce

1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 cup water
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1 cup diced fresh peaches
1 cup green seedless grapes
1 cup fresh blueberries

Combine first 3 ingredients in a saucepan. Stir in water and cook until mixture is clear and thickened. Add lemon juice and bring to boil. Remove from heat and add pure vanilla extract. Cool. Add fresh fruit. Serve with cakes, puddings, etc. Yield: 2 cups.

Fresh Fruit Salad Parfait

1 cup fresh cantaloupe balls
1 cup diced fresh peaches
1 cup watermelon balls
1 cup fresh blueberries
1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
3 tablespoons sugar

Combine all ingredients and chill one hour or more. Serve in sherbet glasses and garnish with sprigs of fresh mint. Yield: 5 to 6 servings.

Fresh Salad Parfait

5 tablespoons nonfat dry milk
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, lightly beaten
1 cup cold water
1-1/2 cups hot water
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1 cup sliced fresh strawberries
1 cup fresh blueberries
1 cup sliced fresh peaches
1 tablespoon sugar

Combine first 3 ingredients in top part of a double boiler or in a saucepan. Mix well. Add eggs and mix well again. Stir in cold water. The add hot water and cook over hot water or low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture coats a metal spoon. Remove from heat and stir in pure vanilla extract. Cool. While custard is cooling, prepare fruit and sprinkle with sugar. Just before serving, arrange alternate layers of custard and fruit in tall parfait glasses, beginning with custard and ending with fruit. Yield: 6 servings.

Fresh Blueberry and Lime Mold
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup cold water
1-1/2 cups hot water
1 cup sugar1 teaspoon salt
1 cup fresh lime juice
Salad greens
Mayonnaise
3 cups fresh blueberries

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add hot water, sugar and salt and mix well to dissolve gelatin. Blend in lime juice. Chill until mixture is about as thick as fresh egg whites. Fold in blueberries. Turn into a 5-cup mold and chill until firm. Turn out onto serving plate. Garnish. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Fresh Blueberry Shake

2 cups fresh blueberries
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup pure vanilla extract

Wash and crush blueberries. Add sugar, fresh lemon juice and salt. Mix well. Place in a saucepan. Bring to boiling point and boil 11 minutes. Add pure vanilla extract. Chill. Serve over puddings, cakes or ice cream. Yield: 1 1/2 cups.

Blueberry Cream Parfait Toss

To make blueberry cream puffs fold whole fresh blueberries into the whipped cream filling. Powder the puffs lightly with confectioners' sugar.

Blueberry Breakfast Boost

For blueberry pancakes, place one or two tablespoons lightly crushed and sweetened blueberries in the center of each pancake. Roll as for jelly roll and pass the maple syrup, please.

Vepco Announces

Construction for

Tidewater Area

Approximately 25 per cent of Vepco's $58,600,000 construction budget for 1960 will be spent in Tidewater Virginia, A. H. McDowell, Jr., President of the Virginia Electric and Power Company, said today at a meeting of the Board of Directors at Virginia Beach.

McDowell said, "out of a total of $14,598,000 allocated for projects in the area, $3,287,000 will be spent for a fourth unit at the Portsmouth Power Station. The addition of this unit, scheduled for completion in 1962, will raise the station's capacity of 530,000 kilowatts."

Allocations for the company's gas operations in Tidewater include $2,140,000 for the Norfolk system and $2,098,000 for the Newport News-Hampton system. The Board meeting here today is in keeping with Vepco's new policy of holding Board meetings at various locations in the company's service area.

Directors from the Tidewater area are John S. Jenkins, Jr., of Norfolk and Mm. McL. Ferguson, of Newport News. Other Directors are: Jay W. Johns, of Charlottesville; Charles W. Kellogg, Queen Anne, Md.; W. Taylor Murphy, Warsaw; Clarence J. Robinson, of Alexandria; Montelle C. Smith, Alfred H. McDowell, Jr., Erwin H. Will and Charles G. Wilson, of Richmond and Gilpin Wilson, Jr., of Staunton.

Pony League Opens Season

The Lynnhaven District Pony League opened its season on Monday, June 13th at 8:00 p. m. at Oceana Stadium. Judge Robert Wash, Lynnhaven District Supervisor James Darden, and Fred Isaacs were on hand to give words of encouragement and advice to the boys and their parents. Allen Gettel, former major league ball player, now playing in the Norfolk City League addressed the boys and threw out the first ball. Mr. Richard Walker of London Bridge Baptist Church gave the invocation.

The Chiefs defeated Thalia in the first game by a score of 11 to 7. Robert Kelton pitched for the Chiefs and gave up 8 hits. George Wilson was the catcher. The Chiefs scored their runs on five hits and 5 errors by Thalia. Mike Henry collected both Thalia hits.

Jimmy Flippen pitched the Ruritans to victory in the second game as the Ruritans collected 12 hits and took advantage of 2 errors to defeat the Eagles 13 to 3. For the winners Billy Grimstead hit 3 for 3, one of which was a home run. Everett Horton did the catching. Johnny Spruill and Johnny Gimbert were caught by Joe Haddock. The Eagles collected 7 hits.

On Thursday, June 16th the game between the Chiefs and the Eagles ended in a 6 to 6 tie and will be resumed at a later date. The game was called in order to allow the second game to start. Johnny Gimbert and Bobby Harrington of the Eagles gave up two hits, struck out 4, and didn't do the catching. Phil Zuber gave up six hits and struck out 6 for the Eagles. George Wilson did the catching duty. Johnny Gimbert's homerun with one on tied the game up.

The Ruritans blasted Thalia 18 to 5 in the second game. Art Halsey started pitching for the Ruritans but was relieved by Everett Horton in the first and he picked up the victory. Jimmy Flippen pitched two innings. They combined to strikeout 7. The Ruritans collected 11 hits and committed one error. Art Halsey hit a homerun for the winners. Thalia had 5 hits and committed 5 errors behind the pitching of Mike Fisher and Mike Henry.

Lennie Randall was the winning pitcher for the Eagles on Monday, June 20th, as the Eagles defeated Thalia 15 to 8. Thalia's Garrett collected the only home run. Mike Fisher pitched for Thalia.

John Senrukos pitched a no hitter to give the Ruritans a 4 to 0 victory over the Chiefs. In defeat Sam Tillet gave up only two hits to Robert Rogue and Johnny Crowling. Eight errors by the Chiefs helped the Ruritan cause but the Chiefs could not take advantage of 4 Ruritan errors.

SCHEDULE:

Thursday, June 23rd—Eagles vs Ruritans — 6 p. m.

Monday, June 27th—Chiefs vs Thalia — 8 p. m.

Thursday, June 30th—Chiefs vs Ruritans — 6 p. m.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Ever Have
That "Sinking" Feeling?

You probably know that "Chief" Washburn was just appointed swimming instructor at the City Club.

Seems in his first group, he had three youngsters who were hesitant even about the shallow end of the pool. They said "world sink." Of course, Chief didn't try to scare them—he demonstrated. He jumped in, popped right up, explained that body buoyancy had pushed him back to the surface.

However, one of the youngsters shook his head in disbelief. "Gee," he said, "I sure hope Mr. Buoyancy is still down there when I jump in."

From where I sit, whenever said "competence" is the best teacher, I think all of us—through experience—have important "competence" in between neighbors. In little things too, like my responsibility right to choose a favorite beverage—and your respecting my choice of an occasional glass of beer. That way we'll never not be—as friends.

St. Gregory's Woman's Club Officers

The gavel changed hands recently as Mrs. G. Perkins (fourth from right) was installed as president of the St. Gregory's Woman's Club. She is shown accepting the gavel from Mrs. G. Leary, outgoing president. Others are, not in order, Mr. S. Romano, vice-president; Mrs. Foy, corresponding secretary; Mrs. F. Vaughn, treasurer; and past officers, Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. R. Haines, Mrs. F. Napolitano and Mrs. C. Russell. Rev. Edmund Koller, center, installed the new officers.

Rev. F. H. Strieby Moving to Belmont Church, Roanoke

At the recent session of the Virginia Methodist Conference, Bishop Paul N. Garber appointed the Rev. Francis H. Strieby to Belmont Church in Roanoke, Virginia. For the past five years he has been serving as pastor of the Scott Memorial Methodist Church in Ocean, Virginia.

During the five year pastorate emphasis has been given to evangelism with the result that some 375 people were added to the Scott Memorial Church.

Another important phase of the work of this pastorate has been the payment of Church indebtedness. The debt of $1,400.00 on the Church building was first paid in full and the Church dedicated on September 16, 1958. The indebtedness on the new parsonage amounting to $8,000.00 was then paid in full and the parsonage dedicated on April 13, 1958.

Another very significant step during this ministry of Rev. Strieby was the purchase of additional land for recreational purposes, parking facilities and for future development in the form of additional educational building. This land was purchased at a cost of $8,100 from Mr. C. M. Rau. On the final Sunday of the pastor's ministry, June 19, the payment in full of this amount was celebrated in a note-burning ceremony in which leading laymen of the church participated with the pastor.

In addition to his regular work as pastor of Scott Memorial, the retiring pastor served as District Director of Adult work, for the Norfolk District. He was also active in community affairs, and was an active member of the Ruritan Club.

Mrs. Strieby was active in the Church work, having served as Sunday School Teacher, as a leader in the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and recently as organist and choir director. She was also active in club work in the Cape Henry Woman's Club, and the Woman's Club of Princess Anne County. She is past president of the London Bridge Home Demonstration Club and the Lynnhaven Garden Club.

A farewell party for Rev. and Mrs. Strieby was held on Tuesday night, June 21, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Succeeding Rev. Strieby as pastor of the Scott Memorial Church will be the Rev. Lee H. Richcreek, who is coming from the Grace Methodist Church in Newport News. Rev. and Mrs. Richcreek will arrive at the parsonage on Thursday, June 23 and he will preach his opening sermon in the new pastorate at 11:00 a. m. on Sunday, June 26.

Navy Wives Club Plan Luau

The members of the Princess Anne Navy Wives Club are busy completing plans for their Hawaiian Luau, to be held at the NAS Oceana base pool on Saturday, July 2, from 8 p. m. to 11 p. m.

An authentic Hawaiian menu will be served, including luau chicken, shrimp teriyaki and beef teriyaki, lomilomi salmon, yams, poynesian rice, coconut pudding with crushed pineapple, and lots of fresh fruit, coffee and Hawaiian punch.

Club members and local high school girls will give a demonstration of why Hawaii is "preferred duty" to all military men. They will perform several types of hulas, such as the "Hollywood version," "Little Grass Shack" and "Sweet Lullaby" and the authentic old-time religious chants, done to drum beats and with bamboo instruments, one of which will be "Kawika" (Kah-vee-kah).

All this in a South Sea Island atmosphere of fish nets, painted mask 'gods', flowers and torchlight, around the pool, which will be open with two lifeguards on duty.

To top off a gala evening, a Door prize will be awarded to a very lucky couple. A room for two, for one week at the Beautiful Walkiki Motel on the ocean at Miami Beach, Fla. The lucky-winners will have access to the pool, or the private beach and cabanas, as well as movies, bingo parties, weenie roasts, and other features provided by the Motel for their guests.

All this for the admission price of $5.00 per couple or $2.50 for one person. For tickets or further information, please call Mrs. J. C. Dineen at GA 8-7376, or Mrs. H. E. Vandenberg at CY 7-3983.

Stars in Track, Too

National Little League News

The Mother's Auxiliary of the National League is still very much in evidence at the ball games. These mothers who take the goodies and the mothers who come out to sell are to be congratulated. The monies from these sales are helping to keep our boys playing ball.

These busy ladies also took on a new project. On Saturday, June 18, they marched on our local merchants for contributions. The money is still coming in. We wish to thank the following merchants for their help.

Tidal House, Roses 5 and 10, 31st Palms, Howard Hair Fashions, Bunkie's Service Station, Lois Curley and Sandman Motel.

Every dollar helps and the boys can play that much longer.

We have quite a turnout at each game. We urge all parents and friends of these boys to attend the games and root for their teams. "It Fun to be a Fan." We can always use extra umpires at these games. Anyone wishing to help in any capacity can contact Mr. Earl Mautont, President of the National Little League at GA 8-2731. Helping our boys play ball can be a very satisfying experience and a very rewarding one. Ask anyone who has or listen to a future major league brag about how his Mom and Dad are helping his team and you'll see what we mean. Come on out, parents, your boy needs your support. See you at the ball park.

Hawks 3; Little Giants 1.

This was a good close game all the way with Max Wiley pitching the Hawks to victory again. Max also got some nice hits for his team. Others getting good hits for the Hawks were Chuck Hinkle, Chris Dierietes and Jim Ward.

Johnny Ort relieved by Willie Rice pitched the game for the Little Giants. In the fourth inning Willie Rice got a two-bagger, and Johnny Ort a single to bring Rice in, scoring the only run for the Little Giants.

Thunderbirds 6; Pipers 6. The battery for the Thunderbirds in this game were Dale Brady and Mike Bates. Johnny Milner, Dale Brady, Mike Bates and Freddie Grosskreutz swung the big bats for their team.

The battery for the Pipers were Jeff Shelton and Kenneth Hill. Also getting some good hits for the Pipers were Terry Wheddes, Kenneth Hill, Andy Phillips and Wayne Simmons.

This was a most interesting game, especially when in the sixth inning the Pipers came up with a

Summer Program Slated for Aragona Girl Scouts

A summer program for Aragona Village Intermediate Girl Scouts designed to lead to the Star Badge. Opening meeting: Maywood Methodist Church, Monday, June 27, 1960, 7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Registration of interested girls. General introduction to star study.

Mrs. John Bradshaw, troop leader of Troop 128, will share some of her experiences as an amateur astronomer.

There is no fee for participating in the program. The only requirement is that you be registered Girl Scout and live in Aragona Village. It is suggested you bring home run hit by Terry Wheddes. Two other runs were made in this inning making the score 6-6, and when the Thunderbirds came to bat they tied the score up when Freddie Grosskreutz made it across home plate.

Thunderbirds 10; Little Giants 6. The battery for the Thunderbirds in this game was Carl Bagby and Johnny Milner. Mike Bates, Freddie Grosskreutz, Dale Brady, Linwood Harper, Johnny Milner and Alex Pagonis swung the big bats for their team in this game. Dale Brady and Mike Bates made a nice double play in this game, which was the first double play this season.

Johnny Ort and Willie Rice pitched another nice game for the Little Giants. Johnny Ort hit the first home run of the season for his team, scoring three runs.

Pipers 17; Hawks 11. Terry Wheddes pitched a nice game for the Pipers and also got his second home run of the season. Andy Phillips, Kenneth Stephenson, Wayne Simmons, Evans, Lonnie Orner, Kenneth Hill and Wayne Agee got nice hits for their team, and Jeff Shelton also knocked his first home run of the season.

Bob and Jim Ward shared mound chores for the Hawks. Bob Ward, Chuck Hinkle, Lane Agee and Ryan Amburn got nice hits with Max Wiley getting the first home run of the season for the Hawks. Max Wiley also made several nice catches at first base. That is good play, Max! This proved to be a very interesting game as the Pipers got several runs ahead with the Hawks making several runs, and at times appearing as if they might even the score.

the Girl Scout Handbook to the first meeting and if you have a booklet about stars bring it.

Two meetings are tentatively planned for July. The second, on July 25, will feature Mr. Emmett Tobin, leader of the junior program of the Norfolk Astronomical Society, with his telescope. The program for the earlier July meeting will be chosen according to the interest of the girls as expressed at the opening meeting.

One meeting will be planned for August. It may be an evening "meteor-watching" party or a trip to an observatory or planetarium, or other field trip of interest to astronomers.

It is not necessary to sign up in advance of the opening meeting. However, if you cannot attend the first meeting and would like to be notified of the other meetings, call Mrs. John Bradshaw at GY 7-1756 (evenings).

DEMONSTRATION FIELD DAY
Farmers and business men had a look for themselves last Tuesday at the Demonstration Field Day at some of the demonstrations being conducted by the VPI Extension Service in Princess Anne County.

The first stop on the Field Day was at Alvah Malbone's farm. Here the visitors saw a comparison between the conventional method of planting corn and the wheel-track method, a new method of planting corn in the Eastern part of the country.

Alvah has the two ways of planting corn in the same field. The wheel track corn was plowed and immediately planted without any preparation of the soil. After it was planted, it was sprayed for weed control. Due to the extreme dry weather, very little results were received from the pre-emergence 2-4-D treatment and when the corn was approximately 4 inches high, it was sprayed again with 2-4-D. It has not been cultivated, nor is it intended to be cultivated. The weed and grass control is very good. About a week ago, it was sidedressed with 90 pounds of nitrogen.

The conventional method, the thousand pounds of 34-18, was broadcast as it was in the wheel track method. This was disked in and later rowed up, disked one time and planted. 2-4-D was applied at 6 inches high, and the corn has been cultivated one time. The exact same procedure of sidedressing was followed on the conventional corn.

At this time, the corn in the conventional method is slightly taller, but we feel that this is due to a greater concentration of the plant food being directly under the roots of the corn. We feel certain the wheel track method will catch up at the end of the season. A report will be forthcoming after the harvesting is completed.

After completing the tour at Alvah Malbone's farm, we journeyed on over to the Land of Black water, to see the Wheat Fertilization Demonstration being conducted on the farm of Jennings Furlough. Here, the folks were able to see five different ways of fertilizing wheat. After a discussion of each of these fields, the visitors actually went into the fields to see for themselves the difference between the methods of fertilization. There were four kinds of guesses as to the best crop. A report will be forthcoming after the harvesting season on each of these fields.

Field No. 1 was fertilized at the rate of 330 pounds of 34-18 at planting time last fall, and received 48 pounds of nitrogen this spring. Plot No. 2 received 530 pounds of 5-10-10 last fall, and 30 pounds of nitrogen this spring. Plot No. 3 received 530 pounds of 10-10-10 per acre last fall, with no fertilizer this spring. Plot No. 4 did not receive any fall fertilization, however, it received 530 pounds of 10-10-10 this spring. Plot No. 5 did not receive any fertilization at planting time, however, at top-dressing time it received 58 pounds of Nitrogen.

SECOND LAMB SALE
Six hundred and nineteen lambs were sold at the 2nd lamb sale held Wednesday at the Smithfield Livestock Yard.

There were 114 prime lambs, averaging 68 pounds that sold for $25.85 per hundred weight. There were 103 choice lambs, averaging 85 pounds selling for $26.05 per hundred weight. There were 136 Red Shoulders, or good lambs averaging 75 pounds selling for $22.10 per hundred weight. There were 71 medium lambs, averaging 69 pounds which sold for $18.00 per hundred weight.

Buck lambs sold for $1.00 less per hundred weight than other lambs.

IN PRINCESS ANNE COUNTY
Ten Princess Anne County farmers go out for certification in a big way.

M. W. Dudley, at Back Bay, has 25 acres of certified Atlas 66 wheat; H. M. Dudley, of Back Bay, has 15 acres of Atlas 66; Jordan, of the Grain Company, has 45 acres of Atlas 66; Jack Fentress has 13 acres of Atlas 66; Everett Sawyer has 30 acres of Atlas 66, and 50 acres of Victor grain oats; Grayson, of Williams, has 50 acres of Atlas 66, 130 acres of Victor grain oats, and 50 acres of Won barley; A. E. Williams has 10 acres of Atlas 66 wheat and 14 acres of Victor grain oats; W. M. Dawley has 30 acres of Atlas 66 wheat; R. F. Lambert, Sr., has 15 acres of Atlas 66 wheat; and James P. Menier has 50 acres of Atlas 66.

This is just an indication of feeling of farmers today for the necessity of good seed. Congratulations to all of these men for a very good job of growing quality seed for their fellow farmers.

POTATO OUTLOOK

White potato authorities in Washington, contacted by the Extension Service, are still sticking to their prediction that Virginia white potatoes will average $2.75 to $3.00 F. O. B. for the 1960 season.

However, this is provided we do certain things:

1. Dig the crop at its peak of perfection. Don't dig before the crop matures or wait until they sprout.

2. Be extremely careful about sun scald. Dig early mornings and late evenings only.

3. Keep off-grades and poor quality out of terminal markets.

4. Dig potatoes on order only.

HOW BIG IS YOUR HERD

Have you ever thought that you shouldn't join your DHIA because your herd is not very large? Today you can take advantage of production record keeping for your herd at reduced rates through the Owner-Sampler, or DHIA Program.

Owner-Sampler is a system in which you weigh the milk from each cow in your herd one day each month and take a sample of milk for butter fat testing. The local DHIA Supervisor will pick up the milk samples and your sheet with milk weights on it and will calculate each cow's record much the same as DHIA. You can also get grain feeding recommendations with this program, the same as with DHIA. While these records are not considered official and cannot be used in bull proving or dairy cattle sales, they do give you the information you need to feed, cull, and select replacements. Owner-Sampler costs roughly 8% as much as DHIA.

The smaller the herd, the greater the need for high production per cow. You can enroll your herd in DHIA, or Owner-Sampler, and start to make dairying pay the record way. Stop by the office of the nearest dairy agent, Princess Anne, and let's talk about the program that best suits your needs, and how you can enroll in the program.

WATCH OUT FOR INSECTICIDE DRIFT

Just because a chemical can be used safely on one crop does not mean that it can be applied indiscriminately without regard to adjacent areas. Quite often an insecticide may have a tolerance on a given crop yet not be cleared for use on another vegetable in an adjoining field. Be very careful with insecticide drift under these conditions and never treat when the wind will carry residues in the wrong direction. This is doubly important during the harvest period. Leaf crops such as kale, collards, turnip and mustard greens, for example, are very susceptible to drift. There have been cases of doxaphene applied to another crop during a strong wind. Lastly, fish are very susceptible to some of the new chemicals and farm ponds may be pretty well knocked out by careless insecticide application.

CHECK SPRAYERS OR DUSTERS BEFORE CHANGING OPERATIONS

We have a strong suspicion that some of the residue problems encountered may be due to failure to change materials or clean out sprayers or dusters when shifting from one crop to another. It seems a shame to some to throw out the contents of a partially filled spray tank or to take the time to clean out a duster, yet to do so is the only way. Simply adding water or a different insecticide will not cover up the chemical already present. It takes only a very little bit of chemical to leave a trace and some insecticides can be used only under zero tolerance or a no residue basis. Zero can be an awfully big word, especially with improved methods of chemical analysis.

BE CAREFUL WITH SNAP BEAN RESIDUE AFTER THE FIRST PICKING

Some snap beans have been harvested and others will soon be ready. Since DDT is a 7 day pre-harvest limitation, it is a bit risky to use this chemical after the first harvest.

Sevin and malathion are two insecticides that may be used up to the day before harvest. In our tests Sevin has been far more effective than malathion against the corn earworm, better than malathion against the leafhopper, Mexican bean beetle and bean leaf beetle but inferior to malathion in aphid control.

Rotone is exempt from a tolerance as normally used, 30,000 lbs. of 1 per cent dust per acre or equivalent in activated rotenone formulations. Do not rely on rotenone to control the earworm.

ADVERTISING IMPORTANT TO FARMER, ECONOMIST SAYS
The farmer, has entered the advertising business.

James B. Bell, agricultural economist at VPI points out that food stores, processors, distributors, and other agencies related to the food for many years. However, the entrance of strictly agricultural groups in relative new.

Several agricultural groups in Virginia now carry on some promotional activities. One of the most recent efforts has been with apples. The Virginia State Commission which was organized to conduct this program, is expected to raise $200,000 for promotion next year. The Virginia Milk Producers Federation is expected to raise several thousand dollars for promotion also.

How much competition will these and other groups have in bidding for Mrs. Consumer's dollar through advertising and promotion? Bell says a recent study by the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicated that in 1959 slightly over 1-100 strictly agricultural groups spent $27,000,000 for promotion. Expenditures to promote dairy and fruit products together accounted for almost 70 per cent of the total.

Several types of agricultural groups are included among those advertising. They are: (1) farmer-producer groups, (2) producer and joint producer-producer groups, (3) processors and shippers, and (4) state agencies. In Virginia, producer groups, some of which are formed under state enabling legislation, and processors have accounted for most of the advertising. Milk cooperatives also have engaged in a local and regional promotional activities.

Getting the money to do the advertising has been a problem in many areas. Groups which depend primarily on voluntary support represent 30 per cent of all groups, but account for 38 per cent of total expenditures. Farmer cooperatives spend slightly less than the voluntary group. State commodity councils, etc., spent about $14 million, or about half as much as each of the other two groups. State departments of agriculture spent slightly over $1 million.

The type of program on which the money was spent varied. About 57 per cent of the total was spent on commodity programs. The rest of the funds were about equally divided between programs to promote a specific brand, and programs to promote products of a specific area.

The scope of the programs was diverse. National advertising program accounted for 48 per cent of the total. Sixteen percent was spent on regional programs, while the remaining 36 percent went for state and local programs.

Whether or not Virginia should increase advertising and promotion activities is a current question. Bell says it is a hard question for any agricultural group to answer. However, more groups in Virginia will be seriously considering advertising and promotion as a way to improve their market as the trend toward agricultural advertising develops.

Surf Lease Here Is Denied By Commission of Fisheries

The Virginia State Commission of Fisheries Tuesday denied the petition of attorney Lance L. Underwood to lease 42 acres of Virginia Beach surf from the state. The hearing was held in the office of Commissioner Milton Hickman in Newport News.

In the words of Commissioner Hickman it was the "unanimous opinion that the granting of this application would be against the public policy and the general welfare of the people in the community."

In the course of the hearing Underwood told the commission: "I'm a Southerner myself, and I've lived in Virginia all my life, and I don't have to tell you gentlemen what's behind my application." He did not elaborate further.

Virginia Beach City Attorney Roy Smith told the commission "the city has spent millions of dollars to establish a beach, and to have a private party take it over causes us concern."

More than a dozen persons, including government officials from Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, appeared at the hearing in protest to the lease. Underwood stated he would not speak in rebuttal to the protestants.

Underwood said, "My purpose is not to deny bathing at Virginia Beach. We are dealing with something which is wide open as far as the general public is concerned. There is an astinine and dangerous law on the books. It may be beneficial to grant these rights at this time."

He continued: "I don't think a person could generally control the area. I don't believe that an lessee I could say, 'John Jones, don't go into that water.' The city owns the beach."

"I don't intend to go in there myself. I swim elsewhere. I won't have a bag over my shoulder collecting quarters from bathers. I would have to get in a rowboat to do that."

Smith closed the discussion by observing, "I'm at a loss to see how a man can get a lease and not get anything from it."

Still to be decided are surf lease petitions from D. Conrad Little, J. L. Carter, William E. Wits and the Croatan Beach Corp.

Lynnhaven Channel Filling Gives Concern to Supervisors

A commercial fisherman told the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors Monday that the Lynnhaven channel has been filling ever since the new high level Lester bridge was constructed in 1955 and the county's commissioner of the Revenue stated he thought the Federal government is responsible for solving the problem.

The commercial fisherman was Henry Braithwaite, who said "I did $14 damage to a boat of mine on that bar last Friday. Somebody is going to get killed if the situation isn't changed. This problem started just after the new bridge was put in."

Commissioner of the Revenue Ivan D. Mapp told members of the Board that "people can't get boats in and out. The government has spent money on surveys, but they have not benefited the waterman."

Lynnhaven Supervisor James G. Darden noted that "there have been three surveys in two years. In my opinion it is the duty of the U.S. Army Engineers to keep the channel open."

The Board agreed to write First District Congressman Thomas N. Downing to seek help in correcting the channel at Lynnhaven inlet.

Other matters taken up by the Board dealt with the dog problem in the county.

Commonwealth's Atty. Robert L.

Army Says P.A. Should Improve Inlet Channel

Lynnhaven Inlet shoals threatening the livelihood of hundreds of Princess Anne County watermen could be cleared for $2,000, the Army Engineers said Tuesday.

The Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors is committed to do the job, the Engineers contended.

John H. Pruhs, executive assistant to the district engineer, said the Norfolk district spent $13,000 dredging a channel last year, but only after the supervisors formally agreed to take charge of subsequent maintenance.

Pruhs added that the Engineers have suggested two sources of possible aid to whom the supervisors could turn.

James Darden, supervisor from Lynnhaven, said Tuesday he remembered the agreement Pruhs referred to.

But the Engineers did such a poor job of clearing the channel that the agreement shouldn't be considered binding, Darden said.

"They pumped the sand into a hole and it's shifted back," Darden said.

"Besides there are a bunch of concrete piles there from an old railroad bridge. The Engineers had inspectors on the job. They should have made sure the channel was cleared right."

"Those people have spent thousands of dollars on surveys but not one cent to fix up the inlet," Darden said.

Virginia Beach assumed its customary pre-holiday look over the past weekend as vacationers enjoyed surf and SAND. With westerly winds Virginia Beach strand has reclaimed much of sand lost in May's northeast storms that took a toll of the Eastern Seaboard. (Boice Photo.)

Parade Here Saturday Feature of WAVY Day

Mayor Frank A. Dusch of Virginia Beach today proclaimed July 2 WAVY Day at Virginia Beach.

The proclamation is as follows:

"Whereas WAVY has, since it first went on the air, provided wholesome relaxing and entertaining programs to the Tidewater television and radio audiences and whereas WAVY has always promoted the best interests of this area, and has particularly promoted Virginia Beach as an ideal community in which to live, and as an outstanding seaside resort; and whereas WAVY-TV has scheduled a television program titled 'A Salute to Virginia Beach, the Skyline of Gracious Living,' to be telecast on Saturday, July 2 from 5 to 8 p.m., and repeated Sunday, July 3 from 8 to 9 p.m., now therefore I, Frank A. Dusch, Mayor of the City of Virginia Beach, do hereby proclaim Saturday, July 2, 1960 as WAVY Day and call upon our citizens to join in this celebration in recognition of our city and witness a special parade in a salute to Virginia Beach. Given under my hand this 22nd day of June, 1960, Frank A. Dusch, Mayor, City of Virginia Beach."

WAVY-TV's film crews have been in the Virginia Beach area for the past three weeks, shooting films to be used for the one-hour show to be seen from 5 to 6 p.m. Saturday, July 2 (repeated by tape 8 to 9 p.m. Sunday, July 3). The films will depict family life, homes, churches, convention facilities, hotels, military installations and life in general at Virginia Beach.

The special parade will begin at 5 p.m. and will run from 14th St. to 35th St. along Atlantic Ave. Approximately 40 units have been confirmed for the parade. Some of the units will be the 50th Army Band from Fort Monroe, Va., led by Chief Warrant Officer A. Di. Fromm; United States Naval Amphibious Base Band, led by Chief H. McClure; Marine Corps Drum and Bugle Corps; Virginia Beach American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps; the Dam Neck Guided Missile School Drill Team; marching units from the 5th Missile Battalion, Fort Story; H & S Co.; Fleet Marine Forces Atlantic. Other highlights will be a Nike Hercules float, a Flying Tiger jet float, and many other units too numerous to mention. All WAVY personalities will participate in the parade, including Poopdeck Pappy.

The co-grand marshals of the parade will be Frank A. Dusch, Mayor of Virginia Beach and J. Glen Taylor, president of Tidewater Teleradio, Inc. (operators of WAVY-TV and Radio). Any organizations wishing to participate in this parade are invited to call either Chief Bayne, Virginia Beach Fire Dept. (GA 8-9122) or Mike Schaffer, Promotion Director, WAVY-TV (MA 7-2345).

WASHINGTON REDSKIN OWNER COMING HERE

The owner of the Washington Redskins professional football team is coming to Virginia Beach for a vacation.

George Preston Marshall, the dean of pro football in the National League, is scheduled to arrive in Virginia Beach for a five-day stay starting Friday.

Marshall will be a guest of the Thunderbird Motor Lodge at 35th and Oceanfront. He is expected to stay through next Tuesday.

While in the area Marshall is expected to iron out details of the pro football game to be played in Norfolk later this summer.

RAPID BUILDUP FEW DAYS NOTED

Favorable westerly and south-west winds during the past several days have returned much of the sand to Virginia Beach and with normal wind and currents the beach can be expected to remain in a stabilized condition, according to a United States Government beach erosion specialist.

This is the theory advanced by Richard Eaton, chief technical advisor to the Federal Beach Erosion Board, who made a recent inspection of the beach here and concluded his visit by approving the procedure and methods being pursued by the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission.

The beach has already built back considerably after the sand loss due to unseasonable weather and unusually long spells of northeast winds and high tides.

"We have recovered much of the sand that we had lost. If the west winds prevail, our beach will continue to build up," Edward H. Church, chairman of the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission, said Monday.

Loss of sand and the extremely high tides were pointed out visibly over the Memorial Day weekend last month. It was felt then that the combination of unfavorable winds, high tides and the currents were responsible for the sand loss. Photographs taken last Saturday afternoon at the peak period of the weekend forcibly reveal the improved condition of the beach and the rapid return of the sand. The photographs have been sent to news media throughout the country, according to one source.

Church issued the following statement at a news conference held Monday afternoon:

"Because of the unseasonable weather Virginia Beach has experienced this Spring, with unusually long spells of northeast winds and high tides, our beach lost considerable of its sand. Official engineers, and the Commission, felt that the beach would start to build up with favorable weather. The Commission asked Mr. Richard Eaton, Chief Technical Advisor to the Federal Beach Erosion Board, an outstanding authority on beach erosion, to make an inspection of our beach. After his inspection, Mr. Eaton told the Commission that the procedures they have been following are the proper ones. Mr. Eaton also stated that he would stake his reputation that the sand we had lost was offshore and would return to the beach with favorable weather and moderate tides. I am glad to say that his statement has proven correct, because in the past few days, with the winds being westerly, we have recovered much of the sand that we had lost. If the west winds prevail, our beach will continue to build up."

Mr. Eaton made one suggestion to the Commission which we propose to follow—that we try to increase our booster capacity so that it will be possible to pump on the beach farther north than our present discharge lines allow us to do, and that we continue to use more of the material farther west in the Owl Creek area than right at the mouth of Roanoke Inlet. Pictures taken June 25th show how the beach replenishment has improved in the last few days."

Army Officer Facing Charge In Auto Death

Lt. James G. Rae, 24, USA, of Ft. Story, has been charged with manslaughter in connection with the traffic death early Monday of Wayne A. Miller, 20, of the Oceana Naval Air Station.

The accident happened shortly after 2 a.m. on Atlantic avenue between 60th and 67th street as Miller was walking on the east side of the avenue. Rae was arrested at Ft. Story about 9 a.m.

He was charged with hit-and-run and reckless driving in addition to the manslaughter charge. Rae told police he was alone in the car at the time. He is free on $1,000 bond pending a July 1 hearing in Princess Anne County Court.

Miller apparently had been on a beach party at 61st street with six other persons earlier in the evening. Police surmised he may have lost his car keys and was headed for a public phone to summon help when he was struck. The accident occurred about 10 feet from a public phone.

No car keys were found in Miller's possession and his car was parked on 61st street.

The impact knocked Miller about 150 feet. He was found eight feet off the highway and his shoes and socks were 120 feet from his body.

National Magazines Interested in Coverage of Beach Activities

The Virginia Beach News Bureau, under the public relations department of Laura Lamb Advertising, has advised that many national magazines have indicated interest in covering events at Virginia Beach.

Sports Illustrated Magazine in response to material furnished them and an invitation to cover the World's Championship Skeet Shoot, advises that an area correspondent will definitely cover and that possibly a magazine staff member may be available for the event.

On the approach to Life Magazine for coverage of "Arts Week," the Art Editor advised that another Arts Show is being used this year but contact was requested for next year.

Time magazine was also contacted on "Arts Week" and has requested that a run-down be submitted for possible coverage. All the Arts magazines and Outdoor magazines have been apprized of both News Bureau on "Arts Week" to Art Editors of metropolitan papers as well as releases to Report Editors. If tear sheets have come in showing publication of photos and releases sent them.

Tommy Gwaltney, originator and producer of the Virginia Beach Jazz Festival, stated that mail orders have been received from areas where these stories were used.

Laura Lamb, News Bureau Director, advised that Associated Press coverage is being given the beach after it has largely reclaimed itself—and event WPTV interviewed E. H. Church on Esso Reporter Monday evening showing beach photos and reporting on the condition of the beach. 12 photos of the beach taken on Sunday afternoon were sent resort editors for their use. It is felt that the News Bureau's efforts will offset the adverse publicity received several weeks ago.

Wanda Lamb, associated with Laura Lamb Advertising in handling the publicity program for this year, 47 tear sheets from metropolitan papers carrying the bureau's releases and pictures have been received by the office many testifying to the impact of coordination of publicity with the resort advertising in the big resort issues. The June issue of Commonwealth carried a story on Virginia Beach and event WPTV interviewed E. H. Church on Esso Reporter Monday evening showing beach photos and reporting on the condition of the beach. 12 photos of the beach taken on Sunday afternoon were sent resort editors for their use. It is felt that the News Bureau's efforts will offset the adverse publicity received several weeks ago.

Macdonald Buys Lumber Outlet

The John E. Wool Lumber Company yard on Birdneck Road, here has been sold to William K. Macdonald, it has been announced.

According to Macdonald, starting July 1 the yard will be re-named the Virginia Beach Lumber and Supply Co.

Macdonald has served as manager of the Princess Anne Lumber Company here for the past 16 years. He first came to Virginia Beach in 1944 with the Army Engineers at Camp Pendleton.

He is a native of Hewlett, N.Y., and attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald have six children, William K. III, Mary Harriett, Bruce Andrew, Steven, Barbara and Jaime.

Macdonald was scoutmaster for Troop 60 for nine years, has been with the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Rescue Squad for seven years and is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

They attend Star of the Sea Catholic Church where he is a member of Knights of Columbus. The Wool company has its main office and plant at 1000 Berkeley Ave., Norfolk, and a large branch at Bayview, both of which are being retained by the Wool family.

Lost Billfold Is Looking for Owner

Some youngster is no doubt wondering where a wallet is containing some money he or she probably lost in the excitement of having fun at Seaside Park recently.

The pocketbook and the money are in the Sun-News office waiting to be identified by its owner. Whoever lost the wallet can thank a thoughtful citizen, Mrs. Starr W. Cromwell, who brought the money and wallet to the Sun-News office Wednesday.

The owner can retrieve the lost item by visiting the Sun-News office and identifying the wallet and the amount of money.

REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

Of special interest to Dentists, Doctors, Department Store, refrigerator, appliance or furniture business operation.

*For Sale 17th St. just 75 feet west of Atlantic Ave.

THE ROLAND COURT BLDG.

Containing 3 stores, 2 ground floor offices, 9 apartments and 3700 sq. ft. of warehouse space. The lot size is 75 x 150 ft. with access at the rear from Atlantic Avenue over a 10 ft. service lane. It is equipped with a complete sprinkler system and a first-class heating plant.

This large unusually well constructed building, with brick walls 14" thick contains over 18,000 sq. ft. of floor area which would cost over $200,000 to build today. Some investor is going to get a terrific bargain at $69,000 which is only $3.85 per sq. ft. (A good screened porch costs $4.00 per sq. ft.)

A Dentist or Doctor would own his own ground floor office space plus an excellent income.

There is a large vacant store plus 3700 sq. ft. of warehouse space which would provide excellent housing for a refrigerator, T. V., appliance or furniture store operation. Or the entire bldg. could be used as a Department Store.

Owners will accept in trade, up to $45,000 in value, farm land, development acreage or other real estate not requiring supervision.

Lost Colony Has Many Special Events Planned

Performance and celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Lost Colony are two early season special events planned by the management of Paul Green's symphonic drama The Lost Colony.

The show is now in its 20th season at Waterside Theatre in Manteo, N.C., and will continue nightly (except Mondays) through September 4.

An exception to the Mondays will be on July 4. There will be a special performance on Independence Day (next Monday) at which General Manager Ed Dorton will present the largest display of pyrotechnics ever attempted on the North Carolina coast. The fireworks will be presented over Croatan Sound where the audience in Waterside Theatre will have a clear ring-side seat view of it all.

On Saturday, July 9, it is planned to celebrate Performance No. 1000 of The Lost Colony. Special added attractions to the regular season will be presented that evening at Waterside Theatre.

Critics who have seen the show this season say it is one of the best in the long history of the drama. The Lost Colony is the story of English attempts during the late 16th Century to plant a colony on Roanoke Island. Scene of the play shifts from royal courts in old England to the wilderness of the new world. The story sticks close to historical facts.

Groups patronizing the show is being encouraged this season. Each night, up to 300 club members from the Roanoke Island 4-H Camp see the show at special group rates. Manager Dorton stated that special prices would be given groups from anywhere who may come to see the Play, Great Opera and already many bus loads of patrons have been booked. Complete information about The Lost Colony or housing on Roanoke Island and the nearby beaches may be obtained by writing "Information Section, The Lost Colony, Manteo, N.C."

Elizabeth's Garden
One of the big attractions in the land of the Lost Colony on Roanoke Island this year is the Elizabeth's Garden. It is located adjacent to Fort Raleigh, where Waterside Theatre, home of the Lost Colony, since its opening in 1937, is also located. The Elizabeth's Garden is designed after the old English Gardens of the 16th Century. Sponsored by the Garden Club of North Carolina, the project with its beautiful flowers and rare statuary commemorates the memory of the first Queen Elizabeth.

Your Social Security

By EARL W. TEARLE
Field Representative

Children of qualified retired, disabled or deceased employees may be eligible for Social Security protection. This means that minor children under 18, and disabled children of any age, if the child was disabled before he became 18 years old, may be eligible.

The provision is not limited to natural children, but also includes step-children and adopted children. In order for a child to be eligible for payments the parent must have a certain amount of work to his credit under Social Security. This length of time depends upon when the wage earner reached retirement age, becomes disabled, or dies. No child of a living wage earner can qualify for payments, however, until the parent has filed claim for his own benefits.

Certain proofs are required to establish a child's eligibility to payments. The child's birth certificate must be furnished in order to establish his age and relationship to his parent. In the case of a step-child the marriage certificate must be presented also to establish the relationship, and if a child has been adopted, a copy of the adoption order must be submitted. Medical evidence is necessary to establish the disabled child's rights to disability payments.

News for VETERANS

July 4 is an important date for the widows and orphans of World War II and Korea veterans, the Veterans Administration said. On that date the new Pension Law goes into effect and widows and orphans of World War II and Korea veterans for the first time become eligible for VA pensions on the same terms as the dependents of World War I veterans.

Starting with July 1 the widows and orphans of veterans of World War II and Korea service and of World War I are eligible for pensions if the veteran was in active military service for 90 days or more part of it during wartime, and was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Certain limitations of income also apply. But, VA said, it will no longer be required after July that the veteran had service-connected disability at the time of his death.

Under the new Pension Law, if the widow has a minor child and her income is no more than $1,000 annually, she is entitled to receive $75 per month. If her income is between $1,000 and $2,000 annually, she may get $60 monthly. If the income is between $2,000 and $3,000, she may get $40. VA said if a widow has more than one child, the monthly payment may be increased by $15 for each additional child. But if her income totals more than $3,000 annually, she will not be eligible for pension.

VA recommended that widows of World War II and Korea veterans who may be eligible get in touch with the nearest VA office to make inquiry as soon as possible.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Wind Shifts and Sand Returns

The good news for everyone in this area, particularly to the Virginia Beach hotel and motel operators and their summer tourists, is the rapid buildup of the sand beach during the past two weeks. The reason for the return of the sand is relatively simple.

Most of the credit for the return of the sand to the beach here must be given to Mother Nature, who obliged intermittently with favorable westerly winds which, in turn, had the effect of bringing back to us normal tides and tide flow. This combination of factors will always create a good deposit of sand on the beach here and anywhere else.

While Mother Nature gets a lion's share of the credit for the improved condition of our beach, the work and faith and perseverance of the members of the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission cannot be overlooked or minimized. These gentlemen, all giving their time and energy to the work of restoring and stabilizing the sand beach here, did not waver in their belief that the work the commission was doing and the methods being pursued were right and proper.

The commission's approach to the problem, as stated several weeks ago by its chairman, Edward H. Church, was the recommended approach of the United States Erosion Board and the commission's own engineers. That is, to pump as much sand on the beach as the commission's equipment would permit and to try to replace more cubic yards than were taken away.

This week the commission's position was further approved by the chief technical advisor to the Federal Beach Erosion Board, Mr. Richard Eaton, who, after an inspection of the beach and the commission's operation here, stated that the procedures being followed are the proper ones and that the sand we had lost was off shore and would return to the beach with favorable winds and currents. This is exactly what has happened.

Mr. Eaton made one suggestion to the local commission, an idea the commission had been studying prior to Mr. Eaton's visit, and that is to increase the booster capacity so that it will be possible to pump on the beach farther north than at present and to continue to use more of the material farther west in the Owl Creek area rather than at the mouth of Rudee Inlet.

By and large we believe the beach restoration program here has been outstanding effective through the years. We believe there will always be periods when sand in sufficient quantity is taken from the beach by the elements leaving us with little or no sand beach at times, but year in and year out the program of the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission coupled with normal wind and currents will always give us the finest beach on the Atlantic Coast.

Thanks to the work and faith of the five men who comprise the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission and the helpful hand of Mother Nature the sand has returned and everyone can breathe easier.

Sunday Store Closings To Begin

This Sunday will mark the beginning of a new policy for many of the food stores in the Virginia Beach area and throughout Virginia, in accordance with the new Sunday "blue law" passed by the Virginia General Assembly in its 1960 session.

Colonial Stores, the giant food chain, has announced that all of its stores in Virginia will remain closed on Sundays effective this week. Colonial operates two supermarkets within the City of Virginia Beach and several in Princess Anne County.

Also closing its stores on Sundays will be the A & P Supermarkets. It is understood that both of these supermarket chains were reluctant to keep their stores open on Sundays, but the general situation at the time dictated such a policy.

Colonial Stores stated that they had always regretted the situation which brought about the general operation of food stores in the Tidewater area on Sunday.

Colonial Stores states that they are happy now to exercise a long felt desire to allow their many employees their right to the American way of observing the Sabbath as a day of worship, of rest and family association.

We commend Colonial Stores and the A & P for stepping forward in compliance with the new law. There are faults to be found with the law, but we are glad to see that these two leaders in the food field are closing on Sundays to set an example that others may follow.

Community Suffers Double Loss

Less than ten days ago death struck twice in a well-known and respected Virginia Beach family in the untimely passing of Dr. Robert G. Barr, Sr., and the sudden death of Robert G. Barr, Jr. Both father and son died within a few days of each other and less than one week apart.

The sorrow, suffering and heartache that such a double loss of members of a single family in so brief a period of time is almost inconceivable. The shock of the news of these deaths among friends of the family and throughout the community in general was appalling.

Dr. Barr, the father, was in the 71st year of his life at the time of his death and he had experienced a life filled with success in the business world and among his neighbors and friends. He had for many years operated a successful drug store business in Virginia Beach and like so many men of his type he never retired from business and was active up until his death.

Dr. Barr had many, many friends and for those of us who knew "Doc" Barr and loved him, his death was especially mournful. He was truly a fine gentleman and the head of a grand and respected family.

The younger Robert G. Barr was just 42 years old when he died just two days following the funeral of his father. Bob was an attorney and a former member of the Virginia Beach City Council. He had resided here for the past 39 years.

Robert Barr, Jr., was buried last Friday in the Arlington National Cemetery with full military honors. This was as it should be for Robert Gaily Barr, Jr. was one of the most decorated survivors of World War Two.

Bob Barr served his country during World War II as a member of the United States Navy. He was in numerous battles during the war and was cited many times. He received the Pre-Pearl Harbor, American Theater, Asiatic-Pacific with 10 battle stars, Philippine Campaign with two stars, the Navy-Marine Corps medal, the Purple Heart and a Presidential Citation.

The entire community shares with the families of these two men the sorrow and bereavement that is theirs at this time and the memory of this father and son will remain with us through the years ahead. Their leaving is a tremendous loss to our community.

Boat Safety Is Theme of Week

President Eisenhower has proclaimed the week from July 3 through July 9 as National Safe Boating Week and Mayor Frank A. Dulch a copy of the proclamation the official prepared in observance of National Safe Boating Week. The observance runs from July 3 through July 9.

Commander George G. Phillips, left, of Flotilla 57 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, is shown accepting from Mayor Frank A. Dulch a copy of the proclamation the official prepared in observance of National Safe Boating Week. The observance runs from July 3 through July 9.

Flotilla 57, Division V, of Hampton Roads stationed at Lynnhaven Inlet is joining in the observance. This unit is pledged to the promotion of boating safety and has its headquarters at the Lynnhaven Colony Chapel. The young flotilla started with 16 regular and eight provisional members.

Heading the unit at the beginning were: George W. Core, Commander; Thomas N. Nance, Vice Commander; and William R. Bennett, Training Officer, all of whom were elected to serve for a period of one year.

Ten faculty craft chartered with the newly-born flotilla included: ENCORE, skippered by Commander CORE; BETTY G. H. David L. Arsy; KEN RU, the late John K. Bauer; TAURUS, Alfred A. Brown; RICKIE JR., William L. Jones, Sr.; TOUJOURS, Arthur B. Nicols; PLAY-MATE, Stephen A. Quimby; LITTLE TUCK, M. C. Stribling; KALAY, Clay G. Gatewood; and SPARE TIME, under Amos R. Manning.

When the three original flotilla officers were re-elected to serve another term, and the start of the organization's third year, (1960), noted the first change in unit officials. Former Commander W. R. Bennett succeeded G. W. Core as Flotilla Commander; Wilbur Louis Palmer, Jr., replaced T. N. Nance as Vice Commander; and Milton G. Palmer became Training Officer.

On January 1 of this year, Flotilla 57 received 25 regular and five provisional members. Fourteen regular faculty craft were registered and two counted by provisional members.

Secretary-Treasurer of the flotilla since its concept are: Alfred A. Brown, 1958-59, and Joe Sadler for 1960.

The purpose of the flotilla as a unit of Auxiliary Division V is to assist the U.S. Coast Guard in the promotion of water safety and to effect rescues on and over the high seas and on navigable waters. It strives to foster in the general boating public, a wider knowledge of the laws, rules and regulations governing pleasure boating.

In the fulfillment of its mission, Flotilla 57 offers courses in basic seamanship and small boat handling yearly to all interested persons in the area, and provides an opportunity for advanced instruction to Auxiliary members.

Like other units of the Auxiliary, the flotilla provides, as a courtesy to boat owners and operators, a mandatory check of all legal and safety requirements for pleasure boats. Members of the flotilla are qualified as Coast Guard Examiners under strict standards set by the U.S. Coast Guard and are recognized experts in their field. These examinations are performed only upon request by the pleasure boat owner, and those craft passed by the Examiners are awarded a safety decal which signifies that the vessel is safe, seaworthy, and in full compliance with the law.

Regular meetings of the flotilla are held on the first and third Thursdays of each month and generally include guest speakers and advanced instruction in water

The Fifth Annual Boardwalk Art Show opens at tent headquarters at 24th St. and Oceanfront at 10 a.m. on July 7. At that time the some 150 artists will be setting up their exhibits and a film crew from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond will film the activity. The official opening takes place at 1 p.m. the same afternoon.

Artists from Florida to California and Canada have registered for the show as interest increases each year and the quality of art exhibited rises. Most of the old favorites will be returning and there are many interesting newcomers.

For the first time there will be offered free "Gallery Tours" for children and adults. Arrangements may be made at the new turquoise and white tent. Also new, each day a different painting will be selected by Neal Thomas and Bill Brittain to illustrate the use of a painting as a basis for decoration.

The show, open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., runs from July 7 through 17. In conjunction with the show, the Second Virginia Beach Jazz Festival will take place at the Convention Dome on July 8-9. Tommy Gwaltney, producer is offering a prize for the best jazz painting to be chosen by a special jury. On July 7 at 8:35 p.m., at the Dome, the Allied Arts Assn. will present the play "Harvey". Wade Williams is directing the show and playing the leading role of Elwood P. Dowd, featuring a stellar cast. The week of July 7 will be one to mark on the calendar.

On July 7th the Allied Arts Assn. of Virginia Beach will present the happy comedy "Harvey" at the Convention Center, 19th & Pacific Ave.

First produced by Brock Pemberton at the Forty-eighth Street Theatre in New York City in 1944, this play about an imaginary (?) white rabbit has become a classic of our time. Directed by Wade Williams who also plays Harvey, the play has been made up of well-known personalities on the local radio, TV and theatre scene. They are LaVerne Watson, Joe Foulkes, Cary Jones, Ann Livingston, Julie Nelson, Chi Chi and Lee Lively, Carol James and Elizabeth Lilly.

The performance will be at 8 p.m. of the opening day of the Boardwalk Art Show which officially begins Art Week at the Beach. Admission to the play is $1.00 and there are no reserved seats. The proceeds will go to the Building Fund of the Allied Arts Assn. Member groups of the Assn. are the Council of Garden Clubs, the Little Theatre, the Civic Chorus Group, the Virginia Beach Art Assn. and the Parent Assn. The eventual goal is a civic building to house the activities of these organizations.

Va. Beach National Little League News

By Mrs. Talmadge Bagby
MONDAY NIGHT
Pipers 3 Little Giants 3

Terry Whedon and Jeff Shelton shared mound chores for the Pipers. Wayne Simmons came through with another home run, scoring three runs for his team. Lonnie Orner, Andy Phillips, Jeff Shelton, Terry Whedon, Wayne Agee and Kenneth Hill also got nice hits for their team.

The battery for the Little Giants were Johnny Orr and Jimmy Batcheelor. Willie Rice and Johnny Orr.

Thunderbirds 3 J. C. Hawks 3
Dale Brady and Carl Bagby shared mound chores for the Thunderbirds with Mike Bates doing an outstanding job of pitching. He also assisted in two double plays, yielding nice hits for the Thunderbirds were: Carl Bagby, Norman Grosskreutz and Johnny Miller.

The battery for the Hawks were Max Wiley and Lane Agee. Chuck Hinkle laid down a nice bunt with Lane Agee and Bob Ward getting the only hits for their team.

There were several good plays and some were very close in this ball game, which made it a very interesting game to watch.

THURSDAY NIGHT
J. C. Hawks 4 Little Giants 3
The battery for the Hawks were Jim Ward and Lane Agee. Among the good hitters for this team were: Lane Agee, Max Wiley and Chuck Hinkle.

Sherrill mound chores for the Giants were Lenny Trouman relieved by Jimmy Batcheelor. Swinging the big bats for the Giants were: Johnny Orr, Salter and Jimmy Batcheelor.

Thunderbirds 16
Pipers 10

This was a most interesting game when the Thunderbirds defeated the Pipers with a score of 16-10. The Thunderbirds batting: Dale Brady, pitcher and Mike Bates, catcher, batted against the Piper battery: Jeff Shelton, pitcher and Kenneth Hill, catcher.

The big bat for the Thunderbirds was swung by Dale Brady when he hit a home run. Also good hits were made by Linwood Harper, Mike Bates, Norman Grosskreutz, Carl Bagby and Freddie Grosskreutz.

Much credit is due Wayne Simmons who hit a grand slam home run, and then again during the game hit another home run. Also John Evans and Jeff Shelton made nice hits.

A beautiful double play was made in the last inning when the Thunderbirds stopped two Piper runs.

American Little League News

By LIL MINTSMINGER
The American Little League team started its opening game on June 22, at the Virginia Beach High School field. At the close of the Little League Pledge, umpire-in-chief Deane Mills called "play ball," and the game of the year was underway.

The team, divided into two teams of 20 or more boys ranging in age from 5 to 11 years, got an official Little League game under their belts. For most of them, it was their first supervised game with umpires and scorekeeper. Each boy was in full uniform and team pictures were taken of the Red and Blue teams prior to start of the game.

The game was exciting and from the yelling and rooting by both spectators and players, it will be a game long remembered by all. The Official Scorekeeper ruled that no errors were committed—only miscues. Every boy went to bat and when the smoke cleared away, the Red team was out in front of the Blue team to the tune of 23 to 8. Another inter-squad game is scheduled for Saturday morning, July 2nd. To those who like baseball, this is a must of the year.

On June 21st, the Sports played host to the Rotarians in a well-played game. The third inning still seems to be the Sports' undoing as the Rotarians showed across 5 runs to win, but the Sports 7 to 4. Cubes Dobby went the whole route for the Rotarians as the winning pitcher while Tom Blouin was charged with the loss for the Sports. Mike Daly and Dash Dobby hit doubles for the Rotarians while Mike Hallock, drove in two of the 4 runs for the Sports with a single and a double.

Starting in the 7:30 spot, the Tigers and the Cubs played good baseball with the final count going to the Cubs, 6 to 2. Otto McDowell and Larry Taylor scored the only runs for the Tigers while Johnny Potts and Aron McDowell belted out two-baggers each to bring in four runs for the Cubs.

On Friday, June 24th, the Sports and Cubs tied off in the opening spot with the win going to the Sports 8 to 1. Bill Miller led the Sports could only master 1 run on 2 hits. Again the Sports ran into the "unlucky" 3rd inning when the Cubs scored all their runs. Will Pugh, Cub, faced 11 men in 3 innings, allowing 1 hit, 1 run and striking out 6 men, five in consecutive order. John Potts closed the door for the next 21 innings, no runs on 1 hit from Blouin. Sports got the only 2 hits for his team.

In the 7:30 spot, the Rotarians played host to the Tigers, with the Tigers winning 5 to 3. The Rotarians were closing in fast, but the rains came at the end of the 4th with the game being called at that point. Bill Mayo was the winning pitcher for the Tigers, going the 4th inning, allowing 3 hits and 3 runs. Mike Keefe, Tigers, got 3 hits for 3, including a double. Tom Sanders, Rotarian, got 2 hits for 2 and Mike Daly got 2 hits for 3 times up.

Many Greats to Appear in Beach Jazz Festival

Long after the second Virginia Beach Jazz Festival is history, the thousands who will attend the annual event will still hear the sounds of jazz by Dave Brubeck, Charlie Byrd, Maynard Ferguson, Sam Mott and the many other names who will perform that weekend. Not only from food memories, but by way of the second album made of the festival on VeeBee Records.

Tommy Gwaltney, producer of the festival and president of the local record label, said recording equipment will be installed in the convention center and the entire festival will be tape-recorded by VeeBee engineer Jack Garrison and artist and repertoire director, Bob Ghez.

"After the festival is over," commented Gwaltney, "we will edit the master tape and take the best performances of each artist who appears and include them in the album."

Gwaltney said the recording company decided to record this season's festival after the tremendous success of its album of last year's show. He added, a limited number of the first album is still available in record stores throughout the Tidewater area or by writing VeeBee Records, Box 530, Virginia Beach, Va.

The local label was founded by Gwaltney and Leo Hooty, general manager of WBOF Radio and treasurer of VeeBee Records, after the completion of last year's festival. Both were so impressed with the master tape recording of the show, they decided to form the local label and release highlights of the program in the form of the album, "Concert by the Sea... East Coast."

Your Best Values For Your July 4th Holiday...are at Colonial!

Effective immediately Colonial Stores Will Close All Sunday Store Operations in Virginia

The Colonial management always has regretted the situation which brought about the general operation of food stores in the Tidewater area on Sunday, and we are happy now to exercise a long felt desire to allow our many employees their right to the American way of observing the Sabbath as a day of worship, of rest and family association.

For our customers we hope the slight inconvenience of Sunday closing will not pose a material hardship; for our many loyal employees, good citizens of the community, we hope the customary day of worship, rest and pleasure will bring happiness and peace of mind, and for the retail food industry, we hope at least a sufficiently large portion will comply with the spirit of the new law to make it possible for our new closing policy to be lasting and permanent.

Babe Ruth Ball
Drawing Crowds

Babe Ruth baseball at Virginia Beach has settled down to tremendous competition during the past week. The boys are playing the type of baseball which keeps the fans interested until the last batter is out.

Tuesday night's game was an extra inning affair with the VFW Dodgers edging the Coates Motor Company Vallants 7 to 5 in the 8th inning. Larry Mailhes went the route for the Dodgers allowing only 5 hits while his teammates collected 7 to provide the needed margin. Charlie Canatser and Ricky Leonard welded the big sticks to the Vallants, collecting 2 hits each.

The Everett Jordan Yanks took the Vallants 9 to 2 on Wednesday with Laurin Potter pitching no-hit ball for 5 innings after which curfew was called. Bill Crosby pitched very good ball for the Vallants, allowing only 3 hits before Bobby Towle relieved him in the 5th inning.

The showdown for the weekend was scheduled for Thursday night when the League leading Spots and 2nd place Dodgers collided at 7:30 p.m. Final result, 7 to 7 with curfew again at 10 p.m. Klaim for the Dodgers allowed six hits and Hanson relieved by Caffey gave up a combined total of 5 hits. This game was a hard fought contest with sparkling defensive play which kept a large crowd on edge. This game will be continued on a night to be selected next week.

This past Monday night brought together the Vallants and the Dodgers and this proved to be the game of the week. The Vallants, a hard luck team from opening, the last inning, got little Ric one run behind going into the last inning got little Ricky Fuller on base with a walk and he stole 2nd before Charlie Canatser blasted a timely single to center field scoring Ricky from second. A few minutes later Canatser charged home when catcher Charlie Brown had the misfortune to lose the ball at the backstop.

Larry Mailhes, Johnny Arendts and Roger Mercer provided the power for the Dodge attack while Bill Crosby, Butch Stuckey and Canatser provided the punch which gave the fighting Vallants a 5 to 4 victory.

League officials announced the probability of a double header exhibition with an out-of-town team for Saturday, July 16th. It was stated that the League will hold its annual cook-out for the fans and friends of the Va. Beach Babe Ruth teams. Details will be published at a later date. All of those who are fans or friends should remember the date, July 16th for the annual Babe Ruth cook-out.

MORE STORY UNITS TO GO NORTH SOON

The main parties of the 155th Transportation Company, 14th Transportation Battalion, and the 560th Transportation Company, 10th Transportation Battalion, will soon depart for Thule, Greenland to participate in Operation SUNEAC. Under the command of 1st Lt. George W. Mudd, the 155th is scheduled to leave July 7th with the main party consisting of 3 officers and 171 enlisted men.

The company will leave by plane from Langley Air Force Base, Va., with a few hours stop-over enroute at Goose Bay, Labrador.

The 560th, commanded by 1st Lt. Paul W. Bossert, will have the main party leave by two means of transportation. On June 20th, one-half will depart by ship; and on July 7th, the other half will fly.

The company consists of 3 officers and 90 enlisted men. Advance parties of both companies have already departed.

The 155th Transportation Company, and the 560th Transportation Company, will operate under the terminal concept at the United States' northernmost permanent military installation.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

7th Ship Added to World's Largest Ferry System

The world's largest ferry system is growing even larger.

The Chesapeake Bay Ferry District, which has been operating six ships, has added a seventh to its fleet. The new ship is the 327-foot M. V. Virginia Beach, capable of carrying 80 vehicles and 1,200 passengers each trip. Name for the vessel came from the popular nearby ocean-front resort near Norfolk.

With the addition of the M. V. Virginia Beach, the ferry fleet will be able to make up to 90 crossings daily. Previously the peak capacity was 77 daily crossings.

The main line of the system is between Kiptopeke (Cape Charles) and Little Creek on U.S. 13, serving motorists traveling on the Ocean Highway between north and south. Crossing time for the 21-mile trip is 45 minutes.

Ceilings in the lounge areas of the M. V. Virginia Beach are insulated with heavy fiber glass. Glass partitions form two walls of the ship's masterly decorated dining room. Another new feature is a complete public address system that will permit the captain to keep passengers informed of special points of interest during the cruise.

Passengers will find ample areas on which to stroll during their trip, with a total of 1 of an acre of deck space.

In addition to the north-south run, the District also schedules six crossings daily on an east-west run between Kiptopeke and Old Point Comfort.

Commenting on the addition of the seventh ship, Nolan C. Chandler, General Manager of the Chesapeake Bay Ferry District, said "we have been anxious to place the extra vessel on the run to help accommodate summer tourists."

"With the seventh ship," he said, "there will be a ship departing from both terminals every few minutes during peak periods—keeping traffic moving steadily across the bay."

Motorists enjoy this route because of the opportunity it gives them to get out of their cars and to stroll on the open decks or relax in the lounge while they are still moving on toward their destinations. With snack bars and dining rooms on all ships, travelers may also have a meal stop on their trip.

A picture folder previewing the trip, a ferry schedule and a north-south map folder may be obtained by writing Dept. Y, P.O. Box 120, Norfolk 1, Virginia.

Judge Kellam Takes Oath of Judgeship

Judge Richard B. Kellam, left, is shown as he was sworn in as associate judge of the 28th Judicial Circuit in impressive ceremonies last Saturday in the Princess Anne Courthouse. Next to Judge Kellam, left, is John V. Fentress, clerk of court; Princess Anne Circuit Court Judge Henry W. McKensie; Chief Justice John W. Eggleston of the State Supreme Court; and Judge Robert S. Wahab, Jr. (Photo courtesy Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.)

Richard B. Kellam Sworn In As Judge

In an impressive ceremony held in the courtroom at Princess Anne last Saturday morning Richard B. Kellam became a judge of the Circuit Court, a position once held by his brother, the late Judge Floyd E. Kellam.

Judge Robert S. Wahab, Jr., who was elevated to the bench of the 28th Judicial Circuit in 1958, read Kellam's commission from Gov. J. Lindsay Almond, Jr. Chief Justice John W. Eggleston of the State Supreme Court swore in the new judge.

Thus, Judge Kellam becomes associate judge of the 28th Judicial Circuit and Judge Wahab becomes the senior judge. Judge Henry W. McKensie, Jr., who presided over the court Saturday, now becomes the resident judge of the new 38th Judicial Circuit which is the City of Portsmouth.

The new 28th Judicial Circuit is comprised of the Counties of Isle of Wight and Princess Anne and the City of Virginia Beach. Officially these changes take place on July 1.

An overflow crowd witnessed the swearing in ceremony at Princess Anne Saturday and many friends and well wishers found only standing room. The jury box was filled with members of the judiciary of the Tidewater area.

Investors Loan Corp. opens its 22nd office, Wednesday June 22nd.

The new office is located at the corner of 20th St. and Pacific Ave.

Investors also have offices in Luray, Front Royal, Warren, Winchester, Leesburg and Woodstock, Va.

Bill Allen is the new manager. He was experienced in the consumer finance field.

He, Mrs. Allen and their two children plan to move to Virginia Beach in the near future.

Fourth of July Traffic Warning Issued by Police

"Curb that 'in a hurry' complex, don't drive when exhausted, drowsy or after drinking, and drive defensively."

These were words of warning from Col. C. W. Woodson, Jr., Superintendent of State Police and Chairman of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee, for motorists over the forthcoming Fourth of July weekend.

In analyzing the nine crashes which killed 17 people in Virginia during the two-day 4th of July weekend last year, Col. Woodson noted that there were seven drastic speed violations, three equally drastic cases of improper passing, three incidents of drinking participants and one crash which yielded no other explanation than that the driver fell asleep.

Col. Woodson stated that holiday drivers are often prone to hurry to their destinations. Once there, the tendency is to indulge in more exercise than is customary, to go without proper amounts of sleep, and sometimes to consume undue amounts of alcoholic beverages. Finally, they might wait until the last minute to start their return trips.

Return trips, he said, made in dangerous darkness, with drivers not in their best physical conditions and with highways crowded with other drivers operating under similar conditions, account for most holiday deaths.

"Of course," Col. Woodson commented, "all drivers will not do all of these things. However, many will do some of them and one driver doing one of them can spell disaster."

Touching on defensive driving, the safety official called attention to national estimates on a year-around basis which indicate that seven out of 10 people who are killed or injured in traffic suffer from the fault of others. He then asked that drivers try to anticipate dangerous situations which might arise, relinquish right of way at any sign of trouble, cut their speeds after dark and refuse to ride as passengers with those who are driving recklessly or are not in excellent physical condition.

"The National Safety Council is predicting 370 deaths. We can cut this appreciably with just a little caution and forbearance on the parts of all of us," he concluded.

IT ONLY FEELS LIKE POWER STEERING

(Corvair doesn't need it)

Corvair's ingenious design simply places the engine in the rear. That means less weight on the front wheels and a lighter, happier feel in the curve of your hands. No power assist is needed in a car that's naturally nimble.

See what a fresh engineering approach can do? From handling and parking ease right on, there just isn't anything ordinary or conventional about Corvair. Look at its practically flat floor, four-wheel independent suspension, fold-down rear seat. Its air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze or radiator repair... and leaves engine heat and noise back where you've been. All these special advantages are standard in every Corvair. Just wait till you see how much they add to your driving pleasure. But why wait?

The MIXING BOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Lemons, like all the other citrus fruits, are believed to be native to the tropical regions of Asia and the Malay Archipelago.

The first reference to lemons in early (1175 AD) Chinese records refers to them as having come from the "Southern Barbarians" which leads us to believe that they were not native to China.

Some authorities believe they were first grown in the foothills of the Himalayas and that lemon-ade was first made there, near the spot where Omar Khayyam wrote of more spirituous beverages.

Lemons are practically an all-purpose fruit. While the largest numbers of lemons are used in the production of beverages, a great many are used for flavorings, as in pies, sherbets, in salad dressings and in meat and fish cookery. As a garnish and as an added flavoring, lemon juice as a seasoning, adding a final dash to tossed salads.

As a thirst quencher, lemons are almost without peer. Soldiers were issued lemon-flavored candies during World War I when water supplies were limited.

Like all the citrus fruits, lemons contain appreciable amounts of vitamin C.

Besides its use in cookery, the lemon is a great aid in many household tasks. It is an excellent mild bleach for delicate fabrics. Lemon juice on a soft cloth will remove stains from aluminum. Copper and brass may be polished with a lemon rind that is dipped in ordinary table salt.

As a beauty aid, lemons are also handy. Their juice makes an excellent, gentle bleach for freckles. Lemon juice rubbed into the hands after dishwashing or after peeling onions will serve the double purpose of removing odors and helping to keep the skin white and soft.

Lemon juice, well diluted with water, is one of the oldest after-shampooing rinses we have. It helps assure the removal of all traces of soap and is an excellent and safe brightener for the hair.

In a manicure, rubbing the finger-nails into a cut lemon helps to bleach the nails and remove any stains from the fingertips or the cuticles.

FROZEN LEMONADE WORKS WONDER WITH FRUITS

A frosty fruit cocktail is a tempting beginning to any summer meal—and doubly good when it's seasoned with frozen lemonade!

Yes, frozen lemonade works wonders with fruits, for it is pure California lemon juice already mixed with sugar. It brings out the flavors of other fruits and adds lemon zest and tang.

In late summer when fruits are plentiful, fruit cocktail is a treat to enjoy often. Melon balls, pineapple, and berries (either fresh or frozen) are a delicious combination; so are grapes, bananas and canned peaches, cherries, or pears.

Just put the chilled fruits in lemons or sherbet glasses and spoon a few spoonfuls of frozen concentrate for lemonade over the top.

Or, you may prefer to make the cocktail by marinating the fruit for a little while in the concentrate for lemonade. This is an especially good method if you are using fruits such as fresh apples, pears, or bananas—for frozen lemonade acts just as lemon juice does in preserving their color. Remember this, too, when you're slicing apples or bananas for fresh fruit salads. For if you dip the slices immediately in concentrate for lemonade, you'll be surprised how long they will keep their color.

No recipe is given, since the fruits you use will depend on what is most readily available and for whichever fruits your family likes best. Frozen lemonade works well with all—really "perks up" the flavor!

CLARET LEMONADE

1 (6-oz.) can frozen concentrate for lemonade.
Equal amount of claret (use lemonade-can as measure).

METHOD: Combine ingredients in electric blender and blend until frothy. Serve at once. Yield: 2 tall glasses. (In increasing or decreasing the quantity of this recipe, just be sure always to use equal parts of claret and concentrate for lemonade. And do use chilled ice.)

LEMON-ORANGE SNOW PUDDING

1 envelope unflavored gelatine.
1 cup water.
1 cup fresh orange juice.
1 cup fresh lemon juice.
1/2 cup sugar.
3 tablespoons grated orange rind.

1 cup shredded coconut.
Soften gelatine in water. Heat juices and sugar to boiling point. Add gelatine and stir until dissolved. Add grated rind. Cool. As it begins to thicken, beat occasionally. When syrup, add egg whites and coconut. Beat with wire whisk until stiff. Pour into 1 quart mold (or 6 individual molds) and chill. Serve garnished with sliced oranges. Yield: 6 servings. May be turned into 6 halloved out orange shells instead of inside. Contains approximately 136 calories per serving.

CREAMY LEMON LAYER CAKE

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour.
2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1-1/2 cups sugar.
1/2 cup softened butter or margarine.
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind.
2 whole eggs.
2 egg yolks.
1 cup milk.
Heat oven to 375° F. (moderate).
Sift first 3 ingredients together. Gradually blend sugar with softened butter or margarine until fluffy. Mix in grated lemon rind. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Add flour mixture alternately with milk. Beat better 1 minute. Bake in 2 well-greased lightly floured, round, 8-inch layer cake pans for 25 minutes or until done. Cool 10 minutes. Turn out on wire coolers to finish cooling. Put layers together and cover top and sides with the following Creamy Lemon Frosting.

CHILI COCKTAIL SAUCE

1/2 cup catsup.
1-1/2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice.
1 tablespoon horseradish sauce.
1/2 teaspoon salt.

1 teaspoon chili powder.
1/2 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper.
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder.
Combine all ingredients. Serve as the sauce for shrimp, lobster or crab meat cocktail or over meats. Yield: 1/2 cup.

RICH LEMON-ORANGE SAUCE

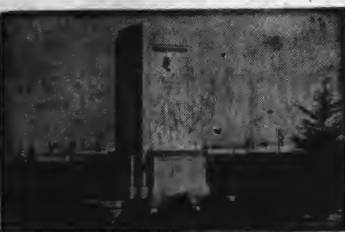

1 cup sugar.
1/4 tablespoons cornstarch.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1 cup hot water.
1 cup fresh orange juice.
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice.
1 egg yolk.
1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind.
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind.

3 tablespoons butter or margarine. Combine sugar, cornstarch, and salt in a small saucepan. Stir in hot water and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Mix the fruit juices with egg yolk and blend with the cooked mixture. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in grated orange and lemon rind and butter or margarine. Serve over squares of gingerbread, cake or cottage pudding. Garnish with orange or orange sections. Yield: 1-1/2 cups.

Film Features Summer Meeting Of Cape Henry Club

A summer meeting of the Cape Henry Jr. Woman's Club was held last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Lynnhaven Presbyterian Church.

The program for the evening was presented by the Fine Arts Dept. A film entitled "The Children of Now," was shown by Mrs. John Fowler. It was a film to encourage help through sponsorship for the underprivileged children of this country and countries overseas.

The members voted on the club goal, motto, flower, and colors. It was decided to have a crab & hamburger feast on Aug. 30th. Husbands of the members will be invited.

The flower arrangement for the evening was by Mrs. C. D. Harris.

Cardinal Garden Club Installs New Officers

Mrs. Ervin Murden was installed president of the Cardinal Garden Club at the annual luncheon recently, at the Princess Anne Country Club.

Other officers installed by Mrs. Edward Blake, Jr., of the Bay Colony Garden Club were Mrs. John Field, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Webb, second vice president; Mrs. Harold Webb, recording secretary; Mrs. Irvin Upson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Walter Beaman, treasurer.

An engraved silver plate was awarded to Mrs. Beaman for being selected the club's outstanding woman of the year.

Faircloth Is Top Recruiter

W. M. "Bill" Faircloth, owner of Bill's Barber Shop, 3104 Pacific Ave., Virginia Beach, was the recipient of a "Top Recruiter" award from the Commanding General of the Second United States Army this past week. Presentation of the award, an engraved certificate, was made by Capt. L. H. Owens, Commanding Officer of the U.S. Army Recruiting Main Station in Richmond and witnessed by Mr. Faircloth's son, 1st Lt. Donald W. Faircloth, who has been in the army for the past four years. In making the presentation, Capt. Owens stated that through the influence of "Bill" Faircloth, primarily, a number of young men from the Virginia Beach area had become interested in and chosen a career in the Army.

Faircloth points with pride to the accomplishments of his son who enlisted in the Army in 1956 and has risen already to the rank of first lieutenant. He said that he believes there is ample opportunity for other ambitious young men to start a useful career in the Army while fulfilling their military obligation to their country.

Mr. Faircloth has been in business here for the past 19 years, and has operated his shop at the present location for the past 9 years. He resides with his wife, Clytie May at 520 21st St., Virginia Beach.

Your Social Security

By EARL W. TRINKLE
Field Representative

Most employers express sincere pride in the part they play in providing social security protection for their employees. They recognize the importance of keeping accurate records of their employees' earnings and the amount of social security taxes they withhold. They understand too that timely reports for each employee must be filed with the Director of Internal Revenue at the end of each calendar quarter.

Not all types of work were covered under the social security law in 1937. For this reason, social security reporting is relatively new to some employers. For example, domestic workers were not covered under social security until 1951. Most agricultural workers were not covered until 1955. Not all domestic and agricultural employers are, therefore, aware of their responsibilities.

The requirements are very specific. All domestic work must be reported if domestics are paid $50 cash or more (by the same employer) in a calendar quarter regardless of the number of days on which the employee worked in that quarter. All work done on a farm for which the worker is paid $150 or more in cash in a year is covered. The farm worker is also covered if he works 20 or more days (for the same employer) during a year for cash wages figured on a time basis.

The accuracy of employers' reports cannot be overemphasized. The amount of social security benefits is directly related to the period of employment and the amount of earnings credited to each account. If certain employers fail to report their employees' earnings or report only part of their earnings, it is impossible for the Social Security Administration to arrive at the true benefit payable. No report could mean no benefits, while incomplete reporting may mean only partial benefits.

If you employ a domestic or an agricultural worker and are not receiving the forms for making the tax reports, ask at your local social security office or your Internal Revenue Service office.

Rev. Edmund Koller installed the officers.

Fireworks Slated At Seaside Park

A fireworks display on Monday night, July 4, will climax the Independence Day schedule for holiday-makers at Seaside Park, Virginia Beach.

The Ballroom, a magnet for visitors to the Park, is expected to get its biggest crowds of the season over the July 4 weekend. Admission is always free, and there's always dancing. A different band plays every night, with The Saints, Jay Ward's Debonairs and Sir Danny Knight and the King's Men rotating on the stand. Then there's juke box music when the bands are not playing, and on Saturdays and Sundays from 2 to 6 p.m. music is furnished by Hank Thomas and his Big Sound Orchestra.

The Atlantic Ocean beach, of course, provides one of the biggest attractions for holiday patrons, and there are always plenty of umbrellas and chairs for those who like to sit on the breeze-swept beach and watch the play of the surf. There is also a modern bath house with all conveniences. The Park has a wide assortment of thrill rides, and a kiddieland with their miniature counterparts, an air-conditioned refreshment rendezvous and it's all under a roof to protect visitors from an overdose of sun or an occasional shower.

The free circus attraction on the Outdoor Stage for the week beginning June 27 is the Kayo Family, oriental foot jugglers, daily at 2:30 and 9:30 p.m.

Virginia Packers Immobilize Hogs Before Slaughter

Who cares how you kill a Virginia pig?

The answer, apparently, is: lots of people. It's a subject that gets them so stirred up that for years they've insisted there ought to be a law about it for all states. And now there is.

The new federal humane slaughter law, effective July 1, applies to most of the 2,000,000 hogs expected to be slaughtered in Virginia this year, because it affects all packers who sell meat to the government.

Anesthesia, similar to that used with humans undergoing surgery, will be used in many plants to immobilize hogs and keep them unconscious for about four minutes, twice the time needed for slaughtering, reports Cardox Division of Chemetron Corporation, Chicago, which supplies carbon dioxide to the packers.

The method is gentle and inexpensive, and eliminates bedlam in the plants and injuries to workers resulting from frightened animals fighting for their lives, Cardox said.

The law also will regulate animal handling. Regulations on types of equipment to be used, construction of driving chutes, and training of handling personnel are expected to eliminate bruising and reduce panic among the animals.

Last year, Virginia was 13th in the country in hog slaughtering with 2,031,000 head.

Beat the Heat at Seaview Beach

The best way to beat the heat on the long July 4 weekend is to dunk the body in the cooling waters of Chesapeake Bay. And the best place to do the dunking is at Seaview Beach. Virginia's premier colored shore resort on Shore Drive.

One of the East Coast's most modern bath houses is maintained at Seaview, and lifeguards patrol the beach at all times. There is also a free wading pool for the smaller children, also under the supervision of lifeguards.

In the compact amusement park may be found a variety of thrill rides, air-conditioned comfort at the Cozy Nook Club, and free dancing in the club, the outdoor ballroom and to the newest records played by disk jockey Hugh Mintz Friday nights and Sunday afternoons. The dancing is always free, except on those occasions when a big name band supplies the music. Then a nominal admission charge is made.

So—see you at Seaview on July 4!

PHABLES FOR PHONERS

The remarkably competent
Mrs. Callwell

Mrs. Callwell was really most competent. Her children believed (and truly) that she could do anything—and her husband bored people stiff bragging about her.

One night about 5:15 Mr. Callwell phoned and said, "Dear, I hate to do this, but . . . our most important Client's in town. He's tired of traveling and perishing for a real home-cooked dinner. Could you possibly . . . ?" Mrs. C. hesitated. Dinner was left-overs, there wasn't a flower for decoration, her best tablecloth was torn and the table itself was buried under dress patterns. However, she said "Yes" and hung up the phone.

She picked it up again at once and called the market. Then the florist. Then her neighbor, to borrow a damask cloth. Then her married daughter, to come help. Result? Client was delighted with his dinner—and Mr. Callwell was just plain delighted. Later, Mrs. C. told Mr. C. "You owe it all to the telephone. It's worth more than we pay for it any time, but in an emergency like tonight—my Dear, it's phantastic!"

Ten minutes on the phone is worth two hours of running errands.

BAYSIDE LIONS HOLD INSTALLATION DINNER

Friday night, June 17, at 7 p.m., the Bayside Lions Club held an installation banquet and dance at the Fort Story Officers Club. Ella Lovelace of the Norfolk Lions Club installed the following officers: president, John E. Absalom, Jr.; first vice president, C. Gordon Hugheson; second vice president, Michael Henry; secretary, Lewis D. Thurston; treasurer, Harold G. Russell, Jr.; Lion Tamer, George Langley; Tall Taper, Kenneth Jarrah; directors, Noland Chandler, Claude Nock, Joe K. McBride and Jackson Tignor.

A social hour preceded the dinner. George Lyon presented the Lovelace a birthday cake on the occasion of his 65th birthday.

John E. Absalom congratulated retiring president, Eugene F. Caldwell for his excellent work as leader of the club in the past year and talked briefly on plans for the coming year.

Past district deputy Gov., George Lyon, presented a bronze plaque to Eugene F. Caldwell on behalf of the club for his outstanding leadership in the past year. He also presented him a past president's pin.

Among the distinguished guests present were: District Gov.-elect, Cowles Hogge; Dep. District Gov.-elect, Wilfred Johnson; zone chairman, elect Edward Lassiter and retiring district deputy governor, John Wood.

Michael Henry, the club's program chairman, is to be congratulated for planning the program.

THE MAUDE FULFORD GOLDEN CIRCLE MEETS WITH MRS. CHRISTAPOULAS

It has been the custom of the Golden Circle, in the past years, to hold their June meeting at the home of Mrs. G. C. Christopoulos, in Lake Shore. Mrs. Christopoulos celebrated her 86th birthday this month.

As in the past years, Mrs. Christopoulos always plans and prepares the meal for the circle and presides over the banquet table in her tastefully decorated dining room.

According to the club founder, Mrs. Fulford, the dinner table was decorated with an alabaster container of gardenias. Appetizers consisting of pear nectar, apricot brandy and hot hors d'oeuvres were served. Smithfield ham, turkey, meat pie, homemade hot rolls with lemon seeds, vegetables from the Christopoulos garden, salads, and ice cream with a special strawberry sauce completed the banquet. The ladies brought Mrs. Christopoulos birthday remembrances which were attractively wrapped, many with corsages attached to them. They were presented to her in a gaily decorated wicker basket.

Members present for the celebration were: the president, Mrs. Fred L. Lunaford, Circle founder, Mrs. Harry Fulford and her mother was a special guest, Ms. J. H. Hamer; Mrs. Paul Mueller, Mrs. Albert Benke, Mrs. J. B. Fay, Sr., Mrs. R. W. Sprull, Mrs. Herman Oliver, Mrs. Curtis Hall, Mrs. L. Anderson, Mrs. John West, Mrs. Z. Davis, Mrs. T. B. Petty.

Mrs. Lunaford announced that Mrs. T. L. Petty, a circle member, was a patient in De Paul Hospital where she underwent surgery.

Announcement was also made that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baugier, celebrated their Golden Wedding, June 24th, at the home of their daughter in Manassas, Va. Mrs. Baugier is a Circle member.

The club will not meet again until September.

BAYLAKE METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

The Vacation School of the Baylake Methodist will hold their closing exercise Thursday, June 30. The Junior Dept. parents are asked to come at 11 a.m. The Primary and Kindergarten parents at 11:30 a.m.

The Adult Fellowship of the church enjoyed a camping trip this past weekend at Kerr Dam, Clarksville, Va. Members who made the trip were: Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Whilaker, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Burris, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Quincy, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cook, Jr.

R. E. Carr of Thoroughgood has returned home from Jacksonville, N.C., where he was a patient in the Ochs Hospital.

Sandra and Pat Long, of Baylake Pines, are visiting relatives this week in Jackson, N.C.

OCEAN PARK COMMUNITY CHURCH NEWS

The church's Father and Son banquet was held Tuesday night, June 28th at 6:30 p.m. at the church.

Rev. Phillip Tanner and family will leave for vacation Friday, July 1. While away they will visit relatives in Banghampton and Maine, N.Y. During the Rev. Tanner's absence, Rev. Donald Chick will supply the pulpit.

OCEAN PARK HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS

The Ocean Park Home Demonstration Club met Monday, June 20, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Jones in Sylvan Beach.

The following nominating committee was appointed: chairman, Mrs. Claude New; Mrs. Jones and Mrs. R. G. Holloman.

Plans were discussed for "Achievement Day" which will be held in October at the Kempsville Meadows School. A plant exchange will be held at the same time outside the school building.

The demonstration for the Monday meeting was "Better Breakfast" and it was stressed that everyone should eat breakfast, which is the most important meal of the day.

The meeting was presided over by the club president, Mrs. Robert L. Morris and fourteen members were present.

Mrs. David Buck presented a report on the programs for the coming year.

The July meeting will be held in the garden house of Mrs. C. M. Hiller. A luncheon will be served.

Phil Vincent Boasts Unusual Restaurant Lounge

When Phil Vincent opened his new restaurant lounge this spring in the Janaf Shopping Center off Virginia Beach Blvd., he was successfully combining business with pleasure. His band—5 men and a girl furnished the music for the opening.

This new restaurant is of his own design and features a continental atmosphere. Completely air conditioned it has a seating capacity for 99 guests. It has been rated as among the most beautiful in the state.

A kitchen with the most modern in equipment and storage together with a wide variety of fine foods assures the tops in offering of a fine Italian-American cuisine. Also served are club breakfasts, businessmen's lunch and dinners—table d'hôte and a la carte.

Vincent is not new to this area, either as a restaurant operator or musician. He opened his first restaurant in 1935 at 517 Colley Avenue, Norfolk and has added many improvements to the original. His Power Mowers Fire Hazard

Safe storage and safe handling of gasoline are important to home fire safety.

"Gasoline powered lawn mowers are increasing in popularity because of their being a labor-saver, but the fire and explosion hazards have increased with each can of gasoline," said Fire Chief E. B. Bayne of the Virginia Beach Fire Department.

"Be safe at home," he advised, "by storing gasoline in self-closing, safety cans in small quantities."

"Never fill the tank of a gasoline-powered mower when the engine is hot, for you might cause an explosion or a fire," Chief Bayne concluded.

first band was organized in 1940. He hopes to eventually attract name duets and trios to his newest restaurant to perform alternately with his group.

NOTES FROM YOUR COUNTY AGENT

By E. R. "DICK" COCKRELL, JR.

LISTEN TO YOUR COUNTY AGENT

6:20 THURSDAYS, 12:10 SATURDAY, STATION WTAR

"JUST ONE FAULT"

The applicant for a job said he didn't smoke, drink, didn't go out with wild women, didn't loaf. The boss said he was amazed, because the man didn't seem to have any vices at all. "I have only one," the applicant admitted. "I tell lies."

4-H CAMP

Forty-five 4-H members from Princess Anne County will attend 4-H Camp next week. The boys and girls will join 4-Hers from Brunswick, and Norfolk counties for the week at 4-H Camp Farrar, located on 5th Street, at Virginia Beach.

A busy week is planned for these campers. The program will include classes, handicraft, athletics, swimming, and many other activities. The theme for the Camp is "One Nation Under God." Much of the program centers around celebrating the 4th of July, and the admission of the 50th state to the Union.

This is one of the many summer 4-H activities in which 4-H members from Princess Anne County will be participating.

4-H SHORT COURSE

Twelve 4-Hers from Princess Anne County are attending the 4-H Short Course on the VPI Campus at Blacksburg this week. These boys and girls are among the 1,200 outstanding 4-Hers from throughout the state who are attending this event.

Many activities are included in the week's program. These include the state judging and demonstration contests, classes, presentation of awards, and other programs and activities.

The girls attending from Princess Anne are: Ginger Oliver, Bay-side, Virginia; Kelly Lynne, Lynnhaven; Betty Ann Lee, Bay-side; Anne Con-nell, Bay-side; and Sharon Fenton, Bay-side.

The boys attending from Princess Anne are: Edly Vaughan, Back Bay; Bill Cannon, London Bridge; Jamie Buffington, Princess Anne; Dan Humphries, Princess Anne; David Moulton, Princess Anne; Bruce Clarke, Princess Anne; and Al Basing, Princess Anne.

Eddy Vaughan, Bill Cannon, and Jamie Buffington will participate in the State Solis Judging or Land Appreciation Contests. These boys placed second in the Southeastern District Contest, held in April, and gained the right to compete in the State contest.

David Moulton will compete in the State 4-H Public Speaking Contest. He won the Southeastern District Contest, and will compete against the outstanding speakers from throughout the State.

4-H YOUTH PRODUCE PRIZE ANIMALS IN PROJECT

Some of the choice steaks on your table these days come from prize beef cattle raised by 4-H Club members.

And the beef project, say 4-H agents at VPI, is not exclusively a male prerogative. Scores of 4-H girls have claimed ownership of champion steers at events ranging from county fairs to the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago. In fact, Virginia's state winner last year was Miss Patricia Wisecarver of Bedford County, now a student at VPI.

This year's winner, who will represent the state at the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in early December, will be named at the state 4-H Short Course at VPI this week.

National awards in the 4-H beef program are six $400 college scholarships. The program is sponsored by E. I. duPont de Nemours & Co.

The beef program covers breeding, production, management, marketing, and scientific research. At the same time it offers many opportunities for 4-Hers to practice leadership and assume responsibility. To be eligible for a state or national honor, the 4-H member must be over 14 years old and have completed at least three years of clubwork. Over 1,500 Virginians are enrolled in the beef project.

Many 4-Hers in Princess Anne carry beef projects. Most popular is the Baby Beef Project. Many boys and girls have already begun preparations for the project this year. If you are planning to take this project, now is a good time to clean and repair the pen and begin other preparations.

USE SAFETY PRACTICES AROUND FARM PONDS

Is your farm pond a death trap? That's the timely question posed by safety experts at VPI, who point out that a few precautions can help you avoid many of the hazards of swimming, boating, skating and fishing. This recreation is popular on the many streams, lakes, and seashores in Virginia, as well as on the 20,000 farm ponds found in all sections of the state.

Drownings accounted for 36 fatal accidents in rural Virginia last year, six more than the year before. Drownings ranked third, below falls and fires, in the list of leading causes of accidental non-transport deaths in rural areas. Fifteen of the deaths by drowning occurred on the farm, three at home or on the premises, and 68 in public places. Fifteen of the deaths were in the five to 14 year age group, 30 in the 15 to 24-year age group, 22 in the 25 to 44-year age group, with other distributed more or less evenly.

The safety experts have prepared a leaflet on water safety, especially designed for farm ponds, but including information of value to everyone whose play time is spent around water. Ask for Circular 831, "Water Safety," available from my office.

PROGRESS SEEN IN PRODUCTION OF BROILERS

How efficient is a broiler when it comes to converting the feed he eats into meat?

Dr. Arthur T. Ringrose, poultry specialist at VPI, says broiler feed efficiency is getting better all the time.

He cites 1954 data on broiler consumption showing the growth rate and feed consumption, on an average of 37 flocks totaling over 1,000,000 birds. The data shows that at age 10 weeks and 3 days, broilers weighed an average of 2.03 pounds, with a feed efficiency of 3.06. This means in 1954 it took just about three pounds of feed to make one pound of broiler chicken.

Now, recent data from tests conducted at VPI by Dr. Paul Siegel, showed broilers weighing 3.46 pounds at an age of 9 weeks with a feed conversion of 2.20. In other words, in the tests it took only 2.20 pounds of feed to make one pound of broiler chicken. Compared to 1954, the average weight has been increased by one-half pound, the growing time reduced by one week and three days, and the amount of feed needed per pound of broiler has been reduced by nearly one pound. Such progress in only six years has been brought about, Dr. Ringrose says, by better breeding, feeding, disease control, and management.

VENDING MACHINES MIGHT INCREASE USE OF MILK

The student who could walk down the hall of his high school building and buy a carton of milk by simply putting a coin in a vending machine would drink more milk than he now does, contend dairy marketing specialists at VPI.

Their contention is based on findings of a Utah Experiment Station study last year in four schools with an enrollment of 2,275. The study showed that vending machines in these schools increased the amount of milk used by students nearly 8 percent per school day.

Nine vending machines installed in school hallways offered milk in one-third quart cartons. Marketing specialists making the study thought vendors might be especially helpful to students who carried their own lunches or wanted milk between meals. An important question was whether milk from vendors would be substituted for or added to milk usually consumed at home or with the school lunch.

To learn how much milk was used at home, surveys were made of parents before and after vendors were installed at school. The vendors had little or no effect on a student's use of milk at home. In fact, students who bought milk from vendors generally were those who drank the most milk at home.

Records kept of the amount of milk used in school lunch and "special milk" programs before and during the year of the vending study showed that use of milk with school lunches increased each year with no interference from the vend milk.

However, there was considerable difference in the amount of milk sold from vendors in various months. Vendor sales were highest the first month the machines were installed. In October, the sales rate was nearly 40 cartons per 100 students a school day. Up to January, sales still were running nearly 35 cartons per 100 students per day. When another kind of beverage was offered along with milk in vendors, milk sales fell to 17, then 14, then continued some decline each month through spring.

The Station concluded that research is needed on long-run sales of milk in school vendors, and also on the effect of competition from other types of beverages, if offered. Many of these findings agree with similar studies in other states, the VPI men say.

RESEARCH CONTINUES ON ALFALFA WEEVIL

Don't let the alfalfa weevil chase you out of business.

An intensive search for more effective materials to control the weevil is underway at Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station. Meanwhile, spraying with methoxychlor or malathion, while not quite as effective or easy to use as granular heptachlor or the fertilizer-heptachlor mixture, is a temporary solution.

If the farmer follows recommendations carefully in spraying with methoxychlor or malathion, he will get satisfactory control, the scientists say.

Clearance on newer and more satisfactory materials is not expected in time for next winter.

The scientists point out that alfalfa and alfalfa-grass mixtures are currently the largest single source of hay in Virginia. Last year Virginia farmers made almost 150,000 tons more hay from alfalfa than from the next largest source—clover grass. "It is too important a crop to leave out of a feed program in which it is being used," they claim. Here are their specific recommendations:

If you grow enough alfalfa to justify owning a sprayer, or if you have access to a sprayer, continue as usual. Keep the alfalfa you now have and would ordinarily keep, make new seedlings as usual, and arrange to have sprayer available for next spring.

If you have only a small acreage of alfalfa, and do not have access to a sprayer, arrange for custom spraying next spring.

If you do not use alfalfa in your feed program, don't seed alfalfa this year unless you can make definite arrangements now for spraying next spring.
